

MASTERS AND COLLEGE NEW TO JUDGE LEAGUE OF NATIONS

MORE than 4000 ministers, college professors and public spirited citizens have recently joined a world wide movement, through churches of all names, to establish international good will, to secure entrance of the United States into the league of nations, and to end wars by bringing justice.

The plan has some relation to the church peace union, one financed by the late Andrew Carnegie with $1,000,000, and is also closely related to the United States of America work for better relations with Japan. By those who are handling the membership campaign it is said there is marked interest in this work, through the church and a strong sentiment that some form of league of nations must be formulated and adopted.

It is explained by the promoters of the alliance that some time before 1914 large delegations of ministers exchanged visit between Germany and England, and that the coming of war was alone prevented by the American ministers from getting into this exchange plan. Now the work is taken up again, and just now there is a session in Switzerland a meeting of Christian leaders of almost all Europe and both Americans to promote friendship as means of peace.

National councils having these aims are already formed in Holland, Italy, Germany, Belgium, Great Britain, Sweden, Denmark, France, Switzerland and Hungary.

SALARIES OF CLERGYMEN ARE BEING INCREASED THIS YEAR.

The big administrators of affairs in churches are being paid more than ever before. For many years salaries of Methodist bishops and missionary secretaries have been increased to $5000. These include the new administrators who are to collect Methodist Centenary funds and other missionary secretaries have been raised to $7000.

Besides the salary rates, Methodist bishops get allowances of $1500 for house and $1000 for automobile. The Episcopal church recently increased its salaries. The Episcopal church recently increased its salaries. The Episcopal church recently increased its salaries.

TWO BAPTIST TOUR WORLD.

AID INTERNATIONAL FEELING.

Two men who are regarded as perhaps the foremost living Baptists have just started on a tour of the world to get acquainted with other Baptists. The tour is being conducted by Rev. J. B. Gambrell, of the Southwestern theological seminary, and Rev. Dr. R. Y. Milliken, of Louisville seminary.

METHODISTS FACE BIG JOB IN COLLECTING CENTENARY FUNDS.

Methodists say they recognize that perhaps the hardest part of their centenary celebration is before them. The reversal of feeling following the war, a political campaign and the collapse of the interchurch world movement, may make the collection of the $111,000,000 difficult. This was the amount promised for general work, payment of it to cover a period of five years.

There has now been created a committee on conservation and advance. It is charged with the duties of keeping up Methodist moral, seeing to it that those who offered life services keep to their efforts, and that those who pledged money actually pay it.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS PLAN TO TRAIN 250,000 YEARLY.

Knights of Columbus among Catholics emulate the war heroes of Protestants, and yet they have found new fields. It is calculated that the night schools, which the Knights will establish, will cost $1,000,000 which they have remaining after concluding their war work, will provide training for 250,000 students a year.

Primarily, these will be former men and women in war service, but attending the convention will end after the manner of the "T" the Knights will now open instruction in certain lines to the general public. Former service men are now in technical schools at an expense to the Knights of $2,000,000.

Other Catholic laymen are not far behind the Knights. Preparations are being made for the first meeting of the national laymen's council since their organization a year ago as part of the national Catholic welfare council. The meeting will be held in Washington and every benevolent organization, formerly in the Catholic laymen's federation, has promised to send delegates.

What was begun as an unofficial enterprise on the part of Catholic laymen has now received full official sanction. The church and its reported that the Washington meeting next month will make and announce some far reaching plans, chiefly social service, that will compare favorably with the educational work of the Knights.

"MAYFLOWER" WAS NOT HOME OF CONSTITUTIONAL GOVT.

According to the Virginia claim, the constitution government in America had its start in the vestry room of a church on the island of Jamestown, Virginia, in 1619. The year was 1619, and somewhat more than 12 months before the Pilgrims landed on the coast of the country. Virginia has asked some churches to observe the 351st anniversary of the event, and still an official report that not a few will do so. Cooperation obtains between the Pilgrim and the Virginia committees, each having members on the other.

On the island of Jamestown the Holy Communion was celebrated first on June 24, 1619. On nearly the same spot a church was later built, and in its vestry there came together elected delegates from the island and adjacent mainland, and there constituted a local representative government.

Twelve years after Jamestown's settlement, a settlement was made on the mainland at Williamsburg, and the Jamestown church, which is still in use, the Jamestown church, which is still in use, the Jamestown church, which is still in use.

These leaders will go first to England in direct tour. There are not a large number of Baptists, but some of them have always been able to look to the world for leadership. A first duty will be to impress upon British Baptists a few points about the American church.

Conferences are in full swing with Baptists of the near east, some of whom were until recently orthodox Catholics. Then a tour of the mission fields of the far east will be made, and Baptists and other Christian bodies will be visited.

SECRET Of Christ's Religion Centers In His Own Personality And In Love

"Lovest Thou Me" Is No Abstract Philosophy, but an Inquiry So Simple That Child Can Grasp It; Savior Is With Us in the Most Commonplace Duties of Daily Life, Though Not Always Seen.

By REV. MILO ATKINSON, First Christian Church.

SCRIPTURE incident, John 13:1-17. People who read this story some times condemn Peter for proposing that they go fishing, claiming that it is an evidence of quickly departing faith in the Master that he is so ready to "return to his old life." But the return to the old life in this case has nothing to do with moral lapse. Peter is simply turning to his regular method of earning his daily bread. It was perfectly natural for him so to do. Indeed, the necessity of toil for daily bread is often the saving grace that keeps the soul from despair in its hour of deep grief. Those who are permitted to nurse their sorrow and brood on their own sufferings, are often growing as they grow. Many of heaven's sweetest angels come in dark disguise.

Life is made up of largely of commonplace things. What is the Christian's advantage over the man of the world? The answer can be given in a word: "Love." The man of the world is not "that thou shouldst take them out of the world," but "that thou shouldst keep them from the evil one."

Christ In Commonplace Life.

Christ manifests himself in the midst of the most commonplace duties of life. They might have expected after his resurrection that he would appear in the temple, in the synagogue, on some great feast day. But here he is while they are busy with the most commonplace tasks. We look for him on the Lord's day at the communion service and in the assembly of the saints, but we do not always see him when he comes to us in the home or in the shop or office on the other days of the week.

When he came he gave command, "Love one another as I have loved you." He knew more about the business affairs of life than man knows. If the teachings of Jesus should be accepted just as he gave them to us, all labor troubles would be settled, profiteers would sink away and human society would be a different place. The love of brotherhood, even the imperfect application of his teachings has made Christian nations tremendously superior to non-Christian lands in their business, commercial and industrial life.

Commonplace Duties Are Noble.

He had prepared for them their common tasks. It is the manner in which the task is done and not the task itself that determines whether it is noble or not. Today we are to think that such toil degrades. It is degrading only to those who do it with a bad heart. The man who does these commonplace duties, a necessary requirement of human life, these tasks are transformed into tokens of nobility.

The meal ends that love may be kept by the heart. The man who does these commonplace duties, a necessary requirement of human life, these tasks are transformed into tokens of nobility.

Scripture

Psalm 137:1-6. Hear the right, O Lord, attend unto my cry, give ear unto my prayer, that goeth out of distressed lips. Let my sentence come forth from thy presence, let thine eyes behold the things that are equal.

Thus have proved mine ears; thou hast visited me, the night; thou hast tried me, and shalt find nothing; I am purposed that my mouth shall not transgress, for I fear thee, O Lord, and will not be disobedient to thy word.

Kidney Remedy for 40 Years

A Pronounced Success

When kidney diseases have been successfully treated for a period of more than forty years, it is reasonable to assume that the remedy therefore must possess unusual merit. Such a remarkable record of Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Remedy, out its ability to give relief and benefit its users so that they would continue to use it, could not have lasted 40 months, much less 40 years of its available record. Many letters have come to us to prove that it has been a household remedy for years and years. Here is what one grateful woman has recently written:

"I wish to say that your remedies have been used in our family for fifteen years. We are never without a bottle of Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Remedy in our home, and it has saved many a doctor's bill. It is a wonderful medicine for all diseases of the kidneys and liver."—(Signed) Florence E. Schmidt, R. F. D. No. 2, Dunkirk, Ohio.

For the elimination of poisons due to impaired kidney action, Warner's Safe Kidney was famous for 15 years before this woman so judiciously benefited by its use. There are thousands of people who realize that their general health depends upon their kidneys and have found Warner's Safe Kidney a reliable family medicine. Forty years ago it was named "Safe" because it is SAFE absolutely, equalizing the work of both the kidneys and liver. Satisfactory results are obtained in the most severe cases, and it is sold by druggists everywhere. A sample sent on receipt of 10 cents. Warner's Safe Remedies Co., Dept. 214, Rochester, N. Y.—Adv.
