

SOCIETY and CLUBS

Mrs. H. B. LEHNBERG

Mrs. DAN WHITE

Mrs. RAYMOND FRENCH

CHRISTMAS PLANS BEING MADE WITH GAY SOCIAL LIFE AHEAD

By OLLIE F. LANSDEN.

THANKSGIVING over, Christmas is hard by and the first of the Christmas parties are already being given and planned. The holiday atmosphere abounds and on every hand is good cheer.

The season of the social world between Thanksgiving and Christmas is at its most pleasant time, for cold weather has made the cozy gatherings in softly lighted interiors doubly pleasant and over the tea cups and at bridge parties many happy hours are being spent.

For the weekend there is much of interest as usual.

Mrs. C. H. Campbell and Miss May Campbell are entertaining with a tea at the Campbell home with numbers calling and for the evening there is scheduled the first of a series of formal dances at the Toltec clubhouse, which this season is enjoying an especially brilliant number of functions.

The Casino Mexicano is also having a brilliant cabaret dance. The Child Players of St. Clemente are presenting a matinee this afternoon and an evening performance this evening which is attracting a great deal of interest.

On Sunday evening a social and dance will be given at Community hall, Temple Mt. Sinai, this being the third of a series of pleasant events.

One of the largest of the season's teas will be given next Tuesday afternoon at the Toltec clubhouse when Mrs. B. P. Clutter and Mrs. R. W. McCandless receive to honor Mrs. Clutter's aunt, Mrs. L. E. Sifton, of Spartanburg, S. C. and Mrs. Frances Beall of Los Angeles.

For Wednesday of the incoming week the wedding of Miss Eva Dutton Stevenson and Charles Littlepage Hallard, Jr., is scheduled and numerous affairs are honoring the bride to be before the date the Misses Elvira, Elma and Natalia Galvestine having entertained at a luncheon for her and the members of her wedding party today.

Miss Elizabeth Graham is entertaining this afternoon for Miss Stevenson. On Thursday of the incoming week the affair of social interest announced is a tea to which Mrs. Sam Watkins is to be hostess at the Watkins home in Hawthorne Place to honor her mother, Mrs. M. R. Ament, and Mrs. Ament Deming, of Deming, N. M., and to honor Misses Sara Davis and Margaret Thompson, who are being extensively feted during their visit to Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Thomas.

On Thursday evening the first performance of "Around the Clock with the Debutantes" will be given at Liberty hall under the auspices of the Elks' club.

This is society's prominent event of the next few weeks. The younger set busy as bees with their rehearsals for the performances.

Little El Paso Girl Is A Success As Esthetic Dancer In California

ARLINE LANGAN, 11 year old dancer of Venice, is acquiring fame so fast and widely it is hard to realize that she is the hatless, care free, jolly little public school girl one sees racing around the grammar school yard in Venice during recess in a turtle neck sweater, with her hair flying in the wind, a swift-limbed little tomboy," says a Venice (Cal.) paper. She is a former El Paso child, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Langan, a Los Angeles paper recently said.

"A dainty toe dancer, graceful and beautiful, who scored one of the big hits of the evening at Grammas in Los Angeles."

Misha Guterson, conductor of Gramman's orchestra, says: "Arline has a wonderful personality, she is a clever dancer and will some day be a wonder."

entirely new; I never saw one just like it and she is beautiful!" Broken Christian, moving picture actor, who plays the part of "Caleb West" in "Deep Waters," said to Norman Dawn, Arline's uncle, not long ago: "Norman, I want to congratulate you upon having such a beautiful and clever niece. She is good enough for New York city."

It is to her grandmother that Arline owes more than to any other one person or thing, her perfection. Olga de Mojean, known throughout the country in the heyday of "The Two Orphanas," has reared her youth in Venice as Mrs. Dawn, mother of Norman Dawn, the film director and playwright, she has devoted herself to Arline's instruction and as her business manager, has jealously guided her interests from the very cradle.

"I am proud of Arline," says Theodor Kosol, her teacher. "And well he might, for she is truly a marvel, a wonderful little genius and marvel."

Mrs. MAURICE SCHWARTZ

ARLINE LANGAN

THINGS WORTH WHILE IN LIFE THE ONLY THINGS WORTH DOING

By OLLIE F. LANSDEN

THREE comes a time in the life of every man and woman when he or she has to have something aside from material things to which to attach.

When great sorrow comes, almost ungodly reason, one flounders, looks about frantically for something of comfort for mind and heart, and happy is the man or woman who finds some faith, some creed, some religion or some philosophy upon which to lean.

Some find one way of fighting the dark way ahead, some find another and it does not behoove one single one of us to be intolerant of their faith or philosophy.

Let them think as they please and let those who have different views listen in respectful deference to what they say and glean the good and helpfulness of their words for their own use. In every faith, in every creed, in each bit of philosophy, there is much that is sheer common sense, and common sense and sane thinking is what one needs most.

If one can keep one's head just a bit above the world, material things of the world, one can look on misery or unhappiness as a thing apart.

It is the easiest thing in the world to listen to gossip and to join in with this or that added little bit, but the comfort of having refrained from sliding in the flame is greater.

and it may be counsel or self-righteousness, or whatever one wants to call it, but there is such a comfortable feeling in saying where the talk was first uttered: "Suppose he did, we would probably do likewise were we in the same position."

People are full of good and there is much happiness in the world and whatever one looks for, one is apt to find. Sometimes it seems that taking the line of least resistance and giving up to unhappiness is the easiest way, but this idea has poison in it for, submerged in unhappiness, one's greatest help to himself or humanity is lost.

Happiness is the thing we want, happiness in the home is what keeps the young heart, happiness in the home is the element that keeps man from wandering from the friends.

There would not be one-half of the divorces if home contained the happiness that the male creature seeks, and if there is any one of the many things that bring happiness that is more important than the others, it is tolerance.

Let woman be tolerant of her husband's faults, let husband be tolerant of the wife's faults, let parents be tolerant of their children and in this day of rapid changing of customs one may beg the young folk to be tolerant of their parents, born and reared under vastly different circumstances.

(Continued on Next Page.)

THE PHOTOS ON THIS PAGE

MRS. H. B. LEHNBERG, wife of Lieut. Lehnberg, of the medical department, U. S. navy, Mrs. Lehnberg comes as a bride here, her marriage to Lieut. Lehnberg having taken place in Los Angeles on November 8. Mrs. Lehnberg is the former Miss Jay Dow, of Los Angeles and is an interesting addition to society in this city. Lieut. and Mrs. Lehnberg are at home at a residence on Mountain Avenue.

—Photo by Bergson.

MRS. DAN WHITE, one of the most prominent matrons of society. Mrs. White was on Mrs. W. W. Turner's committee for the preparation of invitations for the recent Charity ball, which was the most successful social affair ever given in this city. Mrs. White is active in many of the organizations for civic welfare and is vice president of the College Woman's club.

—Photo by Bergson.

MRS. RAYMOND FRENCH, of Chicago, formerly Miss Irene Fienicken, of this city, a niece of Mrs. T. W. Langer. Mrs. French was in the Northwestern university for her third year when her wedding to Mr. French, who is now at the university, took place. She is a member of the Delta Delta Delta society and was a popular member of El Paso's younger society set.

MRS. MAURICE SCHWARTZ, one of the society women who assisted in making a success of the Charity ball. Mrs. Schwartz was chairman for both committees for turkey donations and for flowers. Mrs. Schwartz is prominent in affairs of society and clubdom, being a member of the social committee of the Woman's club and at the same time finds time to be a companion to her two interesting small sons.

—Photo by Bergson.

THE bottom picture is of Miss Arline Langan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Langan, of Los Angeles, former El Pasoan. She is a talented dancer and has appeared professionally before large audiences in California. She was born in El Paso.

ously well trained, and just the sweetest, dearest girl imaginable, the most popular, youngest of her neighborhood; the heart of a boy of happy little girl wherever she goes, and the most generous little lady that ever drew breath," says the Venice Vanguard. "I owe everything to my grandma," she says. "She is proud of me and I am proud of her. She put me where I am."