USE OF HORSES IN BULL FIGHTS STIRS PROTEST

Mexico City, Mexico, Jan. 6.—There is agitation here against the use of horses in bull fighting.

Protest on behalf of the horses is confined to those who are not keen followers of the sport.

However, the sight of a gored animal running frantically to the slaughter is being because of his blindness from he knows not what, has sent many hundreds home from the games before the bull is wounded.

President Obregon has given his approval to the proposal.

At the sound of the anthem he stopped in his tracks, lowered his head and with Pastor standing at rigid attention not three feet from the bull's head, the hymn was completed.

MEXICO NAMES NEW CHIEF OF OIL DIVISION

Mexico City, Mexico, Jan. 6.—Reorganization of the government department which handles petroleum matters, predicted for several days, has been partly effected with the appointment of Rafael Alcocer as chief of the department and Joaquin Santalla as head of the special department concerned with the technical phases of the petroleum problem.

Salvador Castillas, who has been head of the petroleum department for several months, now becomes a high official in the department of public works, according to El Monitor.

The appointments of Sr. Schiaffini and Santalla are contrary to rumors which had forecast a departmental reshuffle, with the resignation of Sr. Castillas, had been asked to resign.
