

KODAKS

Shaw Supply Co. Inc.
915-919 Pacific Ave.

We hardly need any introduction to the Tacoma Public in the Photo Supply line. "That's the way we got our start"—20 years ago—in a little office room in the Berlin Building. We've been growing ever since.

Well, KODAKS are still our "long suit." Our store is the center of gravity in the kodak life of Tacoma. A kodak that came from Shaw's is worth twice as much as one which came from any other place—because of the great help which our force of expert photographers gives to all our customers.

Don't deprive your children of a Brownie camera another year. Why should you when you can get one for $1.00, $2.00 or $3.00 and Shaw free instruction.

Then there's mother—always with the children. Let her have a nice Premo Film Pack Camera at $6.00 to $15.00. She'll get pictures of those children that dad would not part with for a thousand dollars in a few years. AND then comes Dad or the grown boys and girls. They want the "Post Card Size" or what we call the 3-A Kodak at $20.00. It's a dandy—and will last a whole life time.

Don't forget that when you buy here you not only get your money's worth—but you get the benefit of Shaw free service instruction. That's worth a whole lot.

We'll look for you tomorrow.

BUY RED CROSS SEALS

Members of the Pierce County Anti-Tuberculosis league report a good sale this year in Red Cross seals. Besides distributing the little stamps among school children of the entire county, club women of Tacoma have taken up the campaign, and with good results.

Proceeds of the Red Cross Seal sale in Tacoma go to maintain the anti-tuberculosis department, at the city hall. The surplus this year will be placed in a fund which is intended to be used in a year or two for erecting a children's ward at the Mountain View sanitarium. At present, the children are forced to remain in the same general ward with grown-up patients.

Today and tomorrow the tuberculosis fighters are collecting books. All Tacoma is asked to donate books for the Mountain View patients. The patients are not allowed to take out library books, and thus their scant supply of readable at the hospital has been read and re-read. Books are being collected at the Colonial theater, both inside the foyer and on the outside of the doors.

SLINGS IT AT WILSON

"Byzantine logothete," as Col. Roosevelt used it in reference to President Wilson, is a term of profound contempt, explained Prof. Basil Gildersleeve retired professor of Greek at Johns Hopkins university and the foremost classical student in America.

"It is derived," he says, "from a Greek word, logothetes, meaning a scrivener who draws up papers. It is the name of a subordinate who does the work of a secretary and holds purely a minor position."

"I think Roosevelt raked up this scathing term from some history he had probably read recently. It is by no means a commonly known word."

WET & DRY NEWS

LONDON, Nov. 21.—London's anti-treating law is no joke. It is no American Sunday closing affair. It's the real, unadulterated article. When American city fathers agree that there shall be no Sunday saloons they draw up their ordinance and notify the saloonkeepers. But they don't lock the back doors. England does. Also the windows. Also the cellars.

The vast difference between American and British observance is startlingly shown in the effects of this latest step against intemperance. In one month drinking has diminished 25 to 40 per cent in England. Drunkenness is down 40 per cent and still decreasing.

Careful investigation proves today that there is no treating in London. Fashionable cafes in London's downtown district now have many empty chairs. Leading hotel bars lack the little groups of "stragglers" who gathered daily to discuss the war over whisky and soda.

Professional "moochers," well known in London, have been annihilated by the law which says they may have no drink unless they pay for it. Semi-respectable restaurant - public - houses have been hard hit. No groups gather to talk over ale and bitter. The patrons are drinking almost pathetically alone.

The lower class of public house has suffered less. Laborers still drop in for their morning and evening nip or tankard of ale. They paid for it themselves before, anyhow.

Few Cocktails.

At a certain American bar and hotel well known to Americans the veteran barmaid who makes the best Bronx cocktail in England, admits she isn't making so many nowadays. She knows many of the most prominent Americans in London and many who frequently come over, but she admits she's not seeing them so often.

Police court figures show that where London produced 1,000 arrests weekly for drunkenness before, there are now no more than 600.

CAPT. BOY-ED, SAYS RUMOR IN CAPITAL

It is rumored in Washington that Virginia Mackay-Smith, daughter of the late Bishop Alexander Mackay-Smith, former rector of St. John's Episcopal church, one of the most exclusive congregations of the capital, is engaged to Capt. Karl Boy-Ed, the German military attaché who has been recalled by his government, on the request of the United States.
