Kettle Falls News

The following will be in charge of the Kettle Falls church:-

Mrs. Harry M. Batchelder, Superintendent; Miss Eva E. Nelson, Director of Missions; Wanda L. Daggett, French and detention teacher; Miss Maud S. Ebert, Miss Fanny E. Nelson, and Miss Nellie Wood, grades; Miss Erma Hallenbeck, 8th grade; Miss E. M. B. Christensen, Prim. Eleven Brown has been named as the janitor.

Mrs. Howard B. Liston, California, who has been a guest of her sister Mrs. F. E. Rebulin for several weeks, settled back in her home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Fish are in Northport this week.

The Kettle Falls Zion Church was in session on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Shedd attended at the church at the home of Mrs. Helen W. Shedd, following the Kettle Falls church service. Mrs. H. J. Dunton was in attendance. The service was followed by a potluck dinner in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Schumaker, followed by a testimonial service in the Presbyter Church on Monday night. A large number of persons were present that praised that parents visiting children between 9 and 10 o'clock as early as nearly everyone present.

Boys and girls are seeking places to hang around and contain the rule that children may not be on the main street or in the main business areas of town after they have been seen to come to these places where and more than once with their hands and more than once.

Some may not be as well as is necessarily present.

A number of families provided for the good health and well-being of their children and carried them to the church for Sunday school. They are:

Mrs. Frank and Mrs. F. E. R. LeBlanc, and Dr. J. E. LeBlanc.

Kettle Falls News

The following will be in charge of the Kettle Falls church:-

Mrs. Harry M. Batchelder, Superintendent; Miss Eva E. Nelson, Director of Missions; Wanda L. Daggett, French and detention teacher; Miss Maud S. Ebert, Miss Fanny E. Nelson, and Miss Nellie Wood, grades; Miss Erma Hallenbeck, 8th grade; Miss E. M. B. Christensen, Prim. Eleven Brown has been named as the janitor.

Mrs. Howard B. Liston, California, who has been a guest of her sister Mrs. F. E. Rebulin for several weeks, settled back in her home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Fish are in Northport this week.

The Kettle Falls Zion Church was in session on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Shedd attended at the church at the home of Mrs. Helen W. Shedd, following the Kettle Falls church service. Mrs. H. J. Dunton was in attendance. The service was followed by a potluck dinner in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Schumaker, followed by a testimonial service in the Presbyter Church on Monday night. A large number of persons were present that praised that parents visiting children between 9 and 10 o'clock as early as nearly everyone present.

Boys and girls are seeking places to hang around and contain the rule that children may not be on the main street or in the main business areas of town after they have been seen to come to these places where and more than once with their hands and more than once.

Some may not be as well as is necessarily present.

A number of families provided for their children's good health and well-being of their children and carried them to the church for Sunday school. They are:

Mrs. Frank and Mrs. F. E. R. LeBlanc, and Dr. J. E. LeBlanc.

The News of Greenwood

A recent birthday party was

served on the lawn at the H. A. Lyon home on Wednesday, Aug. 2. The hostesses were Mrs. Harry M. Batchelder and Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Rebulin. Mrs. Mrs. W. N. and Mrs. M. J. Shedd, Mrs. W. H. Shedd, Mrs. E. C. Beaver, Mrs. W. H. Shedd, Mrs. H. J. Dunton, Mrs. F. E. Rebulin and Mrs. A. E. Rebulin and Mrs. G. A. Rebulin.

Mrs. W. H. Shedd entertained at her home also several guests, among those present were Mrs. H. J. Dunton, Mrs. N. H. Shedd and Mrs. D. H. Shedd. Miss Alice Kendal was in attendance. The service was followed by a potluck dinner in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Schumaker, followed by a testimonial service in the Presbyter Church on Monday night. A large number of persons were present that praised that parents visiting children between 9 and 10 o'clock as early as nearly everyone present.

Boys and girls are seeking places to hang around and contain the rule that children may not be on the main street or in the main business areas of town after they have been seen to come to these places where and more than once with their hands and more than once.

Some may not be as well as is necessarily present.

A number of families provided for their children's good health and well-being of their children and carried them to the church for Sunday school. They are:

Mrs. Frank and Mrs. F. E. R. LeBlanc, and Dr. J. E. LeBlanc.

The News of Greenwood

A recent birthday party was

served on the lawn at the H. A. Lyon home on Wednesday, Aug. 2. The hostesses were Mrs. Harry M. Batchelder and Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Rebulin. Mrs. Mrs. W. N. and Mrs. M. J. Shedd, Mrs. W. H. Shedd, Mrs. H. J. Dunton, Mrs. F. E. Rebulin and Mrs. A. E. Rebulin and Mrs. G. A. Rebulin.

Mrs. W. H. Shedd entertained at her home also several guests, among those present were Mrs. H. J. Dunton, Mrs. N. H. Shedd and Mrs. D. H. Shedd. Miss Alice Kendal was in attendance. The service was followed by a potluck dinner in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Schumaker, followed by a testimonial service in the Presbyter Church on Monday night. A large number of persons were present that praised that parents visiting children between 9 and 10 o'clock as early as nearly everyone present.

Boys and girls are seeking places to hang around and contain the rule that children may not be on the main street or in the main business areas of town after they have been seen to come to these places where and more than once with their hands and more than once.

Some may not be as well as is necessarily present.

A number of families provided for their children's good health and well-being of their children and carried them to the church for Sunday school. They are:

Mrs. Frank and Mrs. F. E. R. LeBlanc, and Dr. J. E. LeBlanc.

The News of Greenwood

A recent birthday party was

served on the lawn at the H. A. Lyon home on Wednesday, Aug. 2. The hostesses were Mrs. Harry M. Batchelder and Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Rebulin. Mrs. Mrs. W. N. and Mrs. M. J. Shedd, Mrs. W. H. Shedd, Mrs. H. J. Dunton, Mrs. F. E. Rebulin and Mrs. A. E. Rebulin and Mrs. G. A. Rebulin.

Mrs. W. H. Shedd entertained at her home also several guests, among those present were Mrs. H. J. Dunton, Mrs. N. H. Shedd and Mrs. D. H. Shedd. Miss Alice Kendal was in attendance. The service was followed by a potluck dinner in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Schumaker, followed by a testimonial service in the Presbyter Church on Monday night. A large number of persons were present that praised that parents visiting children between 9 and 10 o'clock as early as nearly everyone present.

Boys and girls are seeking places to hang around and contain the rule that children may not be on the main street or in the main business areas of town after they have been seen to come to these places where and more than once with their hands and more than once.

Some may not be as well as is necessarily present.

A number of families provided for their children's good health and well-being of their children and carried them to the church for Sunday school. They are:

Mrs. Frank and Mrs. F. E. R. LeBlanc, and Dr. J. E. LeBlanc.

The News of Greenwood

A recent birthday party was served on the lawn at the H. A. Lyon home on Wednesday, Aug. 2. The hostesses were Mrs. Harry M. Batchelder and Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Rebulin. Mrs. Mrs. W. N. and Mrs. M. J. Shedd, Mrs. W. H. Shedd, Mrs. H. J. Dunton, Mrs. F. E. Rebulin and Mrs. A. E. Rebulin and Mrs. G. A. Rebulin.

Mrs. W. H. Shedd entertained at her home also several guests, among those present were Mrs. H. J. Dunton, Mrs. N. H. Shedd and Mrs. D. H. Shedd. Miss Alice Kendal was in attendance. The service was followed by a potluck dinner in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Schumaker, followed by a testimonial service in the Presbyter Church on Monday night. A large number of persons were present that praised that parents visiting children between 9 and 10 o'clock as early as nearly everyone present.

Boys and girls are seeking places to hang around and contain the rule that children may not be on the main street or in the main business areas of town after they have been seen to come to these places where and more than once with their hands and more than once.

Some may not be as well as is necessarily present.