Birds Taught Cat a Lesson.

People passing along Lower Addiscombe road, Craydon, England, saw a cat attacked by two birds. The cat, a large black one, was perched on one of the higher branches of a monkey tree, and the two birds, flying from different trees, pecked the unfortunate animal at every favorable opportunity.
The attack lasted for several minutes.
Eventually the cat was rescued by a man with a short ladder and pole.

Suicide's Body Long Undiscovered.

Disappearing after killing another man in a fit of jealousy two years ago, a young man in Ambréon, near Toulouse, France, was discovered dead in a garret by his father. The body had been hanging from a nail in the garret of a farm house that had been untenanted from about the time of the crime.

Wonderful.

The man who carried off $3,500 worth of radium has returned it with the explanation that he has just learned its value. So shines an honest deed in a naughty world.—Boston Transcript.
