Give Hard Times Party

The Pythian Sisters were hostesses at a hard times dance Thursday evening of last week, at the L. O. O. F. Hall. Cow bells, bales of hay, lanterns and various things appropriate to the occasion, formed the decorations. A scarecrow placed in the center of the room, held a hat full of feathers, and the ones drawing the lucky white feathers received prizes. Milton Weidkamp received a basket of eggs, and Esta Hickey, a rubber ball. A prize of a pumpkin pie was also presented to the couple dancing the most original fox trot, Miss Martha Knittle and Wm. Eddy being the winners. Each lady brought lunch in a basket of pail, and bales of hay served as tables and chairs.

Celebrate 25th Anniversary
