

PERSONAL MENTION.

F. L. Stotler was attending to business at Palouse Monday.

Miss Nellie Sullivan is in Spokane, where she is making herself useful as stenographer for one of the big firms of that city.

Arch Hardesty of Oakesdale was doing business at the county seat Saturday.

Mrs. Lizzie Beckett of Kalispell, Montana, arrived in Colfax Friday and is the guest of Mrs. H. I. Willis.

F. P. Egan of Palouse was attending to legal business in Colfax Monday.

H. E. Constantine, having charge of the district traffic department of the Pacific Telegraph & Telephone Company, with headquarters at Lewiston, Idaho, was attending to business in Colfax this week.

Miss Florence Harvey returned to her home in Spokane Sunday morning, after spending several days in Colfax visiting with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Allen left for Spokane Sunday, having visited several days here. The Hicks-Pocock wedding was the magnet which brought them to Colfax.

Roland Bainton, son of Rev. J. Herbert Bainton, left Wednesday for Walla Walla to enter Whitman College, where he expects to take a regular collegiate course. Roland is a graduate of the Colfax High school.

Miss Katherine Ryan left Monday for Pullman to enter the Washington State College. Miss Ryan is a graduate of the Colfax High school, and has the commendable ambition to graduate from the higher institution of learning.

Mrs. J. N. Pocock is visiting in Diamond this week, the guest of her son and his family.

Julius Lippitt, ex-mayor of Colfax, pulled in last Friday and is mingling with the brethren during fair week.

Walter Doolittle returned Sunday from North Yakima, where he has been employed during the summer, and left Monday for Pullman to resume his studies at W. S. C.

E. J. Henning, S. D. Woodward and Bob Mortimer are sunset people who visited Colfax during the week.

Miss Emma Nickels of Portland is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. L. D. Woodward.

P. M. Sheahan, a pioneer resident of Thornton, spent Wednesday in the city. Judge Stephen J. Chadwick of the state supreme court at Olympia and P. F. Chadwick of Spokane arrived in the city Wednesday and are mingling with old-time friends and acquaintances.

Zell M. Beebe came down from Spokane yesterday to remain several days.

Mr. William Ericson of Spokane, accompanied by her son Will, came down Wednesday in their auto, and will remain until Sunday, the guest of Mrs. H. I. Willis.

Walter J. Davenport of Spokane pulled in Wednesday to take in the sights of the fair and see old friends.

Mrs. B. F. Nicholas, J. W. Higgins and Mr. and Mrs. Nick Codd are among the former Colfaxites who are down from Spokane to attend the county fair.

Miss Zoe Davenport of Spokane arrived in Colfax Tuesday, and will visit for two weeks with Miss Mae Miller and other friends.

Leg Broken in Two Places.

Dr. G. B. Keaton, a veterinary surgeon of La Crosse and a graduate of the Washington State College, while assisting in hauling wheat at La Crosse for the Pacific Coast Elevator Co., was buried under 50 sacks of wheat. His left leg was broken in two places and he suffered other injuries of a serious nature. Mr. Keaton was brought here Monday and placed in St. Ignatius hospital. Though seriously injured it is said he will recover.

Marriage Licenses.

Marriage licenses have been issued by the county auditor to the following: Judd L. Wilson and Ruby B. Earle, both of Colfax.

S. Martin and Nellie Sharp, both of St. John.

Harmer Robeson and Eva Blanche Fitzgerald, both of St. John.

Ed P. Byers and Clara Hughey, both of St. John.

William H. Wieber and Sophia B. Taulen, both of Uniontown.

SOCIAL SIDE OF COLFAX.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Erwin entertained at a neighborhood card party last Friday evening in celebration of the fiftieth birthday anniversary of the genial host. There were three tables at five hundred, prizes for most progressions being won by Mrs. Chase and Judge Inman. The guests were then invited to the dining room to partake of refreshments. All spent a delightful evening and wished Mr. Erwin many happy returns of the day.

Mrs. J. M. Baker entertained her Sunday school pupils, the members of the Sunbeam class, at her home on Saturday afternoon, about 17 young girls being present. They organized themselves into a Helping Hand club, their object being to work for the orphanage recently started in Walla Walla under the direction of the Christian church. Nine or ten children already have a home at this institution, and it expects to widen its field of usefulness. An old people's home will also be maintained in connection with the orphanage. After organizing their club last Saturday the young ladies were served with refreshments by their hostess, Mrs. Baker, and all enjoyed a pleasant social afternoon.

Colfax Circle entertained Monday night, and from all accounts it was a swell affair. Over 100 were in attendance. Fifteen came from Endicott and took part in the proceedings. Monday being the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Geneva Miller that lady was the recipient of many presents besides a round of congratulations. Another interesting feature was the vocal and instrumental music furnished during the evening by Mrs. Mabel Williams, which was greatly appreciated by those present. The committee having the entertainment in hand was composed of Mrs. Nellie Sturtevant, Mrs. Lizzie Crawford, Mrs. Brooks, Mrs. Emma Gerber and Albert Powell. Elaborate refreshments were served.

Mrs. George A. Chapman entertained twelve ladies at an elaborate party last Saturday in honor of Mrs. Charles E. Scriber, who is down from the Stevens county homestead for a visit. A half past-ten breakfast was served, after which the guests played six-handed euchre. Mrs. A. E. Stult won the prize for most points, Mrs. J. A. Perkins for lone hands and Mrs. E. M. Woodin received the consolation prize. At three o'clock delicious refreshments were served, and the remainder of the afternoon was devoted to conversation.

Fell Face Downward.

Clarence Hare, a lineman for the Washington Water Power Co., while trimming limbs of a tree from electric wires Monday, fell a distance of 30 feet, striking on a plank sidewalk face downward. His face was badly cut and he was otherwise bruised and shaken up. He was taken to St. Ignatius hospital. Hare's home is in Everett.

Bidden to Wedding.

Invitations were issued this week by Mr. and Mrs. Leon Kuhn to the marriage of their daughter Ethyl to Haylett O'Neill of New York. The wedding will take place at the home of the bride on Wednesday afternoon, October 12, at 2 o'clock, and will be followed by a reception from 2.30 to 4 p. m.

Store Closed on Holidays.

Tuesday, October 4, will be the Jewish holiday of New Year, and as usual Lippitt Brothers' store will remain closed all day. The store will also be closed on Thursday, October 13, which is the Jewish Day of Atonement.

"The Gipsy Queen."

Active preparations and rehearsals for the production of the operetta, "The Gipsy Queen," which will be given in the New Ridgeway on Friday, October 14, are going on. About 75 local people will take part in it.

Notice.

Royal Camp No. 116, Woodmen of the World, on October 13 will have initiation, side degree entertainment, also lunch. All members are requested to be present. Thomas Oliver, Clerk.

On account of holidays, Lippitt Bros' department store will remain closed on Tuesday, October 4, and Thursday, October 13. Patrons will please govern themselves accordingly.
