ENDICOTT EVENTS.

Miss Verdie Person is here from Jerome, Idaho, visiting her sister, Mrs. D. W. Henry.

Mrs. Henry Wandt has been on the sick list for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schulerud of Tekoa, visited with friends here over Saturday and Sunday.

M. A. Sherman made a business trip to Walla Walla Monday.

The juniors of the High school entertained the seniors and the High school faculty by a most enjoyable straw ride last Friday evening. After a pleasant evening spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hutchison the party proved the old adage that the farthest way 'round is the nearest way home, arriving in the wee sma' hours in the morning.

Mrs. Orth of St. John is spending several days in town.

S. Pontiler and family have moved to Montana, where they will live on a homestead.

ALL AROUND THE COUNTY

Mrs. Walker, aged 89, died at her home in Garfield on October 20. The body was laid to rest in the Garfield cemetery Sunday.

The new town of Plummer, near Tekoa, is the scene of much building activity, several fine business blocks being under course of construction.

Pullman's registration books closed with but 493 voters listed. Two years ago Pullman polled 608 votes, but last year only 400 voted.

One of the two lumber firms of Garfield has sold nine carloads of box lumber to be used for making boxes for the apple crop of that section.

Pullman High school defeated Tekoa High 25 to 6 at Pullman Saturday. In the evening a reception and dance was given the visiting team by the local High school.

The third annual street and live stock fair given by the Oakesdale Fair Association closed Saturday night, and was a success in every respect. There were 500 entries.

Manford Ewing died October 19 at Elberton at the age of 70 years. He served in the Eighth cavalry Indiana volunteers during the civil war, and was in the march with Sherman to the sea.

Many Tekoa people are going over the unentered land on the Coeur d'Alene reservation, to be thrown open November 1. A large number of claims with an abundance of timber remain untaken.

The hardware firm, formerly known as Henkle, Schulerud & Co. at Tekoa, was incorporated last week, the new company taking over the interest of Carl Schulerud, and is now the Henkle Hardware Co.

Miss Bessie Virginia Hill and Clarence Raymond Stemm, both of Farmington, were married at the home of the bride's parents on October 19, Rev. F. N. Morton officiating. The couple will make their home on a farm two miles north of Farmington.

Palouse's registration is the largest in the history of the town, the books showing 402 names. This is due largely to the wet and dry issue, which comes up the same day as the general election. The registration last year was 371, with a wet and dry fight on, the wets carrying the election by four votes.

M. C. Gray of Pullman has sold to the Bales-Jones Co. of Big Hole Basin, Montana, the largest consignment of pure bred draft stallions ever disposed of in the Inland Empire. It consisted of a carload of heavy draft stallions to be used for breeding purposes on the big horse ranch of the Montana firm.

O. D. McKeehen and Leroy Brooks, young business men of Tekoa, a few years ago leased 35 acres which they have been devoting to potatoes. Last week all but five or six acres of this season's yield were dug, and are being held for a rise in the market. They averaged 40 sacks to the acre, and samples weigh two pounds each.

The 600-foot tunnel one mile east of Rosalia caved in Saturday about 11 a. m. The cave-in occurred about the middle of the tunnel for about 125 feet, filling to the top. It took a large force of men all the week, working at both ends night and day, to clear the track, traffic, of course, being suspended.

B. Frank Smith, who operates the Trux orchard on the Snake river just above Wawawai, is planning to install an extensive irrigation system and has contracted with the Lewiston Glazed Pipe Co. for 3 1/2 miles of cement pipe, 1350 feet of which will be shipped at once.

J. B. Holt, who has 20 acres of orchard adjoining Pullman on the west, has 10,000 boxes of apples being hauled to the packing house. Walter V. Windus of Spokane, who has a small orchard adjoining the State College farm, will have about 4000 boxes for sale and is picking and packing. Many farmers with small orchards are hauling in four-horse loads of apples.

CROSSES THE GREAT DIVIDE

Mrs. Mary A. McCracken, Ripe in Years, Buried Sunday.

Mrs. Mary A. McCracken, relict of the late Charles McCracken, departed this life last Friday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. N. N. Carroll, near Colfax, aged 60 years and 3 months. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Presbyterian church, Rev. J. Herbert Bainton officiating. Many friends of the family were in attendance.

Mr. McCracken died about three years ago. Six sons and two daughters survive. They are Charles McCracken of Emida, Idaho, Ed McCracken of Albion, Ralph McCracken of Culeasac, Idaho, Loy and Asa McCracken of Clarkston, Louie McCracken of Lewiston, Idaho, Mrs. Grace McCall of Spokane and Mrs. N. N. Carroll of Colfax.

Mr. and Mrs. McCracken came to the Palouse country 33 years ago, taking up a homestead claim between Palouse and Moscow. They were married at Vancouver, this state, coming from there here. Here they have lived over a quarter of a century, rearing a large family of children, following the biblical instruction Mr. McCracken, pere, served in the Modoc war in the Klamath country, Southern Oregon, which took place in the early seventies. He came to the Pacific coast from Missouri.

The McCrackens have always been among the most respected of our citizens.

ACKNOWLEDGE IT.

Colfax Has to Bow to the Inevitable—Scores of Citizens Prove It.

After reading the public statement of this representative citizen of Colfax given below, you must come to this conclusion: A remedy which cured years ago, which has kept the kidneys in good health since, can be relied upon to perform the same work in other cases. Read this:

Charles Von Soehren, 201 A street, Colfax, Wash., says: "For at least thirty years I was afflicted with kidney complaint and sometimes was laid up for days. There were acute pains in the small of my back and I had sharp, shooting twinges through my loins and limbs. As time passed, my condition grew worse and during the past fifteen years I had to get up at nights to pass the kidney secretions. Doan's Kidney Pills gave me relief and I desire to make the fact known for the benefit of other kidney sufferers. I am extremely grateful for what this remedy has done for me." (Statement given November 19, 1907.)

CONFIRMED PROOF.

Mr. Von Soehren was interviewed on April 20, 1910, and he said: "I am always glad to endorse Doan's Kidney Pills and I take pleasure in confirming my former testimonial. During the past several years I have had no need of a kidney medicine."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Evenly Heated Homes

The air-tight feature embodied in Cole's Original Air-Tight Wood Heater makes it possible to control the burning of wood, fire or charcoal. Charcoal makes a clean, hot fire and leaves very little ash. This means a saving of at least 50 per cent in the saving of fuel as compared to stoves with cast bottoms or side door frames which have leaky cast iron and steel joints. It is a perfect radiator of heat, giving out all the heat produced by the fire. The heat from burning a single newspaper can be felt across the room. It holds the fire over night with light wood, coal or trash. The fire is never out and by simply putting in a little fresh fuel in the morning, you can heat up the room from zero to 70 degrees in five minutes' time. We have them in all sizes and styles. Price $1.50 and up. (R-34)

MRS. MARTHA E. McNEILLY.

Pioneer Lady Dies at Home Near Colfax—Highly Respected.

Mrs. Martha E. McNeilly, wife of William McNeilly, died at her home two miles from Colfax on the Penawawa road on Sunday, October 23, aged 53 years. Funeral services were held at the home Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock Rev. George H. Newman officiating. Interment took place in Colfax cemetery. The funeral was largely attended by relatives, friends and neighbors.

Besides her husband, Mrs. McNeilly left five children—Mrs. Mattie Wilson of Canby, Oregon, Mrs. Grace Wiley, Sam, Hugh and Arthur McNeilly. It is thought that Mrs. McNeilly was the first woman to be married in what are the present boundaries of Whitman county, which was set apart from Stevens county in 1871, going into effect the following year. This may or may not be strictly correct, but she and Mr. McNeilly were married in the early seventies, have lived here ever since and have had born to them several children. Deceased was a lady highly esteemed, counting her friends by the score.
