Moving Pictures at Land Show.

Reports from the land show at Chicago are to the effect that the exhibits of the Pacific Northwest are the most interesting of all on display. Particularly notable is the moving picture show being conducted under the auspices of the Oregon-Washington Railroad & Navigation Company. The industrial and agricultural activities exhibited, as well as the scenic features of Alaska, have attracted vast crowds. The opening week, close to 50,000 persons saw these pictures and the crowds have been growing ever since. Lecturers are on hand to tell the people all about what they look at. This sort of exploitation is bound to be of vast benefit to the whole Northwest.

Will Hold Experience Meeting.

Governors of Washington, Oregon and Idaho will meet in Portland at a Commercial Club dinner on the night of December 23 upon their return from the excursion through the East on board the Governors' Special, and will tell of lessons learned on the trip. The closer relations between the East and West as the result of the excursion and how co-operation of the Northwest states may be taken advantage of to the fullest extent to exploit this section still further in the East will be discussed.

Hospital Notes.

Mrs. A. Canutt underwent a serious operation for the removal of gall stones and the appendix at St. Ignace hospital the latter part of last week. She is gaining slowly.

Rachel Beasley, daughter of Davis Beasley of Mockonema, is recovering rapidly from an operation for appendicitis performed the latter part of last week.

Use Various Lubricants.

Where the pressure is heavy the lubricant should be thick in order to resist being squeezed out under the load. For light pressures oil should be used. Thus for a wagon heavy grease is best, while for a cream separator of high speed a thin oil is necessary in order that its viscosity will not add to the friction. Solid substances in a finely divided state, such as graphite, are often used effectively to reduce friction.

Try Schlitz beer at Monahan's.

Every family has need of a good, reliable liniment. For sprains, bruises, soreness of the muscles and rheumatic pains there is none better than Chamberlain's. Sold by all dealers.
