—J. W. Stearns has returned from Mexico, where he spent the winter with his family. The change of climate proved most beneficial for his health, and he will probably return there this fall. His wife and son are now in Portland where he will soon join them. Mr. Stearns is most favorably impressed with Mexico's possibilities in a business way.

NEW HOUSE FOR SALE—Military Hill. A. E. Maynard.

—Prof. R. W. Thatcher was elected grand outer guard at the Knights of Pythias grand lodge at Bellingham Wednesday. This comes as quite an honor to Mr. Thatcher and the local lodge, as the officers are promoted after being elected as outer guard, and Mr. Thatcher will therefore fill the office of grand chancellor in due time.

—A man named W. H. Elliott, who has been stopping at a local hotel for a week or so hired a bicycle from A. B. Drinkwater's bicycle livery Thursday, but has since forgotten to return the vehicle. The sheriff's office is now busy. It is said that Elliott also forgot to settle a hotel bill before departing.

—The Misses Faye Allen, Mary Cardwell and Jennie Mowrey returned to Pomeroy Monday morning, after having taken in the Interscholastic meet in this city, Miss Cardwell being Pomeroy's representative in the declamation contest.

—Will Hardwick was in the city Friday of last week en route to his home at Nez Perce, Idaho. He was accompanied by Mrs. Hardwick, the wedding having occurred in Missouri a few days previously. The bride was formerly Miss Alberta Triplett.

—A special train, bearing officials of the Northern Pacific railway, was in the city Thursday, the railroad men being on a tour of inspection of their property, and also getting acquainted with the business men and patrons of the road.

—Hon. C. E. Vilas, manager of the Washington National Building, Loan and Investment Association, was here from Seattle Wednesday. Mr. Vilas represented King county in the lower house of the last legislature.

—Dr. Anita McGee missed the train at Spokane and so failed to keep her engagement to lecture at the college Thursday evening. She will be here Monday, however, and the lecture will be given on that evening.

—F. O. Kreager was elected president of the students' assembly at the college yesterday, after a spirited campaign, and equally spirited election, there being numerous candidates for the honor in the field.

—Miles Pearson was here from Bend, Oregon, the early part of the week. Mr. Pearson is engaged in the real estate business at Bend.

—The annual band concert by the W. S. C. band, will be given at the opera house next Friday evening.

Alfred Peats wall papers are up-to-date in every particular. See them at Morton's.

—Geo. Ford, who has been on the coast all winter, has returned to Pullman.

Uniontown by the census of 1900 had 404 people, by the present census 397, a loss of 7.

—Saturday R. W. Day, Richard Little and C. O. Wallace were brought before Police Judge Swain on a charge of having violated the ordinance relative to fast driving within the city limits. The three men, who live in the country, had visited Pullman and had left the city too rapidly to suit the peace and dignity of the corporation, and on their first return found warrants awaiting them. The wrath of the municipality was appeased by the payment of $5 each, with costs attached. Monday a second page in the police court docket was given to P. W. Kimball and wife and Frank Maguire, the charge likewise being a moving through the main thoroughfare at a gait faster than the allowable 12 miles per hour. A plea of guilty brought forth a fine of $1 each, with costs.

—S. A. Small expects to go to Winnona soon after June 1st to embark in the mercantile business. His family will not go for some time yet, however.

—No session of the city council was held Thursday night because of lack of a quorum. An adjourned meeting will be held next Monday evening.

—The quail are quite plentiful this spring, and their cheery calls are heard all up and down the creek bottoms.

—Dr. Nelson made a visit to Rosalia Wednesday.

W. S. C. ORATOR GETS FIRST PLACE

Brislawn, the W. S. C. Representative, Wins Medal and Intercollegiate Honors.

The intercollegiate oratorical contest was held at the college last night, and the W. S. C. orator, Brislawn, won a brilliant victory over the men from Walla Walla and Moscow.

The Pullman man was given first place by all six judges, the three judges on thought and composition as well as the three on delivery, giving unanimous verdicts.

—The band concert next Friday evening at the opera house is an event worthy of more than passing notice. The college band is one of the most popular organizations and one of which we may be justly proud. It is so constantly before us, giving its services on so many occasions that we are prone to forget what a large investment of money and energy it represents.

—While in California Judge Swain met Dr. Wilson in San Francisco. The doctor has commenced practicing in that city and announces that he will remain there.

—The Fortnightly Club will be entertained by Mrs. E. S. Borgan this afternoon.
