STATE FAIR OPENS UNDER MOST FAVORABLE AUSPICES

LIVESTOCK EXHIBIT LARGE; BEST EVER SHOWN HERE

John J. McNamara and Piano Box to Be Used as Evidence Against Him at Trial

COL. PROSSER DIES SUDDENLY

WOOL TARIFF IS TOO HIGH

COMMISSION AND SALOONS

Three License Renewals Granted and One Not Allowed by City Fathers

SENIMENT SEEMS AGAINST SOME BARS

Past Record Taken Into Consideration in Posing for Ilene Hochman, Office of City Attorney Passed

Mayor A. T. Jackson was present at Sunday's session of the city commission and renewed all but one of the liquor licenses. The other one, belonging to Henry Black, was not renewed. Mayor Jackson signed the licenses for the other six establishments, which will now expire on December 31. The licenses were granted to the following: New York, P. W. Thomas; South Side, D. S. Thomas; South Side, P. B. Thomas; South Side, C. M. Thomas; South Side, E. D. Thomas; and South Side, W. J. Thomas. The licenses will now expire on December 31. The licenses were granted to the following: New York, P. W. Thomas; South Side, D. S. Thomas; South Side, P. B. Thomas; South Side, C. M. Thomas; South Side, E. D. Thomas; and South Side, W. J. Thomas.

ALBERT TROTTER SENTENCED TO PEN

Convicted of Stealing Cash, He is Given Minimum Sentence by Court

Albert Trotter, being tried in the courts yesterday, was sentenced by Judge William H. Johnson to serve six months in the state penitentiary for stealing $20 from a man in the street. Trotter, 25, was arrested by Officer J. H. Johnson on a charge of stealing $20 from a man in the street. Trotter was arrested by Officer J. H. Johnson on a charge of stealing $20 from a man in the street.

CLERK'S BAND OF 32 PIECES IS ATTRACTIVE

On the Middle Aven Outish Farm, Million Dollar College, Indian Village and Other Things of Interest

Racing, card-playing, art exhibitions, and an Indian chief's speech were among the attractions of the Middle Aven Outish Farm, Million Dollar College, Indian Village and Other Things of Interest. The farm, located near the town of Yakima, was the site of a large art exhibition, which featured paintings, sculptures, and photographs by local and national artists. The chief's speech was delivered by the chief of the Nez Perce tribe, who spoke about the history and culture of the tribe.

POSTPONED TO SATURDAY

The Washington State Fair, which was scheduled to open today, has been postponed to Saturday due to unfavorable weather conditions. The fair, which is one of the largest in the state, features numerous exhibits, including livestock, agricultural products, and fine arts. The fair will also include a wide variety of entertainment options, including music, food, and amusement rides.

TOURNAMENT OF NAVIGATION

Trials for the Tournament of Navigation, which is scheduled to take place in November, began today. The tournament, which is open to all vessels, aims to promote the development of seafaring skills and knowledge.

SHARES OF BEND'S RELATIVE

James C. Bend, a relative of the late James C. Bend, was given shares in the Bend & Erie Company, which operates the Bend & Erie Railroad. The shares were given to James C. Bend as a gesture of appreciation for his contributions to the company. The Bend & Erie Railroad is a major transportation company in the region and plays a significant role in the local economy.