Are Saying

"WE HAVE WARMER SPIRITS and a higher vitality than our homekeeping great-grandmothers had. We are seldom hysterical and we never faint. Wear and tear plus luxury is said to break down the human system more rapidly than wear and tear plus want; but perhaps wear and tear plus pensive self-consideration is the most destructive consideration of all." AGNES REPLIER, Woman Essayist.

"POLITENESS COSTS NOTHING. Impoliteness may cost much. Good example, manifested to the child, will by precept and example make him polite. Children are natural mimics. They will naturally mimic the superior things if given the opportunity." THE MARQUISE DE CHAMBERAY.

"IT IS ALL NONSENSE to say that woman has left the home. The home has left woman. Minimum wage boards should be established to fix the least wage for which women should work. There are no margins now for emergencies or illness." MISS MARY VAN KLECK, Sage Foundation Investigator.

SHE WANTED
FORTUNE FROM GOTHAM BANK

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—Wearing a big red picture hat, with flaring red plumes, a tan skirt and white shirt waist and carrying a red parasol, a woman caused a commotion in the vicinity of Wall and Broad streets by her strange actions. Later she went to the Corn Exchange bank, at Beaver and William streets, and demanded $250,000 from the paying teller, saying it was due from her brokers and was to be paid to her there.

A great crowd had followed the woman to the bank and after a telephone message had been sent to the Wall Street Detective bureau she disappeared. When Detectives Elnk and Holland arrived they found her on the seventh floor of the building. They induced her to enter a cab, telling her her brokers wanted to see her, and took her to police headquarters. There she was found to be Mrs. Theodore Holland. She was taken to Bellevue hospital, where she is held for observation in the psychopathic ward. It was said there that she was a patient some time ago in the Manhattan state hospital for the insane on Ward's island, but was discharged.

BABy HAD NARROW ESCAPE.
Mrs. E. Patrick of 424 Gordon avenue tells the police that her baby came within an ace of being killed by an auto at Division and Indiana Sunday evening. Mrs. Patrick states she was about to board a car and had just lifted the baby from the go-cart, when a swiftly moving auto struck the go-cart, knocking it across the street and completely wrecking it. She states that the car bore the number 6740, but the police have no record of such a number on a Washington car.

THIS GIRL LIKES TO GO UP IN THE AIR

Here is the youngest steeplejack on earth. If you will observe closely you will notice that "it's" a girl, but that is hardly justification for calling her a "steeplejackess." Maybe we might say "steeple Johanna." Her name is Margaret Powell, and she is four years old. Her father, Elias Powell, travels about the country repairing high chimneys, and doing stunts of that kind. When he struck Middletown, N. Y., to repair the chimney of the silk mill, Margaret wanted to go up with him. So he took her in his lap and pulled himself and daughter up 150 feet above admiring friends and scared relatives. Margaret wasn't frightened a bit, but waved "by-by" to the folks below and laughed and cooed. "She laughed more joyously the higher they climbed," says our correspondent. Some display of bravery for so small a tot.

AN UGLY EXCLAMATION POINT

As an exclamation point to emphasize his remarks, L. Lang drew a revolver on Stevens street yesterday evening, and a little while afterward was arrested and booked as a vagrant. The argument was among four intoxicated men and the gun drawn was not loaded.

A SUFFRAGETTE PARADISE.
NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—Nunivak Island, in Behring Sea off the Alaskan coast, is a suffragette paradise, according to L. L. Bales, who took the census of the Isle. There are 170 persons, and although the men outnumber the women, the latter rule the household. In the last ten years there have been only 20 weddings and only seven children born. Bales predicts that in another ten years the last trace of the older generations of this tribe will be wiped out from race suicide.

TOWN'S WOMEN DECLARE IT IS HARBORING
THE MOST SLOVENLY MEN IN THE WORLD

ALTON, Ill., Oct. 19.—Upper Alton has been accused by its women of harboring the most slovenly men in the world—not in personal appearances, but in civic matters. The Village Improvement association, a feminine organization, was inspired to deliver this verbal swat when it was notified that the village fathers had ordered out the sprinkling carts when a rainstorm was brewing. Then this body of

CUCUMBER SOUP.
Pare and slice one pint of fresh cucumbers, put in kettle with just water to cover them. Cook till tender. Pepper, salt and piece of butter. Add milk for as much as you want. Eat with crackers like oyster stew.

SHOT IN QUARREL

UMATILLA, Ore., Oct. 19.—F. Lovelace, an O. R. & N. employe, is at the hospital in Pendleton today with a bullet wound in his abdomen. Lovelace had trouble with the O. R. & N. car checker. He entered Sam Kee's restaurant on Railroad avenue, and fired three shots from his 32 calibre revolver at Kee, all of which missed him. Kee, it is alleged in self defense fired twice with his .44.

"REMARKS" TEMPT HUMOR.

That little column headed "Remarks" on the chamber of commerce register book is a temptation to many who have a sense of humor, or think they have. "I want a farm if I can get a girl with it, see," rambles one, and Miss Abbie Tinsley of this city saves her pennies by advertising for a husband in the registration book thus: "I want a husband." More than three hundred visitors have registered this month.
