8. Song—When You Wore a Pin-afore.

At The Grand.

Will Crooks the blackface comedian in a bunch of funny songs and jokes that will keep the many patrons of the Grand in a jolly good humor from the start of the performance till the finish.

Another clever performer on the bill is Eddy Reeves, the dancing wonder. When it comes to dancing he is without doubt one of the fastest that has been in these parts. Original in his steps as well as in demonstrating the dances and steps that won for him in the Madison Square Garden this fall the title of champion dancer of America, he very forcibly demonstrates also the difference between American and English hard sole dancing, also makes one of the quickest changes in his wardrobe on record, in all making the performance at the Grand a first class program.

An exceptional good program of pictures are also to be seen. "Fantine" is well known book written by Victor Hugo in his Les Miserables. "Air Ship Contest," at Rheims also attracts great attention. "Caught in his own trap," is another picture with a good motto to heed. Two more comedies are presented in "Looking for his umbrella," and "Mixed in his dinner dates." An entire change of program tomorrow.

CHINESE GOVERNMENT WILL BE GOVERNED

Mukden.—The despotic government of China will terminate tomorrow. All the legislatures of the self-governing provinces throughout the Empire will hold their first meeting preparatory to drafting of a constitution for the Empire.

Each province will be represented in the Imperial Constitution Assembly by 50 members, publicly elected.

The Assembly will be held in a palatial auditorium erected in Pekin on the site of the ancient Hall of Examinations. Numerous rooms have been built as an annex to the auditorium for the purpose of lodging the members during the sessions.

MISSION WEEK AT ST. MARY'S CATHOLIC CHURCH, PENDLETON

(Special Correspondence.)

The people of Pendleton are looking forward with expectation to the Mission to be given the coming week, as lately announced, at the Catholic church, Market street, by the Rev. Vincent Cheappe, S. J. The pastors in charge of St. Mary's have every reason to expect a great success. Our people are now about through with the year's harvest; the weather promises to be favorable, and the reverend father who is to preach the Mission is a famed orator favorably known throughout the whole northwest and middle west, where he has conducted most successful missions. The pastors look forward therefore to a faithful attendance on the part of their flock. All others are also cordially invited.

FRIENDLY SCUFFLE RESULTS IN TRAGEDY

While H. C. Coleman and G. Cobb, brakemen, were scuffling on top of a North Bank freight train last night, they fell off and both were cut in two by the wheels of the train. The accident occurred between Beatty and Vancouver Junction, about 10:30.

The men were engaged in a friendly tussle on the moving train and lost their balance. The remains were brought to the city on the regular Astoria train arriving about 10:30.—Oregonian.
