MOTION PICTURE NEWS

What the Picture Theaters Have to Tell You.

SPEEDY COMEDY COMES TO PASTIME

How Jane and Katherine Lee put an army of suitors to flight and married their aunt to the man of their choice is the story told in "We Should Worry!" the William Fox picture which will begin a two day run at the Pastime theater today.

Not only do the children exhibit the brand of wholesome comedy that has made them famous all over the world, but there is a splendid romance woven throughout the dramatic story of the picture.

Jane and Katherine are the wards of a beautiful young girl who is much sought after for her beauty and her fortune. The little imps have chosen the suitor whom they consider most worthy of her and make determined attempts to put the others out of the running by making life miserable for them every time they appear. The minister, banker, hotel-keeper and other Jasons in quest of the golden fleece of the girl's fortune are vanquished when a new man appears in the field and threatens to set all their work at naught.

One of the best casts ever seen in photoplays supports the juvenile luminaries in "We Should Worry!" It is a play for everybody; the kind of a photoplay to which you can bring the whole family.

An Amusing Comedy.

The spectacle of Ben Turpin, who is an entire orchestra, a call boy and bowler in "Cauchy Madeline," the newest Paramount-Mack Sennett comedy to be shown at the Alta Theatre today is highly diverting. There are few funnier comedians in motion pictures than Turpin, and in this comedy his foil is Polly Moran, who will be seen in blue tights, and short skirts, by way of contrast to the chaps and other impedimenta ordinarily worn by her in the Sheriff Nell comedies. The situations are laughable in the extreme and there is not a dull moment throughout the action of the comedy.

ALTA TODAY

The Alta Theatre announces for today the re-appearance of charming Dorothy Dalton, this time in "Love Me," a photoplay from the pen of C. Gardner Sullivan, directed by R. William Nell under the supervision of Thomas H. Ince. In this picture Miss Dalton takes the part of a breezy Western girl, married to a wealthy society man whose family refuse to accept her as one of them, making her life among them very hard to bear. How she finally wins their hearts completely at a tremendous cost to herself, is thrillingly told in the picture. An excellent cast, including Wm. Conklin, Jack Holt, and Robert McKim, has been supplied, which with the personal supervision of Thomas H. Ince, makes its success assured beforehand.

BASEBALL'S GREATEST STAR TO RETIRE

Ty Cobb is to retire from baseball at the end of the present season. The greatest of the great proposes to get into some war activity by which he may do what he considers his duty to his country. Whether this will mean actual enlistment or something else, Cobb does not say. In a dozen years he has set more new records for future stars to shoot at than any half dozen other players in the history of baseball. Baseball will not be baseball without Cobb.

and may be taken into custody here on advice of Chairman Henry S. Wise, of local draft board No. 125 of New York City, it was learned tonight. Fulton is scheduled to meet Jack Dempsey in an eight round bout here Saturday night.

WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

Need Help to Pass the Crisis Safely—Proof that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Can be Relied Upon.

Urbana, Ill.—"During Change of Life, in addition to its annoying symptoms, I had an attack of grippe which lasted all winter and left me in a weakened condition. I felt at times that I would never be well again. I read of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and what it did for women passing through the Change of Life, so I told my doctor I would try it. I soon began to gain in strength and the annoying symptoms disappeared and your Vegetable Compound has made me a well, strong woman so I do all my own housework. I cannot recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound too highly to women passing through the Change of Life." Mrs. FRANK HENSON, 1316 S. Orchards St., Urbana, Ill.

Women who suffer from nervousness, "heat flashes," backache, headaches and "the blues" should try this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
