Needless Constipation.

Constipation shortens life. It kills by inches, but none the less surely. The condition is seldom necessary; it is due to a morbid condition of the liver that can be overcome with the proper remedy.

Sells' Liver Pills

if persistently used, are a radical cure for constipation. They do even more, for with the disappearance of the chief trouble many minor ones will vanish. Complexion will be keener, and a new supply of energy will appear.

MAIDS AND SPONSOR.

Mrs. G. A. Hillhouse Named As Chaperon for Young Ladies Sent to State Encampment. Government Contributes Rifles and Ammunition for Encampment.

Brig. Gen. M. M. Stuckey, Jr., commanding the First division, Arkansas State Guard, has named the following ladies to represent his division at the annual encampment at Hot Springs, September 7-13: Sponsor, Miss Ethel Beloe of Jonesboro; maids of honor, Miss Rosina Locke of Eureka Springs and Miss Lucy P. Rhodes of Osceola; chaperon, Mrs. George A. Hillhouse of Newport. These ladies will surely add to the pleasures of the encampment, and will be quite an addition to the enjoyments at every social function. The First division may well be proud of their ladies of honor.

Gen. W. H. Haynes, commanding the Arkansas State Guard, has been notified that the war department has ordered magazine rifles and ammunition to be shipped by express from the Rock Island arsenal to Hot Springs for use in the two sham battles during the state encampment. There will be 80,000 rounds in the shipment.

COMPANY ORGANIZES.

The Farmers' Telephone Company with a capital stock of $100,000, of which $20,000 has been paid up, was organized Friday at a meeting of the stockholders held in this city. The old Newport-Elgin line has been absorbed by the new company, which will be incorporated at once.

A line from Elgin to Centerville, Battle Axe and Deckerville will be constructed in the near future, but the company may build and operate lines anywhere in the state, and the high capitalization would indicate that such are the plans of the promoters.

The officers of the company are: G. W. Decker, president; W. A. Joyce, vice president; L. Minor, secretary and treasurer, who, together with T. B. Stewart and C. West, constitute the directorate.

THE ONLY BABY MONKEY.

Gentry Bros. famous shows are coming to Newport on Thursday, September 3, for two performances, starting at 2:30 and 8 o'clock p. m., have a novelty this season in the way of a baby monkey, the only one of its kind ever born in captivity. Although not yet out of its mother's arms, little Bud when he gets to cutting up is a whole menagerie of monkey artists by himself. At times this future king of mimicry assumes a dignified air and looks for all the world like the manager of a court train at a coronation. Then again Bud takes it into his head to play the part of a monkey dude, doctor, judge, burlesque, acrobat or boss, just as the fancy seems to strike him. As an all around entertainer Bud can put some comedians to the blush and the Gentrys are proud of this recent acquisition of theirs. Chastain's addition.

FIRST ARKANSAS BALE.

The first bale of cotton of the new crop was received in Little Rock by express Friday by the Lesser-Goldman Cotton Company. It was shipped by Muse & Harris of Junction City. Mr. Hamberg, who represents the Lesser-Goldman Company, and is also president of the board of trade, is in St. Louis and has been notified of the receipt of the cotton.

The bale weighs 465 pounds, classes strict middling and its staple is one inch and one-sixteenth. It will be sold at auction at the board of trade next Tuesday morning at 10:30.

Last year the first bale made its appearance on August 14.

SOME LATE STRAWBERRIES.

Eureka Springs Flashlight: C. R. Burnett, who lives northeast of Eureka Springs, near the tunnel, presented the Flashlight with a box of fine strawberries on Tuesday. Mr. Burnett is satisfied that this county beats the world for fruit. His first crop of berries came at the proper season and this second harvest is a surprise. Some vines have as many as four ripe berries besides blooms and half grown berries. The fruit is fine flavored and sweet.

DAVY CROCKETT'S CAMPAIGN.

Language of This Rugged Frontiersman Suggestive to the Arkansan Just at Present.

As an example of Crockett's early electioneering methods one might mention his first canvass for the legislature. Regarding this he says:

"I didn't know what the government was. I didn't know but General Jackson was the government."

Meeting Col. Polk, later to be President Polk, the latter remarked, "I think it possible we may have some changes in the judiciary."

"Very likely," replied Davy, "very likely," and discreetly withdrew. "Well," he comments, "if ever I knew what he meant by 'judiciary' I wish I may be shot. I never heard there was such a thing in all nature."

Again Crockett in what is called his "autobiography," a work which he no doubt in part dictated or at least authorized, gives the following account of one of his speeches to a stranger at Raleigh, while Crockett was enroute to Washington to take his first seat in congress. Said he: "Hurrah for Adams" and said I "Hurrah for hell and praise your own country." And he said, "Who are you?" Said I, "I'm that same Davy Crockett, fresh from the backwoods, half man, half alligator, a little touched with snapping turtle, can wade the Mississippi, leap the Ohio, ride a streak of lightning, slide down a honey locust and not get scratched. I can whip my weight in wild cats, hug a bear too close for comfort and eat any man opposed to Jackson."—Emerson Hough in Outing.

SEEK TO PREVENT

CHANGE IN LEVEE.

Osceola, Ark., August 28.—In the county court of Mississippi county Judge L. D. Rozell granted the petition for an injunction against the St. Francis levee board, applied for by a number of planters and citizens of Pecan Point, who are opposed to the construction of the proposed loop of new levee around and in back of Golden Lake and the abandonment of the old line.

At the hearing before Judge Rozell the St. Francis levee board was represented by Judge J. C. Hawthorne of Jonesboro, and the petitioners for the injunction were represented by Judge N. W. Norton and William Driver.

There was a battle royal in court between the lawyers and the levee board served notice that an appeal would be taken, which will be heard in December.

SUNDAY SERVICES.

BODY SEVERED BY SAW.

Charles Foster Meets Horrible Death Just Before Closing Hour Friday at Saw Mill Below Newport on White River.

Charles Foster, a middle aged man, employed at a saw mill five miles below Newport on the west bank of White river, met a horrible death Friday afternoon just a few minutes before 6 o'clock, when the mill would have closed down.

In saw mill parlance, he was setting the head blocks, when he became overbalanced and fell forward toward the circular saw. Before the carriage could be stopped the man's body had come in contact with the saw, cutting off both arms, splitting the head and throwing part of it from beneath the shed. The body was terribly mutilated, but death was almost instantaneous.

The deceased leaves a wife and four children, his remains having been buried at Surrounded Hill graveyard Saturday.

PROHIS WON BY ## HUNDRED VOTES.

Texarkana, Aug. 28.—Full returns from yesterday's election in Bowie county, Texas, show a victory for the prohibitionists by a majority of one hundred and five votes. The whiskey men charge that there were irregularities at some of the voting places, and there is, on this account, some talk of contesting the election, but it is not generally believed that such action will be taken.

A movement was started on the Arkansas side of town this afternoon in the way of a petition asking the city council to raise the city saloon license from its present figure of $700 to $2,000, the object being to prevent the ousted saloons on the Texas side from settling over on that side of town, and it is likely the council will take some such action. Another movement, however, is almost certain to be inaugurated, its purpose being to invoke what is known as the "three-mile law" and drive the liquor men from the Arkansas side of town also.

The saloon men are very much put out, and the immediate outlook before them is anything but promising.

When you have pearls, slugs and barques, send them to P. O. Heide, Prairie du Chien, Wisconsin for top market prices. 5 f. t. f.
