COZY HOME FOR TRAMPS.

Wealthiest Hobo in America Plans a Comfortable Refuge for the Aged.

Hans Ablehanson, the wealthiest tramp in America, who several years ago lived at the Waldorf-Astoria in New York, at the expense of a western railroad magnate, as a result of a wager that Hans could not walk from Tacoma to Panama in eight months, is to build a home for aged tramps. Hans recently received $25,000 by the will of a relative who died in Sweden, and the money is now said to be drawing interest in a New York bank.

Hans recently disclosed his intention to his friend, Peter Johnson, of Worcester, Mass. The other day Johnson was in New York, and, while talking about Hans' project, said:

"It sounds like the dream of a crazy man, but Hans declares that he will build the tramps' home with his money. He says that he will build his home somewhere in New England. I asked him why he didn't take his money and settle down and he said it is much more fun to be a tramp."

"He said that the only thing he wanted to get out of his money is a home to live in when he gets too old to catch freights, so long as he had to build himself a home, he declared that he might as well build one large enough for 25 or 30 of his friends. He told me that he knew 5,000 tramps on the road in the United States. Some of these friends of his, he explained, are getting old and stiff and cannot tramp much longer."

"He plans to put all of his money in this home for his friends. After it is built, he argues that by a little work, such as broom making or mending chairs or something of that kind, the 25 tramps who reside within can pay running expenses. When I asked him how soon he is going to build this home he said that he is looking for a suitable place, and that as soon as he finds one he will take his money out of the bank and build."

MAKE ALBUM FOR THE POPE

Magnificent Volume to Be Sent by Children of New Orleans Parish to Pius X.

The exquisite album which is to be presented to his holiness, the pope, by the Children of Mary, of the Jesuit church, of New Orleans, has been finally completed and will be borne to his holiness along with the magnificent pontifical sandals, by Mr. Kelly, on the occasion of the golden jubilee of the immaculate conception.

The album is a work of art and a thing of beauty. It is bound in snow white antique silk, and the corners and clasps are of pure gold. Near the left-hand lower corner of the cover is the pope's crest, while across the upper part of the cover is the word "Autographs" in gold letters. The album contains 50 pages. On the right-hand side of each is some original poem, composed by members of the sodality, and written in either English, Latin or Italian. These pages are exquisitely illuminated, after the manner of the middle ages, and the decorations on no two are alike. On the opposite side of the pages there is nothing except some modest decoration. All the work was done by hand by members of the sodality, except the chasing, which was done by Walter, the college jeweler.

On the presentation page of the album are the words: "To Our Most Holy Father Pius X., Children of Mary, Jesuits' Church, New Orleans, La., 1904." On the title page of the album are the words: "Golden Jubilee of the Immaculate Conception, 1854-1904."

The album represented three months' work.

NEW HOTEL IS A PALACE.

Hostelry in New York City Built and Furnished Without Regard to Cost.

The Hotel St. Regis, another new world palace planned to shelter vagrant multimillionaires, has opened its doors in New York city. John Jacob Astor is the owner of the new hotel and R. M. Haas is proprietor. The 18 stories are furnished with a splendor unprecedented. The corridors are of marble and the walls are hung with silks that vary in price from $7 to $15 a yard, and the metal fittings in the bathrooms are of solid silver.

The table linen came from Belfast, the heavy embroidered bed linen from Dresden, the china from the Royal Worcester and Minton factories, and the carpets were woven in France from special designs to suit every apartment.

There is a library of 2,150 volumes for the patrons. There are devices for regulating the heat by which any temperature desired may be attained. Cool air also may be introduced. Clocks are on every mantel, run from a magnetic clock in the office, and pantries are on every floor in which breakfasts are prepared.

The state suite excels in magnificence any of the other apartments. It consists of a dining-room in Circassian walnut, wainscoted to the ceiling, decorated with silver, bronze ornaments, formerly the property of the king of Sicily. Prices range from seven dollars a day for room and bath to $125 a day for the state suite.

The hotel, exclusive of furniture, cost $4,000,000. The furniture cost another $1,500,000.

Wouldn't That Petrify You!

At Knareborough castle, in Yorkshire, England, is a dropping well, in which, if pieces of wood, sprigs of trees or flowers are dropped, they are petrified, or turned to stone. It would doubtless serve a human being in the same way, only nobody appears willing to try the experiment.

Why pay excess premiums expecting dividends which never materialize; when by taking a policy in the Metropolitan the insured can keep the dividends in his pocket and get the same guarantees offered by other companies.

Sick Headache

When your head aches, there is a storm in the nervous system, centering in the brain. This irritation produces pain in the head, and the turbulent nerve current sent to the stomach causes nausea, vomiting.

This is sick headache, and is dangerous, as frequent and prolonged attacks weaken the brain, resulting in loss of memory, inflammation, epilepsy, fits, dizziness, etc.

Allay this stormy, irritated, aching condition by taking Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills.

They stop the pain by soothing, strengthening and relieving the tension upon the nerves—not by paralyzing them, as do most headache remedies.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills do not contain opium, morphine, chloral, cocaine or similar drugs.

"Sick headache is hereditary in my family. My father suffered a great deal, and for many years I have had spells that were so severe that I was unable to attend to my business affairs for a day or so at a time. During a very severe attack of headache, I took Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills and I was relieved almost immediately. Since then I take them when I feel the spell coming on and it stops it at once."

JOHN J. McERLAIN,
Pres. S. B. Eng. Co., South Bend, Ind.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills are sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first package will benefit. If it fails he will return your money. 25 doses, 25 cents. Never sold in bulk.
