

NEWPORT GINNERY,

Newport, Arkansas.

1905-1906.

MUNGER SYSTEM
BRICK BUILDING
FIRE PROOF
CAPACITY, 75 BALES PER DAY.

We are now ready for the new season's business. We want your business and we are prepared to take care of it.

We guarantee to give you correct weights and fair treatment, and to make you a sample which will command a premium on the market.

We will buy your Seed Cotton, or will gin the Cotton for your account.

We pay the highest market price for Seed and Seed Cotton, but our charge for ginning is the same whether you sell us your seed or not.

We assume all fire risks until your cotton is ginned and turned out on the platform.

We have the largest capacity of any gin in the county and we will run day and night, if necessary, to handle your business.

Mr. B. W. Jamison, who has had the management of our gin for the past two years, will again be in charge, and he is known to be reliable, prompt and attentive to business. We employ only good men and require them to be careful and correct.

The public is invited to visit our plant, and our ginner will take pleasure in showing you through.

To Our Farmers, Friends and Others Interested:

Your patronage is solicited on the ground that we are prepared to give you satisfaction in every respect. If you have never ginned with us we would appreciate a trial.

Remember that we guarantee quick work, no delays and long waiting, a fine sample, honest dealings and correct weights.

Mrs. C. E. Johnson, formerly a resident of Newport, who has been the guest of Mrs. M. C. Lee, returned to her home at Walnut Ridge Saturday afternoon.

W. C. Williamson, one of the Island's progressive and energetic farmers, returned Saturday from McCrory, where he left his sister, who has been sick with fever, much better.

Miss Elizabeth Gullette suffered a sprained ankle Friday afternoon, but is getting along nicely, though confined to her home, and the editor is doing a few reportorial stunts again.

Hon. A. G. Gray was out from Hickory Valley Monday. He is using crutches on account of an accident at Newport, but hopes to soon be able to lay them aside. —Batesville News.

White river continues to rise slowly, being 5.6 feet on the Newport gauge. The rains of the past week were evidently heavier along the tributaries or head waters than in this section.

O. M. Bowen was expected home Saturday afternoon from Clarendon where he attended the funeral of the late E. B. Emmons, a former resident of this city, which took place Friday in Clarendon.

Grover Davidson, formerly a typo with the Independent, and a clever young man, who afterwards took up railroading, was down Saturday and expects to again enter the service of the Iron Mountain.

E. S. Walsh, train dispatcher, left yesterday for Colorado Springs to join his wife who is spending the summer there. He will be absent about two weeks. Mrs. Walsh will return to Cotter about Christmas. —Cotter Courier

Last Sunday Rev. C. Pope of this city and Rev. Morehead of Paragould exchanged pulpits. Rev. Pope, while at Paragould, heard Carrie Nation deliver two lectures and was much impressed with her ability. —Walnut Ridge Blade.

"Indications point to big crowds from here to Little Rock to see the president," says Ticket Agent Gus Coffin of the Iron Mountain, "for we always have a forecast on the amount of business to handle by inquiries in regard to rates and time of trains."

Mrs. T. E. Scanlon, widow and mother of the man and boy killed in the Diaz wreck July 29, came in Friday night from her home at El Dorado to consult with her attorneys in this city. It is probable that she will bring a heavy damage suit against the Iron Mountain railroad for the loss of husband and son.

Nutting parties are the order of the day and the weather seems to have been ordered for the purpose. Master Charles Sprigg was the donor of such a party to quite a bunch of his young friends. They repaired in a big wagon to the Wilman's field below the Kelley mill site where they spent the day gathering pecans. Mrs. M. A. Dorsey chaperoned the wagon party.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Scott entertained a jolly crowd of young people last night in honor of Mr. Scott's sister, Miss Lena Weatherford, of Olyphant, Ark., who has been visiting here the past three weeks. Various amusements were indulged in and the hours passed like minutes to the five couples who attended. Delicious refreshments consisting of ice cream, cake, nuts and fruits were served at an appropriate hour. Miss Weatherford made many friends during her visit here who will regret to learn that she will leave tomorrow for a visit to Springfield and Harrison before returning home. —Paragould Soliphone.

Jack Frost left his footprints in this section Friday night in an almost indelible fashion. It will take a winter's snows to efface them and the sunshine of another spring to replace the withered life of nature. Down with the quarantine says Jack, and even the Arkansas health board ought to be willing to put down the bars and allow the president to choose his own roadway. The frosty weather is a little too severe and premature for the season, and the warmth of the hospitality and welcome this state will show Theodore Roosevelt will put Jack Frost out of business here a few days.

WHEN THE KIDNEYS ARE AILING.

The Urgent Need of Prompt Restorative Measures is Something That Every One Should Understand.

"A Stitch in Time Saves Nine."

Slight disorders in the kidneys or urinary organs are more serious than most people think. The first warning symptoms should receive prompt medical treatment to ward off Bright's Disease or some other dangerous malady. When the kidneys are ailing and the symptoms become sufficiently pronounced to be noticeable the condition calls at once for prompt measures to stay the progress of the disease. Prickly Ash Bitters is the remedy needed. Taken on the appearance of the first symptoms, such as pain in the back, puffiness under the eyes, irregularities in the urine, digestive disorders, it will save the victim incalculable misery and suffering, mental torture and expense. Used at the beginning of the trouble it cures quickly. Used in the more advanced stages it will win back health and strength as rapidly as circumstances will possibly permit.

Accept no substitute. Insist on having the genuine Prickly Ash Bitters with the large figure 3 in red on the front label.

Sold at Drug Stores, $1.00 Per bottle.
