Mr. W. F. Hunter brought a wagon load of the finest watermelons ever seen in Newport to town this morning. They were purchased by the Newport Novelty Company and placed on ice. In fact, these melons are so fine that County Farm Agent George Banks said he would see that Mr. Hunter is given first prize. We have three hundred melons on ice. Let us sell you one.—Newport Novelty Co., W. H. Dyer, Mgr. 85d3t

Mrs. O. W. Scarborough made the best shipment this week of knitted garments for the Jackson County Chapter of the Red Cross, that has ever been made. In the list were 209 pairs of socks and 114 sweaters, which made a total of 10,554 knitted garments shipped this year. Mrs. Scarborough will make an itemized statement of this last shipment in a few days. The chapter is handicapped just now, by having no wool for either socks or sweaters, but it is hoped in a few days to receive a shipment.

A few days ago the Independent made mention of the fact that it had a young 16-year-old lad on its payroll who has set a pace for persons much older in the matter of buying war savings stamps. This lad, whose name is Owen McGinness, is also an extensive gardener. When he gets through work at the office he goes straight home and works his garden, in consequence of which he has not been heard to complain of dry weather. He knew just what steps to

At A Sacrifice

All Our Spring and Summer Goods

No doubt merchandise will be higher next Spring but as we are needing the space for fall goods and the money more than anything else, we would rather sell this at a sacrifice than to carry it over.

NOW IS YOUR CHANCE

To buy anything in the line of Men, Women and children's low quarter shoes; Men and Boy's Suits and Odd Pants; Women and Children's Summer Dresses made of Gingham, Percale, Silk, Crepe-de-Chine, Georgette, Satin and Georgette combinations. take to keep his truck patch in a growing condition. Among other things he raised a fine patch of tomatoes from which he selected one that tipped the scales at one pound, and other products of his industry and care have measured up to an unusual standard.

Somebody in Newport or vicinity appears to be engaged in the work of collecting bicycles. Last night Leo Saenger lost his bicycle when it disappeared from the front porch of his home on Walnut street, while Ralph White and Babe Washam lost their bicycles in the same manner. A few weeks ago some one stole the wheel belonging to O. E. Jones, Jr., but it was recovered when an advertisement for its recovery was placed in the Independent.

C. R. Pate, who for several years has been manager of the Pate Grocer Company here, has disposed of a greater portion of his stock in the concern to Alf James, with whom Mr. Pate has been associated in the conduct of the business. Mr. Pate will no longer be connected actively in the management of the business. He has not completed his plans for the future, but has been offered a position in Little Rock and other places here, and says he will probably continue his residence in Newport, which the many friends of the family hope he will do.

ELECTION IN TENNESSEE.

(By The Associated Press.)

An Extraordinary Sale

Of All Summer Shoes

MEN'S WOMEN'S CHILDREN'S

Our policy of quick stock renewals is what makes a sale of this kind necessary, every season—about this time every year we find the necessity in a larger way. Fall shoes are coming in and we must make room for them, and this means faster selling, and faster selling means lowering of prices. That's the course—and the only course we have ever found open, and we're not going to look for any other way now.

Our Aim Is To Sell The Shoes

and the selling must be fast, and to make it so we are going to sacrifice the "best sellers." We have no slow sellers, but we are going to shove forward the most desirable first—and the wise buyer will come and come early.
