Amusements

AT THE PRINCESS.

From the first act on, the bill at the Princess theater the last half of the coming week is a whirlwind.The supreme headliner of this all-star bill is none other than Vilmos Westony, the greatest European pianist who has ever been seen in America. While the technique and finesse manifested throughout his delivery give proof of his wonderful ability as a talented pianist, the touch of ragtime which he introduces appeases the taste of the general public for that form of entertainment.In the performance of Dunn and Hughes will be found so many distinctly different forms of entertainment that it is difficult to say which part of their act is their specialty.
Interspersed are sweet, melodious singing, rare witticisms, and comedy imitations, whistling and whistling obligatos.A sensation in the club juggling art will be introduced by Lynch and Zeller, two clever jugglers unparalleled in their line. With snap, vigor and ginger they do their stunts in a rapid-fire, cocksure manner which only the perfect artist can assume.
The act, while comprising many difficult turns, is a neat one and pleasing in general aspect.May Archer and Billy Carr, in their particular line of entertainment are vaudeville stars of first rank. Their offering will be a conglomeration of ragtime songs and comedy, and is as lively and entertaining as anything that has occupied the Princess stage in many days.Miss Mabel Sherman is a dainty mass of beauty, talent, and wit. Her beauty fairly oozes out—beauty of form and face, beauty of expression and femininity, showing her finer sen-sibilities and gentleness; beauty of expression in her art, which every dainty warble brings forth; and her smile and tiny bits of witticism interwoven at just the right time to produce upon her auditors the lasting impression of, above all else, her delicious refinement and good breeding.

WHITTINGTON PARK.

There is class in the very announcement of the vaudeville show that will hold forth the last half of the week in the cool and inviting theater at Whittington park, and there is some class, too, in everything that the respective acts do.Manager Harry Hale announces the initial appearance in this city of Mayne and Mayne, a song and dance and talking act that has been a sensation over the Lyric circuit. There have been others who have sung and danced their way into popular favor, but after one sees this team one realizes that the others have stopped right where Mayne and Mayne begin.Edythe Rose will receive a hearty "welcome to our city." Edyth has been pleasantly referred to as "vaudeville's fairest and most talented flower," and if all that the managers say of her is true, this must be so.
She has three important requisites, beauty, a perfect form and talent for singing and dancing. In connection with the Lyric show there will also be three reels of first run pictures never before seen in this city, including the famous Pathe weekly, that moving pictorial novelty that brings the world at one's feet.There is another amusement that is meeting with much favor at Whittington park, and that is the dancing, which is held every evening. This, together with the many varied enterprises, each one of which makes for the entertainment and comfort of its patrons, has increased the popularity of this summer mecca.

AT THE AIRDOOME.

"Because He Loved Her So," one of the merriest and most human interest comedy dramas that was ever staged was played by the Taylor stock company at the Airdome last evening to a large and appreciative audience.In the audience were many members of the Arkansas Medical association and their ladies, as well as delegates to the state pharmaceutical convention who, notwithstanding there were attractions in which they were interested, availed themselves of the opportunity to see this play, and none regretted it. Mr. Taylor has become a great favorite throughout the state and the visitors last night gave him and his company a great welcome.Tonight he offers the greatest success, Walker Whiteside ever produced, "We Were King," and the drama is a costume piece of great strength, the situations being most dramatic. It is staged with special scenery and the company considers it one of their strongest plays.Mrs. Ingersol Goodwin will be hosess this afternoon to the Silk Stocking club, at the home of Mrs. Frank Head.

Dreamland

(Formerly Babcock Dancing Hall).Has changed hands and will be closed for a few days while extensive improvements are made.The new management will conduct the place in a first class manner, catering to the best people. Dances will be given Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday nights.
Classes taught every afternoon.Grand Opening
