FIXING THE STREETS.

Now that this is the first week in March, and travel on Central avenue is greater than at any other time of the year, it is not unnatural that forces of men are cutting up the pavement on this thoroughfare, blockading traffic, and preparing to patch holes that have been a menace to travel for the past three months.

If there is a State Fair to be held, a big convention coming, or some particular attraction for this city, the incident is always brought forcefully to attention by the Central avenue paving patchers, who naturally get blame for the condition of the streets, and really has its responsibility in the matter, though paving commissioners have been entrusted with the building and the repair of the paving. The responsibility of the city is joint, for the city could take drastic steps if necessary, to force the commissioners to do the duty they were elected to do, or the council could take steps to remove them.

No improvement district commissioners can be elected by the improvement district without the approval of the council. The council has a supervising authority, that can not be denied. And the council might indicate to commissioners working under its authority that removal from office will be the price for a continued policy of neglect in the matter of public duty.

But if the "Brass Kid" never served any other useful purpose, he did imphative attention to the fact that the law in Arkansas is not sufficient in dealing with the professional thief.

This week will mark the writing into history of the law that makes a professional gambler a felon. If the process of the law will do its part.

St. Louis is to have a church with a roof garden and moving picture show attachment. That church will certainly make a "holy show" of itself.

A scientific paper says that the pulley is the oldest mechanical invention, but it appears to us that the crowbar has a pryer claim.

With the sheriff and his deputies on the job, the Burns detectives at work in their way, and the police in their routine, we are truly a detected people.

"If misfortune overtakes you, smile," sings a poet. That's all well enough, but suppose, it overtakes you in a prohibition town?

What Hot Springs most needs is to create a sense of absolute security in the minds of its 175,000 annual visitors.

Hot Springs will be the first southern training quarter of interest in baseball circles.

A New York man claims to have made a piano out of paper. Paper organs are nothing new.

The electric chair is going to call for its own soon, following that New York gambling scandal.

It is strange that poverty bears up so well considering there are so many people struggling with it.

Social functions are really "brilliant" when the guests can't afford to wear real diamonds.

The snails of the little fellow never deterred the man with a purpose ahead.

The advertising fund will do its part and the rest of the work must be done in another way.

There is no objection to a man riding a hobby if he doesn't take up the whole road with it.

Counting the days until the grand jury gets to work?

You judge a man not by what he promises to do, but by what he has done. That is the only true test.
Chamberlain's Cough Remedy judged by this standard has no superior.
People everywhere speak of it in the highest terms of praise. For sale by all druggists.
