Southern romance such as only Kalem can tell.

The Cheaters

AT THE PRINCESS.

The present bill at the Princess is a star bill in every sense of the word. There is not a weak act or a dull moment in the entire offering, and some of the most delightful acts ever witnessed at this theater are there.

The big act of the bill is Wormwood's Dog and Monkey circus. It is a regular circus with the dogs and monkeys doing all the stunts that real circus performers and clowns do.
There is a big crowd of the performing animals and there is something doing every minute. A big feature of the act is the educated dog, doing number work in real high school style, and adding, subtracting and multiplying new sums every day. It is one of the biggest and best animal acts ever shown in the city.

"Bottle 6-40-9," the dandy comedy playlet by Frank Rea and company, is one of the most entertaining little sketches of the season. Frank Rea is one of the best comedians on the vaudeville stage today, while the other members of the company are about class artists. The piece hinges about a mysterious bottle, the contents of which cause one to tell the truth for a space of five minutes and there are some real confessions coming.

Tojetti and Bennett, with their novelty dancing sketch, have a charming number, one in which grace and spectacular dancing abound, but there is enough of a plot to the skit to carry it along. It is one of the best dancing acts of recent months.

Paul Florus, the xylophone artist, is there with the bells. He plays the xylophone in a manner that makes you love this tinkling instrument more than ever, and he is proving himself one of the big attractions of the bill.

Leonard Willard in the vaudeville odyssey, "Calling His Bluff," has the big surprise act of the show. The number is replete with excellent singing and some graceful dancing steps, but the big feature is the surprise, which one must witness to appreciate.

The present bill is one of the very best of the season, with plenty of variety and harmony and several really spectacular acts which make the offering more than usually entertaining.

ROYAL THEATER.

No motion picture theater in the city has established the reputation for a standard of every day excellence that the Royal has. The pictures shown here are the best product of the motion picture art. There is always a headline film, interspersed with human interest stories, spectacular and educational reels, comedies and dramas.

The Royal has made a point never to disappoint its patrons. You can go to the Royal any day of the week and see the best picture program in the city. The people know this which accounts for the steadily increasing patronage of this theater.
Then the Royal orchestra, under the leadership of E. C. Minard, is the best of its kind in the city. They supply all the realistic effects to the pictures and make them stand out.

ANOTHER ONE FOR THE KIDDIES

Wormwood's Dog and Monkey Circus, the greatest and funniest animal act ever seen at the Princess is here for the last three days of the week.
On Saturday afternoon a special matinee will be given for the children and every child in the city should see this splendid act. There are monkeys and dogs galore, and they perform some of the most wonderful tricks.

One dog does number work equal to a pupil in the fourth or fifth grade, doing new sums each day. The monkeys ride bicycles, walk the tight rope, turn somersaults, etc., while the dogs perform some really wonderful feats.

Special arrangements will be made to look after the little folks on Saturday afternoon, so bring them or send them. They will be safe and highly entertained.

with a distinction that seems impracticable.

The excellent pictures, the beautiful and comfortable theater, the splendid music and the mechanical effects all stand for the Royal standard of entertainment.

An hour spent at this theater is at once a pleasure and a delight.
The usual big program today.

NEW CENTRAL THEATRE.

Another day of new pictures, ever changing, getting better each day, because the industry of motion photography is improving with each twenty-four hours and because the New Central is getting the best pictures.

"Look at these: A Lubin story,
"The Regeneration of Nancy," one of the best things the Philadelphia man has sent here in a month. Nancy is all right, but there had to come a change into her life, and this worked for the best, which will make you like Nancy all the more.

"The Fire Coward." Honest, talk about a Southern romance—Kalem here is at its best. You know, Kalem is the original southern producer.
They went into the land of the palmetto when the others were first starting, and this reel is a wonder from beginning to end. There is a great fire scene in this reel that will make you gasp.

Then for to send you home in a good humor. Pathe offers this one:
"A White Rose." You'd laugh just the same if it were a red rose, or any old kind of a rose for its the merry plot and quick action and not the rose that will make you giggle.
You cannot surpass these three.
Come and be convinced.

THE LYCEUM THEATRE.

This "house of big features" has another winner for the edification and entertainment of its patrons today, "The Call of Women," and there is no better or more true life story ever attempted, no special with more human interest in it than this one.

BLIND SPELLS FOR A LONG TIME

MRS. LARGEN TELLS OF HER EX-PERIENCE AND HOW SHE FINALLY CAME OUT ALL
RIGHT.

Elkwood, Ala.—Mrs. Mattie Lar-gen, of this town, writes the following letter for publication: "My health was very bad for a long time, on account of womanly trouble. I suffered a great deal, at different times, with headache, and pains in the bottom of my stomach, and had blind spells.

All of this made me so weak, I could hardly sit up. I tried treatment after treatment, but they did me no good.

Just as soon as I commenced taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, my health got better, and now I can do all my housework.

I will never be without Cardui in the house, and will recommend it to every lady that I can, for it has done me so much good, and I know it will do the same for others, if they will give it a trial."

The reason Cardui has attained such wonderful success in the treatment of diseases peculiar to women, is that it acts specifically on the womanly organs. It contains purely vegetable ingredients, of real medicinal merit, and in a safe, gentle way, helps build the womanly constitution back to health and strength.

Cardui is being successfully used by thousands of women every day.
You won't regret giving it a trial.

structions on your case and 67-page now undertaken a still more difficult feat with the bears and panthers, and if you think this animal trainer does not take chances, just watch the "little man who does big things" with these great beasts. He is a wonder and the entertainment offered is the most thrilling of its kind ever witnessed in this city.

IF YOU HAVE ANY SKIN TROUBLE READ THESE STATEMENTS.

"I suffered from Erysipelas for thirty years and could obtain only temporary relief, although I tried various remedies and treated with the best doctors. My face was a dreadful sight and was so swollen at times that I could not see. I heard of Ho-kara and purchased a jar. It gave immediate relief and in a short time entirely cured me. I have not been troubled with Erysipelas since. F. P.
Holt, 1011 Rock St., Little Rock, Ark.

"Until about two years ago I suffered with Eczema since a small child.
It was all over my body, even in my hair and on the bottom of my feet. I bought about one dozen jars of Hokara from my druggist and it cured me. I am now entirely well and have been well for over two years.
Mrs. J. T. Fleming, 1192 West First street, Joplin, Mo.

"I suffered with Eczema for over twenty years. The affected parts were so sore and tender that I was obliged to have cushions put in bed keep the bedclothes from touching me. For a long time I suffered so that I could not sleep until from utter exhaustion. Hokara gave me instant relief, and in a short time entirely cured me. Hokara is a wonderful remedy. Mrs. Mary A. Gray, Box 52, Anderson, Ohio.

I had rheumatic eczema and the pain was so intense that I could not sleep, and was continually groaning in pain. My doctor gave me several remedies, but they gave me very little relief. My druggist advised me to try Hokara, and it gave me immediate and satisfying relief. It will do all that is claimed for it. Albert C.
