Mrs. Beresford Cobb, Honoree, Birthday Surprise Party.

The local chapter of the Order of Eastern Star paid their worthy matron, Mrs. Beresford Cobb, a graceful compliment Saturday evening when they gave her a surprise party in celebration of her birthday.

They assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. K. Davies on East Grand avenue, and from there went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cobb.

A most delightful evening was passed. The chapter had prepared refreshments for the occasion and during the evening served punch, cake and candy. In addition to this treat they presented Mrs. Cobb with a handsome string of pearl beads. The presentation speech was made on behalf of the chapter by Mrs. Anna Gill, an ardent member, who is very popular with the members and her friends generally.

In a few chosen, graceful words she spoke of the deep appreciation felt by the chapter of the excellent work of Mrs. Cobb as worthy matron and the pleasure it gave the members to bestow this token of regard and to assemble with her in celebration of her birthday.

Guests of the occasion were Mrs. F. M. Wiley and Mrs. Tom Stewart.

Wilkinson-Pate Wedding Today.

A wedding of interest to the friends and former pupils of Miss Roberta Pate will be solemnized today at Carlisle, Ark., when she becomes the bride of Mr. Ral W. Wilkinson of Lavonia, Ga.

The nuptial vows will be spoken at about 2 p. m., when Rev. Forney Hutchinson will perform the ceremony.

Money at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Myrtle Westerfield.

Mrs. Curtis Stout, formerly Miss Pearl Hawley of this city, will be the matron of honor.

The groom will be attended by Mr. William Berrows as best man. Mr. Berrows is from Carnsville, Ga.

The bride is a pretty, stylish brunette and no doubt will appear charming in her handsome white tulle wedding gown and carrying a wreath of Killarney roses.

Following the reception after the wedding the couple will leave on their honeymoon trip, which will include eastern points of interest.

The best wishes of their friends here will be their.

Picnics Galore.

The summer season brings picnics, mountain parties, swimming, boating, watermelons, camping trips, etc., not to speak of June weddings, which for 1914 will end today.

Today the Central Methodist Sunday school will have its annual picnic at Riverview park.

During the month the Christian church had its picnic at Thousand Dripping Springs; the Second Baptists held their picnic at Chalybeate Springs; the First Baptists at Gardner bridge on the Ouachita river.

There are so many out-of-town resorts and lovely springs that Hot Springs people need never lack for a place to go. There are out-of-town hotels with lovely grounds; there are rivers and crystal streams; there are parks in town and last but by no means least our own lovely mountains which to prairie people would seem novel picnic places, and to us who enjoy them a never-failing source of pleasure. What park is more beautiful than a mountain park covered with lovely terraces, picturesque walks, drive-ways and abundant forestry. Some of our townspeople overlook this great opportunity for enjoyment, while others are out for early morning mountain climbs or evening drives. All enjoy the lovely band concerts given in the evenings on East Mountain, from which the healing hot waters flow. The mountains are always beautifully lighted at night and the United States government has done much toward making the mountains inviting resorts.

One lovely mountain party of last week, in addition to those already reported in these columns, occurred Friday, when a merry party of mountain climbers went up early in the morning to the crest of the East, or Hot Springs Mountain as it is also called, and there cooked a camp-fire breakfast. It was a spend-the-day party. Lunch was enjoyed at the steel tower with the proprietress, Mrs. Will Howell, and a most enjoyable time passed until late in the afternoon, when all returned to the valley city. In the party were: Mesdames John B. Riggsbee, W. O. Creason, Anna Gill, Frank Mann, Miss Emma Mills of Paola, Kan.; Miss Lillie Williams, Emily and Jane Foote, Kenneth and Don Riggsbee, Bettie Mann, Roma and Stephen Shockley, Willard Creason, Fred and Althus Kearney enjoyed a day's outing.

Miss Winifred Weeks Resigns High School Position.

The resignation of Miss Winifred Weeks from the high school faculty, where she has made an enviable record as assistant teacher of mathematics, will be felt with keen regret by her pupils, with whom she has ever been quite popular. She is a splendid teacher in both primary and high school work.

Miss Weeks has taught twenty-one years in the city schools, where she perhaps holds the record for length of continuous service.

Those approaching nearest to her in time connected with the city schools have been former Superintendent George B. Cook and Misses Fannie and Nancy Connelly—the last mentioned is now Mrs. D. A. Crockett—all of whom, with Miss Weeks, belong to the veteran class.

Miss Weeks, Mrs. Lulu Spear Howell, Miss Fannie Connelly and Mrs.

There are five in the class. They are: Sister Mary Borgia, Rose Lloyd Boulton, Anna La Velle Witt, Ruby Jewel Morris and Edith Belle Halbert. Their motto is, "Misericordia Sacerdote Disco," and colors, red and white.

This will be the eighth annual graduating class. Since the establishment of the training school, thirty-two graduate nurses have finished from this well known institution and to their number will be added the above five.

The diplomas will be presented by Dr. C. Travis Drennen. He will be assisted by several well known physicians of Hot Springs, who have lectured and observed the work of the class during the period they have been in training for their very important life work.

The exercises will take place on the rotunda of the third floor, which will be appropriately arranged and decorated for the occasion. In addition to the presentation of the diplomas an interesting program will be carried out.

Jesse Murphy (nee Miss Hattie Henry), who graduated in the class of 1893, have continuously resided in this city, the other graduates having since scattered, while some have died.

The class of 1893 graduated when Mr. Cook was the high school principal. Following that, or the next year, the office of superintendency was established, the position being tendered and accepted by him.

Miss Weeks, we understand, will reside in Berkeley, Cal., this winter and take a course in the California University, where she will no doubt make a fine record. She graduated with the highest honors of her class here as a young girl.

She has been a leader in this city in woman's club work and will be greatly missed by a large circle of friends.

Joint Birthday Party.

Mrs. Williams Turner Wootton gave a lovely children's party Saturday afternoon between the hours of 4:30 and 6 o'clock on the pretty lawn in front of her Prospect avenue home, in honor of the fifth birthday of her daughter, John, and Isabel Jelks, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. James Jelks.

Twenty of the children of the neighborhood shared the hospitality. Each guest was remembered with a pretty little souvenir. Toys were served in abundance and the little ones enjoyed themselves to their hearts' content.

Ramsey-Anderson Wedding Occurs Today.

Mr. Lucien Ramsey, local manager of the Scott-Meyer Commission Co., left Saturday afternoon for Statesville, N. C., where he is to wed Miss Helen Anderson, sister of City Passenger Agent William Anderson of the Rock Island, who resides in this city.

An exchange from Statesville says: "Miss Helen Anderson and Lucian Ramsey of Hot Springs, Ark., will be married Tuesday, June 30, at 6 p. m. The marriage will take place at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. W. E. Anderson, on West Broad street, and will be a quiet affair. Rev. J. F. Kirk of the Methodist church will officiate. Only relatives and intimate friends will witness the ceremony."

Health a Factor in Success.

The largest factor contributing to a man's success is undoubtedly health. It has been observed that a man is seldom sick when his bowels are regular—he is never well when they are constipated. For constipation you will find nothing quite so good as Chamberlain's Tablets. They not only move the bowels but improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion. They are sold by all dealers.

If you did not attend Albert Mendel & Co.'s big sale yesterday you have another opportunity today. The same exceptionally low prices will prevail and there is a fine assortment in all lines left.

MOTORCYCLIST HURT.

May Lose Foot As Result of Collision With Automobile.

John Kaufman may lose his right foot as the result of a collision of his motorcycle with an automobile at the end of Malvern avenue last evening.

Kaufman was riding near the end of Malvern and in endeavoring to avoid an approaching automobile both machines became confused with the result that they collided. Kaufman was knocked from his motorcycle and his right ankle so severely crushed that it is believed amputation will be necessary.

The injured man was taken to St. Joseph's infirmary and the attending physicians stated that an operation for the amputation of the foot would probably be had sometime today.

The name of the driver of the automobile could not be learned last evening.

Dr. R. A. Simpson, office ground floor Arkansas National Bank Building.
