Virginia W. Crouch was bin Nov. 3, 1884, near Huntsville, West Va., and died at her home near Vilas, Colo., on Jan. 17th, 1917.

She was married to Jacob G. Ward, July 12, 1866, to which union were born eight sons, tou. of whom survive her, they being Warren, Robert G., Harry K. and Felix R. For a number of years the Ward family lived in Springfield, during which time ur. Ward was sheriff of Baca ounty. During their stay here they made many warm triends

After Mr. Ward's retirement iom office they moved to a ranon northwest of Vilas, at which nace Mr. Ward died F ... 18th .501. When a girl Mrs. Ward became a member of the United Presby terian courch and late. In ate joined the Methodist cha.cu. of which energh she remained a member until her death. Mrs. Ward was held in high esteep by a I who knew her, she being of a friendly, kind and considerate disposition, she was a mother in the truest sense of the word as evidenced by her home life and the fact that her children. though grown to manhood, remained with her to the last.

Beno Level of Boston was a Springfield visitor the first of the week.

We are on the grasp of genuine winter.

William "hompson. Jr., regaived news his infant daughter wa- threatened with pneumonia at Holly.

Jesse Harrison made a trip to Lamar this week.

News from Glen Yokum, who s at Auto school at Kansas City, states he likes the school fine.

Not a very large attendance at school this week on account of the bad weather. The sick people at the Ward ranch are all doing nicely under the skillful management of Dr. Culp. So far the mail carriers have made their daily trips. John Yokum and Russel Robb are the champion rabbit hunters. Mrs. Rutherford purchased a lovely cabinet sewing machine from our wide awake merchant,

C. F. Wheeler. We must have a sneak thief in our midst, as Mrs. Yokley lost all her chickens in one night.

She only had four. Dr. Bianchat has not been make ing his daily professional calle, the weather being so bad and snow so badly drifted.

Miss Pearl Ewing purchased Allen Dickey's relinquishment, putting a homestead filing on it. Mr. Dickey is a good electrician, and will return to his old job at Wichita.
