lication, within thirty days after the swer the complaint as required, the action

Burnett is Coming

Palace Hotel, Springfield, Wednesday and Thursday, May 11th and 12th.

This cut illustrates Burnett's NO-CHART method of examining eyes for glasses!

Knowing my unusual ability people sometimes ask me why I travel instead of maintaining a city office somewhere.

It's this way, I like the snap of city business, all right but I do not like city noise, city dirt, nor the city's filth polluted air.
Visiting a town a day I get the rush and snap of city business and at the same time have the joy of pure air, small town cleanliness and quiet.

Then there is another and more important reason, I suppose I have at least 500 patients scattered over my territory who never had satisfactory glasses until I visited their town. For financial or other reasons they had never gone to a city to get expert eye work, and until I brought expert work to them they had gotten glasses from poorly qualified local men and peddles of glasses who came to town. These people, you bet your life, are mighty glad I travel. HAVE BURNETT FIT YOUR GLASSES, THEN THEY WILL BE RIGHT!

Better tell your friends and neighbors when I'm coming Thanks.

Box 157, Pueblo.

Judge McPhail returned from Denver last week after a week's stay on legal matters.

Dickey-Jones

Last week U. S. Dickey and Mrs. J. A. Jones were married at Lamar.

Mr. Dickey was born in Tennessee and came here from Texas, going into the hardware business with his father and brother.

Mrs. Jones was born in Kentucky and came here with her son about a year ago, buying a relinquishment joining the Kim town site.

lations.—Dry-Land Record.

Case Dismissed In Lower Court

And Direct Information Filed in the County Court, to be Heard at an Early Sitting.

The case against Arthur Smart and Doc Hart for making and selling booze, to have been heard before Judge Dickey Saturday, was dismissed by the prosecuting attorney and case filed with the county court on direct information.

We do not know why this change and delay in the case.

The case of A. L. Smart will be heard in the federal district court—probably in May, he being charged with operating a still on his farm.

Meantime they are both out under bonds for their appearance in court when the time comes.

forts to get a daily mail from

Baptist Notes

The Sunday school lessons are growing more and more interesting the time.

The writer got next Sundays subject in last week's edition, "Bible Teachings About Education," instead of "Poverty and Riches," the subject of last Sunday.

We all enjoyed the sermon Sunday morning on, "The Story of Moses and the Laws," preached by Rev. Golden.

The dust storm was a little too much for the Juniors Sunday, so there were only three members present at 3:30 Sunday afternoon.

Fred Drake was the leader of the senior B. Y. P. U. Sunday evening. The subject was brought out with real interest.

The evening sermon was on "Sanctification," preached by Henry Burt.

The Ladies Aid will have a bake sale at the Homsher office cial Thursday night, May 5th,

A Mortgage Tax Law

Our good friend Judge Dunbar is a strong advocate of a mortgage tax law—a law that will tax the mortgage instead of the real estate on which the mortgage is fastened.

This has been a long mooted question, but so far the mortga-geors have the legislators with them and hence the mortgage continues immune from taxation.

There are different angles to the question, but it certainly doesn't look right to tax a man or something he doesn't own.

If there's a mortgage on the farm of $5,000 it is evident there is $5,000 worth of that farm the man doesn't own, and the man who does own the $5,000 part of it ought to pay the taxes on that part of the land.

On the other hand, the man may owe debts to the value of $5,000 unsecured by mortgage, say to 100 different men; and in this case it would be hard to exempt him and make the other fellers pay the taxes, when the chances are they may get what's coming to them, or may get nothing.

The argument, however, that the interests rates would be raised just that much we don't think is germane. The same argument was used against the income tax, and would actually apply to any industry, as, if you were to tax them they'd just add it to the price of what they had to sell, etc., etc.

In the case of a mortgage, the question of doubt does not apply as to possible payment, and as the evidence of debt is tangible we believe the mortgageor should pay the tax on so much of the farm value.

Scope and Purpose

Advertising, in the modern general acceptance of the word, is means of causing it to be publicity known what service each of us can render; or what wants we can satisfy, and the convincing reason why it is worth while to take advantage of that service.

It is also the art of impressing on the public the name, nature and use of some commodity.

It may go so far as to create a want for that commodity, stimulate the buying, and inspire immediate action therein, and once the want is created, to keep alive the feeling of its need.

Watch for my announcement of opening a new business in Springfield, and watch it grow.
J. W. Miller.
