PREMIER OF JAPAN TALKS OF THE WAR

HOW IT WAS COMMENCED

AND PLANS THAT HAVE BEEN FOL-LOWED IN ITS CONDUCT.

Says Russia Not Only Violated Pledges Regarding Manchuria, but Was Extending Its Armed Occupation to Korean Territory-Russin Had Scorned Japan and Thought Little of Its Ability to Cope With Russians. Tokio, Nov. 27 .- Discussing the war and the domestic, financial and political conditions of Japan on the eve of the assembling of the Diet with the correspondent of the Associated Press to-day, Premier Katsura said:

"To insure peace in the Orient and to safeguard our national existence is the aim and purpose of our empire, and no sacrifice shall be too great for successfully effecting this purpose. Russia, beside violating her pledges in Manchuria, crowned her overbearing and aggressive policy by extending her arms to the Korean peninsula.

We were highly solicitous to preserve peace, but had no alternative except that of war, which was forced upon us. Throughout the negotiations Russia showed a haughty and overbearing attitude, which as has latterly been shown, was inadequately supported by military strength. Russia allowed herself to be deceived and slighted our empire, for she never beslighted our empire, for she hever be-lieved that Japan would draw the sword of war. Then, after suffering repeated defeats on land and on sea, Russia perceived the mistake she had made and, having discovered the seriousness of the situation began to take adequate of Port Arthur, and Gen. Kuropatkin's southward advance, which resulted in his serious defeat, had the relief of the garrison as its sole object. The Russian Emperor's instructions to Kuropatkin not to retire beyond Mukden vere designed to raise the gloom that had been hanging over the people of Russia since the defeat of Russian arms at the battle of Liao Yang, and Kuropatkin assumed the aggressive, perhaps against his own judgment. "Everything seems to hinge on the fall of Port Arthur, but I do not con-sole myself with the thought that the apture of that ill-fated fortress will ring the war to a speedy termination. Its capture will give occasion for re-newed plans for warfare by Russia, and I am watching keenly for such new developments.

Rallied to the Government.

The domestic conditions of Japan are highly satisfactory. The history of our Diet may be summed up by saying that from the first it planted itself firmly in opposition to the govnment on financial questions. After my appointment friction became inasingly violent. The two great parties, the Constitutionalists and Prosists, held a combined front opposition to my ministry. Despite dministrative reforms effected on heir demand, we failed to satisfy They criticised our financial measures as excessive and refused to the bills.

"Judging by those conditions, serious collisions between the governed and governing were predicted, but when the war came this friction en-tirely ceased, and the House of Reprearable, gave a ready and willing sent to the first war budget of $288,-

'At this session of the Diet the govmment will be compelled to present budget calling for $388,000,000, and indications are that it will be passed without the slightest difficulty.

Is a United People. This happy phenomenon is attribproblem our people unite, and friends and opponents join hands for the accomplishment of our national pur-poses. With the great problem of the war before them, the people of our nation have become as one man. We have no war party and no peace party, as Russia has, but on the contrary our nation is one and united with a determination to fight to the a determination to fight to the

When the war came on it so happened that our financial condition was such that everything indicated a fresh awakening after a period of long dullness and inactivity. Thus our latent financial energy was directed toward the war fund. Our people are showing are showing ample capacity to finance the war, and despite the floating of omestic loans, our economic condi-ons have not been affected, while ng conditions have actually anded since the beginning of hostili-

TAFT REACHES PANAMA.

Conveyed Expressions of Good Will to President Amador. Panama, Nov. 27.—Secretary Taft and party arrived at Colon this morning on the cruiser Columbia.

Mr. Taft was received on shore by Vice President Arosemana and other Panama officials, Gen. Davis, commander of the canal zone, and Minister Barrett. After a conference with the American congressional delegation, Mr. Taft came by a special train to Panama, where he was officially received by a committee and quartered at the residence of Mr. Wallace, chief engineer in charge of construction of the Panama canal.

He was received by President Amador and the Panama cabinet at 4 o'clock this afternoon, After greetings had been exchanged, Mr. Taft said: "It is a pleasure to bring the greetings of the President of the United states and to congratulate Panama upon the propitious beginning of a long and prosperous life—in fact, a life that is to be a peaceful one, and one in which the President and people of the United States are most willing assistants. The United States has no intention in the isthmus other than to build the canal for the benefit of Panama, the United States, and mankind. There is no desire to exercise further power. I will, in the next few days, confer on those matters about which discussion has arisen, and hope to reach a solution full of honor to both countries.

"I have the great honor to present the personal greeting of President Roosevelt and expressions of profound good will.'

President Amador, in reply, said: "Your arrival in Panama and the purpose that brings you is the highest honor this republic has received since it was born. The government and people will know how to appreci ate this new proof of sympathy with which the United States has desired once more to distinguish us.'

President Amador later in the day return Secretary Taft's official call. The conference between Secretary Taft and President Amador will take place to-morrow.

THE FIGHTING STILL CONTINUES AT PORT ARTHUR.

Japanese Imperial Headquarters Issued the Report-Said That the Prevented the Accomplishment of the Object of the Japanese, Who arm. Began the Attack the Afternoon of Nov. 26-Assault General.

Tokio, Nov. 27, 6:30 p. m.-Imperial headquarters has just issued the following announcement:

"The works for our attack having been nearly completed against Shungshu mountain (Port Arthur) and the forts lying eastward therefrom, a general assault was made on the afternoon of Nov. 26, but owing to the enemy's stubborn resistance, our objust has not yet been acomplished. "The fighting still continues."

LITTLE FIGHTING NOW IN MUKDEN VICINITY.

Mukden, Nov. 27 .- A terrific storm was experienced here on Saturday and residents expect a repetition of such weather until March. The temperature now is below freezing. The inhabitants of leaky huts are in a pitiable condition. Every one has been ooking for a big battle, but though reinforcements continue to arrive and both sides continue to entrench, a general engagement apparently is as far off as ever, and no one now discusses the subject.

A number of commanders are drill-ing their men as in time of peace.

More interest is expressed here in the fate of Port Arthur and its abil-ity to hold out against the Japanese than in what is happening in closer quarters There have been the usual small skir-mishes. Vilmanstranski's mishes. Vilmanstranski's sharp-shooters took a Japanese advanced position Saturday, driving out the Japanese at the point of the bayonet. The latter left several dead and the Russian loss was three.

The village of Erdagou continues to be the scene of frequent small fights. The Japanese made a tentative attack there on Nov. 25, but did not attempt to push home the attack in the face of the Russian artillery fire.

KUROPATKIN SAYS FIGHTING WAS FIERCE.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 27.-Gen. Kuropatkin telegraphs a description of Japanese attack on Nov. 24 against a left flank.

"The fighting," Gen. Kuropatkin emy were everywhere repulsed and suffered severely. LANSDOWNE WARNS

THE BRITISH COLLIERS.

Lendon, Nov. 27 .- Foreign Minister Lansdowne has written a letter to the Chamber of Shipping, Chamber of Commerce and other similar bodies giving further warning with reference to British colliers and the Russian Baltic squadron, explaining that British owners chartering their vessels for such purposes as following the Russian fleet with coal and supplies might render themselves liable to proceed-ings under the foreign enlistment act the applicable sections of which he Lord Lansdowne then refers to the fact that a similar question arose during the Franco-German War, when that such colliers to all intents and purposes would become store ships to the fleet. "Therefore," concludes Lord Lansdowne, "although neutral traders may trade in contraband at the risk of capture, they should bear in mind the conditions of the English laws."

Lord Landowne, in response to the request of the Liverpool Chamber of Commerce for further information on the question of contraband states that communications on the subject are still passing between the British and Russian governments, and that he is not yet able to add materially to his earlier statements.
