Gila Valley Rancher Seeks Lost Adams Mines.

William M. Whipple, owner of a large alfalfa ranch near Pima, a dairy and water works at Clifton and one of the country's all-around hustlers, has been spending the last ten weeks on a prospecting trip—with the long sought for "Lost Adams Diggings" as the goal of his journey. The story of Adams' rich gold bonanza, and how he and his fellow discoverers were at- tacked by Apache Indians and driven away from it, with all but Adams and a half-wild old Dutchman being killed as they fled. Of how the Dutchman could never tell anything in an intelligent manner, and how Adams went insane and was never able to locate the exact place again—are all familiar to the people of the south- west. Mr. Whipple and his companions are making another of the many searches in quest of the famous treasure.

Mr. Whipple and his company left here in the middle of September for the House-Rock valley, just across the Colorado river from Lees Ferry as his objective point. Since then he has been heard of in Johnson Basin, Socorro county, New Mexico, in the vicinity of Flagstaff, Arizona and is supposed to have visited the country along the Rio Verde in Yavapai county. Mr. Whipple is a shrewd ob- server of geological formations, and a man of large experience, so that he will no doubt make a systematic search for these and other indications of mineral wealth.—Crosby's paper.

Fourteen Million Pounds was Product of Two Douglas Smelters for Month.

The total copper output at the Cop- per Queen and Calumet & Arizona smelters in Douglas during the month of November amounted to practically fourteen million pounds. The Copper Queen produced 9,400,000 pounds, about the same as for October, but this shows an increase, as November was a short month. The Copper Queen during last month operated an average of 8-13 furnaces and six con- verters. Eight furnaces are now in blast and six converters. For several days last month nine furnaces were in commission and seven converters. At the Calumet & Arizona smelter the output for November was 4,500, 000 pounds. Here four furnaces and five converters were in operation for the month.

There is no construction work going on now at either of the smelters and two furnaces are idle at the Queen plant and two are idle at the C. & A. It is not the intention of either com- pany to do anything in the way of im- provement until after the first of the year.—Douglas International.

Marble of Colorado as Fine as Italian.
Julio Corsi, whose family practically controls the Italian output of fine marble, has returned here from an inspection of the Colorado marble fields and declares them to be of in- estimable value.

"There is plenty of marble in Colo- rado," said Corsi. "The pure white marble is quite as good as ours. The green marble is beautiful and we have nothing like it in Italy. They have produced no statuary marble in Colo- rado as yet, but they are bound to find it as they go on. The quarries out there are new and the father they go in the better the marble they will find. The quarries here are bet- ter than ours in that they have only one quality of marble. Ours have four or five."

Churn Drills For Warrior.

The latest change in the operations on the property of the Warrior De- velopment company since the Hovland and Smith interests took it over is the ordering of two new churn drills for prospecting work. They are ex- pected to arrive on the scene within four weeks and will then be put to work immediately on property of the Warrior Development company ad- joining the mineral lands of the In- spiration Copper company and the Miami Copper company and at a point only a hundred feet distant from where the large Inspiration ore body has recently been developed by churn drills. The new drills ordered by the Warrior Development com- pany are of the Star type and are 1,000 foot machines. A rapid rate of development should be made as soon as these drills are set at work.

The Warrior Development company has a large area of schist similar in nature to that found on the Miami and Inspiration properties and there is little doubt that important develop- ments will be made on this part of the property.—Globe Belt.

Wedding Bells.

Miss Helen E. Edwards of Phoenix and Delbert M. Potter, Jr., of Clifton were married December 1st by Pro- bate Judge Phillips at 10 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother, cor- ner of Second avenue and Madison, Phoenix. The ceremony was quiet, only a few intimate friends being present. Potter is the son of Del M. Potter of Clifton. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Ed- wards, and is well known in Phoenix, having been raised here. Mr. and Mrs. Potter will make their home in this city.—Arizona Democrat.

Rushing Parker Extension.

Reports from Parker are that ex- cellent progress is being made in the construction of the Arizona & Cal- ifornia railroad from that point to Bengal. Ten miles of the grade, in- cluding culverts, are finished, and tracklaying will be commenced at once and continued until connection is made with the present main line of the Santa Fe at Bengal.

J. A. Jaeger, chief engineer of the S. F. & P. and leased lines, in- cluding the A. & C., is now at Parker to organize a track-laying force and start work at once.

It is the intention of the company to keep the track finished as close to the graders as possible, so that supplies can be promptly delivered. Water will be furnished the grading camps from trains in the districts through which the road runs where water is scarce.

Many improvements are under way in the railroad yards at Parker which will be the supply point for the con- struction forces until the road is fin- ished to Bengal. Carloads of rails and ties are being delivered there daily. In fact material is being rushed to that point as rapidly as possible so that no delays will be ex- perience in the work on account of late delivery.

Two More Examinations in Arizona.

Civil service examinations will be held in Phoenix, Prescott, Tucson and Douglas in the near future as follows: December 27, to secure eligibles to fill one or two vacancies in the po- sition of physiologist in alkali and drought resistant plant investigations bureau of plant industry, department of agriculture, at salaries ranging from $1500 to $2000 per annum, and vacancies requiring similar qualifica- tions.

January 5 & 6, 1910, to secure eligibles to fill a vacancy in the position of junior ceramic chemist in the ge- ological survey and vacancies requir- ing similar qualifications as they may occur, at salaries ranging from $600 to $1380 per annum.

Leonard Smith bought out the Allison place in the Pine Cienega country a year or so ago. In his leisure time he has been doing some prospecting. He has discovered what promises to be one of the big gold mines of the country. It is a fissure vein in bird's eye porphyry. The fissure is well defined and has been traced for some three miles. It is about six feet wide with well defined smooth walls, and filled with quartz. The top for a few feet is iron stained and soft. After getting down some six feet it is a soft gray sulphide that is well mineralized. Samples taken across this vein $9, $17 and $48 per ton in gold. Mr. Smith sorted out four tons from the iron stained ore, which he shipped to the smelter, and it went $127 per ton, and netted over $160 per ton. There are old workings on the ledge, and there are rumors that it was worked in an early day, and the workers were driven out by the Apaches. The property which consists of five claims, is owned by Mr. Smith and the Fraser brothers, who have an option on Mr. Smith's portion. The prospect is in twos. 15 S. of range 20 west. It is about 17 miles from the Mogollon road, and an expenditure of $500 would build a good connection road. Last week Sanford Robinson went over from Steeplecock and took a look at the property, with which he was greatly pleased, and thinks there will be a great producer there.—Lordsburg Liberal.

Big Mining Suit Has Been Settled.

An Arizona mining company has the distinction of being the beneficiary of the largest execution ever issued by the supreme court of Massa- chusetts. Last week two executions, totaling $2,282,829, were issued against Albert S. Bigelow of Boston and the estate of Leonard Lewisohn of New York, in favor of the Old Dominion Copper company of Globe.

The executions are the result of the judgment recently rendered against the two defendants in favor of the copper company. The suit, as heretofore explained by the Associated Press, grew out of alleged secret profits obtained by Bigelow and Lewisohn at the time of the organization of the company. Eastern men alone were parties to the transaction, but the case will doubtless be cited by the eastern press as another horrible example of Arizona mining finance.

Greene Co. Buys Miami Mine Stock.

It is reported from New York that the Greene Cananea Copper company has purchased from the Miami Cop- per company 100,000 shares of the latter's stock, the price being $25 a share.

If this is true, it means that the stock of this company will continue to go up, and also will affect the price of the stock of the Inspiration, Key- stone, Cordova, Black Warrior and Cactus, and, in fact, of all companies in the same district with the Miami company near Globe.

In this district the largest body of copper ore in the world has been blocked out and the taking over of any one of these properties by the larger interests means that the work of developing the district will be pushed rapidly ahead.

Karger of St. Paul was the leading pitcher in the American association last season, according to the official average issued. Karger a few years ago pitched for teams in Bisbee, Clifton and Tucson.
