[Notes gathered from the files of this paper of Dec. 30, 1882.]

Snow is four or five inches deep in Weiser city.

The new instruments for the Weiser City Cornet band have arrived.

The grand Christmas ball given in this city was a social and financial success. Over 70 numbers were sold.

Hon. T. C. Galloway came down from Boiss Sunday, where he has been in attendance at the legislative session. We notice that Mr. Galloway has taken a very decided stand in the council against needless and reckless appropriation which have been proposed in that body. The interests of the people and taxpayers will be guarded as far as T. C. Galloway is concerned, and if their money is needlessly spent it will not be the fault of the man whom they have chosen to represent them.

The Christmas tree at the school house was a grand success. It was handsomely decorated, and the presents placed in such way as to present them to the best advantage. Sheriff Gray received two toy pistols, which he thankfully received and seemed to appreciate and admire very much. Evil doers should now steer clear of Sheriff Gray.

clear of Sheriff Gray.

The dread slarm of fire was heard at 5 o'clock this morning. The fire originated in the Cornacopia saloon on Commercial street, owned by J. B. Cox. It was wrapped in flames when the alarm was given. and nothing could be done to save it. The house and entire contents were destroyed. Loss $3000, S. B. Cope's blacksmith shop was the adjourning building, this was also destroyed. Mr. Cope estimates his loss at $300. Heilner, Ottenhelmer & Cos. store on the opposite side of the street was threatened. Many articles that were removed from the building was damaged and broken. They estimate their loss at $300. This was Weiser's first fire.

No ice weather yet.
