Under the new management of the Rietmann Hotel everything has been placed in a clean, sani-and new furnishings installed.

A trial will convince you that it is a fine place to put up at

MORE MACHINE RULE.
The Capital News, Boise, says: "Latah county, the home of Congressman French, and of course, another republican machine county, is another where the machine has deliberately taken the power entirely from the hands of the republican voters and has named delegates to the Wallace convention. It is needless to say that the machine resolutions were adopted. It is really amusing, even in the face of the importance of the act of usurpation of power, to note in the newspaper account that one committeeman had some doubt about the expediency of indorsing Taft, as he admitted knowing many people of his precinct who are opposed to the secretary of war.
'However,' the paper continues, 'he voted with all those present to indorse Taft's candidacy.'

The News would beg to ask the Moscow Post to answer a few questions that are of much importance to the voters of Latah county. We would like to have the Post explain why the last republican platform was not carried out. Why did the republican party of Idaho, under the leadership of Boss Brady, vote down the railroad anti-pass bill? Does Brady favor this bill? What did the republican party of Idaho mean by pledging itself for an anti-trust law and then repudiating the pledge? Why did the republican party declare in its last state platform for equal taxation and then ignore the issue? Why did Mr. Brady and his friends defeat a railroad commission bill? Where does Mr. Brady stand today on this issue?
The above questions ought not be either "insulting" or impertinent. And Editor Fields owes it to the people here to answer these questions. He owes it to the republican machine, of which he is the mouthpiece, to defend the party bosses of the charges of party repudiation. Mr. Fields owes it to his superiors to make good in their behalf. The Troy News has "in-sulted" things generally by charging the republican party with the very serious crime of deliberately lying, to the people. The Post should show, from the republican platform and party record, that the Troy News is once more "inconsistent."

On the morning that he was acquitted in this city of the murder of ex-Governor Frank Steunenberg, W. D.
Haywood said: "I do not in any way blame Governor Gooding for the position he took. How can he reconcile this statement with his bitter denunciation of the governor on Sunday in Chicago? The Haywood who posed with an air of injured innocence before the law-abiding people of the country during and immediately after his trial seems to have been a different Haywood from the one who now rants and raves before a crowd of his 'own kind when he has another purpose to serve."

The Moscow Post says the Troy News has insulted it. This is the way

Become a Booster.
Last week the Troy News editor wrote an article entitled "Become a Booster." This appeared Friday, the paper reaching Moscow the morning of the 10th. A few hours later the Moscow Democrat came out and on the front page, under the same head, appeared the same article, except that "Moscow" was substituted for "Troy." Both articles are reproduced herewith for the purpose of showing how "great minds sometimes run in parallel channels." Funny, isn't it? Really funny to think that while The Troy News editor was writing the article about boosting Troy, Editor Schick of the Moscow Democrat should think the same thoughts and express them identically, even as to punctuation. If Brother Schick wishes to use Troy News articles, the editor will feel complimented, but to steal them bodily, ere they are cold, is an act that this paper will not tolerate. We have no use for the editorial thief. Here are the articles appearing within a few hours of each other:

Become a Booster.
(Troy News).
The most enjoyable work in all the world is boosting. It makes a man happy because of the fact that he feels good over having done something creditable. He is building up. He has ceased to become a stumbling block, and is pushing, rather than retarding the progress of the town and the community. And it makes a man happy. He simply can't help it. What Troy needs is steady, continuous boosting. Stick up for Troy. It is a good town, the very best in the county, and don't be bashful about saying so.
Become a booster. But it is not enough to simply talk. The honest booster takes hold and pushes things.
He improves his property, paints his buildings, fixes up his walks, cleans his yard, and helps to tidy up the town and make things look prosperous. He boosts.

our friend Fields answers the questions put to it by the News. You can't mention republican perfidy, dishonor and platform repudiation to a Bradyite nowadays without "insulting" him.
The News realizes that it is really humiliating, and rather embarrassing to Editor Fields to have to stand up and make excuses and apologize and explain why the republican party lied to the people so brazenly during the last legislature.

A Kooskia father was fined $150 last week at Grangeville for violating the compulsory school law. There are other parents in Idaho county who should be given a taste of the same medicine.—Camas Prairie Chronicle.

WILL IT PAY TO

HOME INDUSTRY **????

We find that during the year 1907 we paid out for labor and salaries about $35,000.00. Is this not a convincing fact that a dollar spent with us means a dollar left at home? And a dollar spent at home is surely easier to get hold of again than if it were sent away. Don't forget to let us figure with you on your building material. Special reduction on doors and
