Carl Peterson, editor of the Peck Sun, passed through Troy Saturday enroute to Deary. He returned in the evening.

A movement has been started to put up signs at all crossroads in Whitman county, giving directions and distances. It is a fine idea.

Scott Schumaker and Miss Eva Durbin were married in Asotin, Wash., Wednesday.

John H. Jones, of Lewiston, a professional mining man, was in Troy a week ago and examined the Steelsmith-Broman property east of Troy. Mr. Jones made several assays, getting returns of $34.35, $62.58, $4.89 and $9.20 per ton. He experted the property and expressed an opinion that Troy had a mine of wonderful richness. He said that it looked like development would make some of the wise knackers scratch their heads. Since Mr. Jones was here the boys have cut through a six-foot stringer of very high grade ore, carrying copper glance and other rich values. Ore assayed in Spokane gave fifteen and seventeen per cent copper.

Bing cherries, three-quarters of an inch and more in diameter, are the kind being raised in the Potlatch this season. James Carrick of American ridge this week presented the News office with a gallon of such luscious Bings as above described, and to one not accustomed to the fine fruit produced on American ridge these cherries would look more like small prunes than cherries. Two of the cherries cannot be covered with a silver dollar.

L. J. Kaaen, of Park, was in Troy Wednesday on his way home from the republican county convention at Moscow. He said the crops in his section were fine, and that they had no frost yet this season. "What we need is a railroad," said Mr. Kaaen. "We have one of the most fertile and productive countries in the west, and with transportation will rapidly develop." The Park country is exceptionally mild, being especially adapted to the raising of fruits and berries. All kinds of grain do well, and with a railroad would develop into the best part of Latah county.

Saloon for Deary.

The county commissioners granted L. P. Wallner a saloon license for the new town of Deary at their session Wednesday. The matter has created much dissatisfaction among the anti-saloon residents of the new town, who had filed, at the last session, a remonstrance against liquor licenses for Deary. The impression was that the commissioners would recognize the sentiment and that the old remonstrance would hold good. The prohibitionists believe they should have been given an opportunity to be heard in a matter of this kind before our republican board of commissioners took action. One republican voter of Deary said: "It looks like the republicans were in favor of prohibition! While the office-seekers were passing resolutions to catch the prohibition votes a board of republican county commissioners were riding rough-shod over the protests of a large majority of the citizens of Deary and granted a saloon license. We are not blaming Mr. Wallner. Personally I like him very much, and if we have a saloon, would as soon see him as any one I know, of run it. But the fact is we want no saloon at Deary."

Announcement.

Preaching at Bethel on American ridge at 11 o'clock, Sunday morning, August 2. Subject: "Divine Healing of the Human Body by the Church." All are invited to attend.

J. M. L. Hoyle, Pastor.

What Do You Think About It?

Have you seen those lovely boulders In the street?
Have you tried their jagged softness On your feet?
Have you, when you drove about Over Main street's rocky route,
Had the boulders throw you out In the street?
Did you feel as though you'd had Ice cream to eat?
Say, did you?

Have you tried to take a pleasant Evening stroll?
Have you had to pull your friend Out of a hole?
Ah, those side walks are immense,
And how simple the expense,
Why, they don't cost fifty cents To a soul!
Don't you think some ways of saving Rather droll?
Say, don't you?
Tror du icke sa?

Have you thought about what if a Fire should come?
Have you noticed that we'd then be Going some?
Have you bargained with a mill For another lumber bill?
If you haven't don't wait till Disasters come,
For you don't know when you'll lose Both house and home.
Say, do you?
Sag, gor du?

Have you tried to keep your parlor Nice and clean?
Has the dirt come in regardless Through the screen?
Don't you think it would be nice If we only had the price,
To wet the streets down once or twice And keep them clean?
Don't you think 'twould add attraction To the scene?
Say, don't you?
Tror du icke sa?

Hasn't Hurt Pullman.

The following dispatch to the Walla Walla Bulletin, from Pullman, shows how the closing of saloons is "killing" the town:

"Residences are being built in every part of the city, and it is estimated that about $100,000 is being expended in residence property. The demand for homes is great and houses are nearly always rented before completed.
