The Poultry Exhibit

The Lincoln County Fair Association is very fortunate indeed in having as the judge of the poultry exhibit Miller J. Purvis. Mr. Pur-vis has had many years experience in the show room, and is recognized as an expert in this line.

All the judging will be by comparison. Intending exhibitors should remember that points are not marked as in a straight poultry show. Do not keep your fowls at home because they are not as fully developed as they will be in December. If they are good for their age bring them in.

Three ribbons will be awarded in each class, and a good many specials are up.

Exhibitors are requested to make and use their own coops. The regulation size of a coop for a trio of fowls is 30 inches square for the floor, and 24 inches high. For turkeys and geese 36 inches each way, so bring them in and make a big display. Entries will close on Tuesday, at 10 a. m. Do not delay, but avoid confusion by making your entry as early as possible.

Sec. Geo. Barrett will be glad to supply you with entry blanks.

INTER-MOUNTAIN FOUR STATE Fair Ogden Utah, Sept. 22-30

Reduced rates via Oregon Short Line.
Tickets on sale from Utah points, Sept.

22nd. to 30th., inclusive; from all other points except in Montana, Sept. 21st. to 26th., limited to Oct. 3rd. Limit of Utah tickets, Oct. 1st. See agents for rates and further particulars.

Children and the Fair

The spirit which moved the management of the Lincoln County Fair to make Wednesday Children's Day and to admit the youth of the county free on that day is commendable.

Children of today, they will be the men and women of tomorrow.
Years will be few till they will be managing the Fairs, harvesting the crops; citizens of the community in which the men and women of now will be, if alive, witnesses to the march of events.

It is meet, therefore, that they should be schooled in the work which is to be done. They must see the things which are accomplished, and know of the labor that is yet to be performed before Idaho can come into her own.

In no way can they learn more than at a gathering of people such as will be had in Wendell at the County Fair. The joy of the throng will make revel of the acquisition of knowledge, and in the young minds will be planted the thought of the possibilities before them.

Schools throughout the county so situated that the scholars can attend the Fair and return the same day, should make vacation for the day assigned to the children. It is a duty that we owe the coming generation.—Gooding Herald.

Dr. H. E. Lamb, Physician and Surgeon. Offices in the 1st Nat'l.
Bank building.

Stock Display

The exhibit of the stock at the County Fair promises to be something out of the ordinary. The stockmen of Lincoln County breed nothing but blooded stock. Fine herds are coming from as far away as Rupert and blooded cattle have been entered from Gooding and Shoshone. Mr. MacWatters will bring down his prize winning hogs from Milner. Race horses will be here from all over the County and several from Haley and Oakley.

If you are in the market for land see Shepard & Barrett, Wendell Idaho.

A reception committee has been appointed to take care of the notables of the state upon their arrival.
In addition to this every citizen of the Wendell district is expected to appoint himself or herself a committee of one to see that everyone of the ten thousand visitors are taken care of and made to feel at home.
Wendell will have an opportunity upon this occasion to make for herself a reputation of hospitality.

CONFERENCE AND STATE FAIR Salt Lake, Oct. 2-8

Reduced rates via Oregon Short Line.
Tickets on sale from all points north of Ogden except in Montana, Oct. 1st. to 7th., inclusive, limited to Oct. 15th.
From Ogden and points south, Oct. 2nd. to 8th., inclusive; limit Oct. 12th. See agents for rates and further particulars.

Street Cars For Twin Falls

The city council and the county commissioners, acting on behalf of the city and county, Thursday afternoon passed the street railway franchise applied for by I. B. Perrine and associates, with only one dissenting vote, that of Commissioner Zuck, on behalf of the county. The details of the franchise are not obtainable for this issue.

The corporation, known as the Twin Falls Street Railway company, under the franchise granted, virtually controls the street railway situation in this city for the next fifty years if it complies with the requirements of the franchise.

The city required a bond for $15,000.00 for the speedy completion of the line from the Oregon Short Line depot to Shoshone falls, stipulating that grading for the same must be done within three months from date of granting franchise.
The council and the commissioners have gone over the matter carefully and have in every way attempted to protect the taxpayers from any imposition.—Twin Falls Times.

That bee culture results very satisfactory as a dividend producer, is demonstrated by Dr. Albee of Buhl, who from 240 stands of bees has this season taken 35,000 pounds of honey.

HERE'S A HEARTY HANDSHAKE FOR THE NEW SETTLER

(Idaho Statesman)

In our search for the prospective homeseeker let us not forget the homeseeker who is here—the new settler. He has come on with his family and his world's goods, possibly a little over-enthusiastic and too expectant, to make his home in Idaho. He's a good lot, part of the country's backbone, which must always be kept stiffened. It is not an easy task for him to tackle the raw land and carve a productive farm out of it. He's an empire builder, to be sure; but it doesn't tickle his ear to be bombarded with fulsome words when the water is a trifle late or the dust unusually bothersome or the old cow kicking it's last kick, out in the back forty. He begins to feel a bit discouraged.
Luck seems to be against him. Pioneering and empire building and roughing it looked different from a distance. The picture he drew was rosy compared with his first year's siege with the stubborn children of nature out in a new land.
And he doesn't want anyone coming around telling him that he is the real thing because he is building an empire. He don't care a hang about empires. What he does care about is that 160 acres or less that he has got to lick into productiveness. And things are not coming as well as he had expected. He feels blue and is tempted to pull up stakes. It is then that he needs some one to come along and slap him on the back and take him by the hand; to point out what others have accomplished, under equally trying circumstances; to show him that the future holds more for the man who "sticks" in this country than is possible in the old settled communities back east; to tell him how the crops back there have been burning up for lack of rain, while all he has to do is to pull up the headgates and usher the water down the corrugations; that he will be farther ahead in five years, as others have, on Idaho land than he would be in a life time where he came from. That's what he wants—not philippics, but an encouraging grasp of the hand and a few facts that the temporary clouds may have observed. The new settler has a hard row to hoe for a short time; but he will soon look back upon it and laugh at his misgivings. He must "stick"; however, if he would reap the reward. He's a plucky fellow, alright, but the conditions are such at times as to try the souls of the best of them. Right now he needs a little help and encouraging word. Give it to him. Help him along. This state needs him and many more just like him, to triumph over difficulties and to win peace and contentment at a home of his own building in the declining years.

Surgeon. Offices in the 1st Nat'l.

POULTRY NOTES

Regularity in feeding should be the plan.

The hen that will not scratch is not a well one.

Nothing gives a chick a worse setback than pining for food.

Duck raisers pack 40 dressed ducklings in a barrel for shipment.

It is generally estimated that broilers shrink about a half pound when dressed.

Poultrymen make a regular practice of raising roots, cabbage and lettuce for their laying hens.

The best food for sitting hens is whole corn, with plenty of pure water, grit and charcoal.

A loafer in the hen house is not a desirable companion for good, strong, healthy, busy h is.

If there are two toms in the flock and they don't agree, shut up one day and the other the next.

The turkey hen that ranges far from the barn is likely to steal her nest a long ways from home.

Costly houses for the poultry are not essential, but they should be warm, dry and free from drafts.

Caponizing is performed when the birds are about two or three months old—before the comb develops.

Make friends of your turkeys, so far as you can, and it will aid you considerably in caring for them.
