Mr. and Mrs. Drake were not able to make the trip or they would have accompanied their son to the Washington city.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Stevens returned home the first of the week from an extended visit to Chicago and other middle-western points. They left here in November with the body of Mr. Stevens' aunt, Mrs. Mahala Churchill, to oversee its interment in Forest Grove cemetery, Chicago. They visited Mr. Stevens' daughter, Minerva, in Chicago and other relatives, and Mr. Stevens made a side trip to Grand Rapids, Mich., his former home, which he had not visited for 30 years. He noted remarkable changes and expansion of the city. They made the return trip by way of South Dakota, where they visited his two older sons.

PROPOSE MEMORIAL TO PIONEER IDAHO WOMAN

Plans have been made by the Presbyterian churches in Idaho to raise a fund of $25,000, of which $15,000 is already subscribed, for the endowment of a Bible instruction chair at the College of Idaho as a memorial to the late wife of Dr. J. H. Barton. Doctor Barton it to occupy the chair and carry on the work accomplished by Mrs. Barton during her lifetime. Mrs. Juneau H. Shinn and John S. Gourley are local representatives of the committee in charge of raising funds.

TWIN FALLS MAN ARRESTED

TWIN FALLS—Joe F. Hustler, 45, proprietor of a "doughnut shop" here, was arrested Thursday after he attempted to reach a gun when Chief of Police Herriman arrived to take him into custody, and is held a prisoner in the county jail facing prosecution on charge of attempt to commit a statutory offense involving a 14-year-old girl. Prosecuting Attorney J. W. Taylor, after an investigation Thursday evening, stated that a charge of assault probably would be preferred against Hustler.

EDITORS MEET IN POCATELLO

The Idaho State Editorial Association will hold its midwinter session at Pocatello in January 2 and 3, 1925, according to an announcement from the executive committee, headed by F. F. Swan, of the Gooding Leader, president of the organization.

The editors, it is stated, will discuss matters affecting the publishing business in Idaho, including some legislation and will also, if opportunity affords, discuss with business, educational and other interests legislation and publicity for the betterment of Idaho conditions.

The place of holding the midwinter convention was fixed at Pocatello by the convention held last winter in Boise.

MAROA NOTES

MAROA, Dec. 24.—On account of the weather conditions, it was decided at Sunday school last Sunday to dispense the idea of having a program and community tree on Christmas eve. The scholars of the Sunday school will give a program after Sunday school, Dec. 28. Any gift the teachers and scholars have to exchange, will be given out from the tree, after the program.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Walking recently adopted a two day old baby, having lost their own infant a few days before.

Mrs. L. Hostetler returned last week from six weeks visiting in several of the central states.

Many from Maroa were shopping in Twin Falls, the first of the week. J. L. White left Saturday for Virginia, to spend several weeks, visiting with relatives and friends.

Mrs. S. E. Williams and D. K. Abel were on the sick list the first of the week.

Members of the Maroa Women's club sent a box of Christmas gifts to children in the Children's Home at Boise this week.

It is reported that $35.49 was the results of the box supper, on Friday evening, Dec. 12, which will be used in purchasing new book stand and other articles for the pupils.

Miss Bess Jennings and Ralph Brown came down from Albion last week to spend the Christmas vacation at home.

"COLD IN THE HEAD"

is an acute attack of Nasal Catarrh. Those subject to frequent "colds" are generally in a "run down" condition. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE is a treatment consisting of an Ointment, to be used locally, and a Tonic, which acts quickly through the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces, building up the System and making you less liable to "colds." Sold by druggists for over 40 Years. F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O.

MERRY CHRISTMAS

THE GREETING of world kinship, the message of the fellowship of man! Christmas! Its benevolent spirit of peace and good-will, of cheer and happiness that finds its greatest joy in service to others—what a benediction it breathes on this old world of ours!

So rich in memories, so all-inclusive in its wish, truly no other greeting could so eloquently bring you a message with real heart interest than these two words—"Merry Christmas!"

This Institution Will Not Be Open on Thursday, December 25th.
