—E. B. Walker, representing the firm of Underwood & Underwood, New York, is canvassing the county with stereoscopic views, and those exhibited to us were high class and the superior of anything we have seen in that line. We understand that he sold a large order of his goods to the Nebraska State Asylum for deaf and dumb, to be used for educational purposes. He will be glad to show you his collection.

The Walkover Shoe, Best shoe made; A pair to fit you—Enough said. At Durrett's.

—While superintending the loading of a car with logs at the station here a few days since, Mr. J. W. Hillis saw the chain of the derrick break and fly out in the direction in which he was standing. Realizing his danger, his first thought was to drop behind a log, but fearing the chain would fall on him, and not knowing the tackling block was attached to the chain, his second thought was to run. Just as he started to suit the action to the thought, the twenty-pound block struck him at the base of the brain and knocked him senseless. A gash of two inches was cut to the bone, but no bones were fractured. On recovering consciousness he was able to walk to town and have the injury treated.

Shoes.—Suffice it to say we have a complete line as to styles and prices. Shoes for the baby; to make a long story short, shoes for all the family at Durrett's.

—In response to a cordial invitation from Mrs. S. Dickson on Tuesday afternoon a score or more of Miss Julia Tate's friends pounded her with many pretty and useful presents in Mrs. Dickson's reception hall. Handkerchiefs, towels, collars, center pieces and fans pelted her from all sides. After the shower ices and cakes were served most beautifully. The marriage of Miss Julia to Mr. Ellis Coolidge, of Helena, Ark., will take place at her home this evening. The handsome bride will be dressed in a dark blue traveling suit, with hat and gloves en suite. The parlor will be brightened by potted plants and vases of cut flowers. At the head of an aisle formed of white ribbon down which the couple will walk, will stand little Evelyn Tate and Quintard Joyner, holding the ribbons. Many handsome presents in cut glass, silver and linen have been received. The family of the groom presented them with a chest of fine silver. They leave on the evening train for St. Louis and later for New Orleans, where they will spend the winter.

—One of the saddest deaths we have recently been called upon to chronicle occurred at Corinth, Miss., Wednesday morning. Hugh Tate, Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Tate, of Bolivar, who was in the employ of the Alcorn Woolen Mills, at Corinth, while in the discharge of his duty arranging a cross-arm or insulator upon the top of a pole, was struck by a live wire and instantly killed. The remains were brought to Bolivar Wednesday evening. Funeral services were conducted from St. James church Thursday morning by the rector, Rev. Nevill Joyner, and the body interred in Polk cemetery in the presence of many friends. Hugh was about 19 years of age and was one of the most popular and promising young men of Bolivar, manly, honorable, courteous and polite. The family have the tenderest sympathy of our people in their great grief.

General Crop Conditions in Tennessee

Local showers in various portions of the State were very beneficial in these favored sections to late crops, such as potatoes, turnips, some very late corn and cotton and garden stuff; but the rainfall was generally very light and insufficient over the greater portion of the State. The temperature averaged slightly above the normal.

The late corn crop will be short; some correspondents say only half an average yield may be expected. The early crop is still reported an excellent one.

Cotton continues to open rapidly and probably one-half of the crop is open. It is generally stated that the crop will be a light one with a very small top crop. Cotton has suffered severely in most places from dry weather, rust and shedding.

Most of the tobacco crop is housed and the crop is generally a satisfactory one, being perhaps a little above the average yield and in quality very good.

The apple crop is a fairly good one.

In the dry districts fall crops made no progress during the week and in some places deteriorated. The week was favorable, however, for the saving of hay and much good peashay was gathered.

Fall plowing has been greatly delayed on many farms on account of the dry, hard condition of the soil.

For Sale.

1 Hat rack, 2 large show cases, 1 upright show case, Lot rubber hose, 1 moving picture machine, 8-10 gallon stone jugs, 1 carboy, 12 small heating stoves, 1 billiard table with balls, cues, counters and rack, 1 pool table with balls, cues, counters and racks, 1 large stone water cooler, 1 two horse wagon, 2 bedsteads, 1 lot mattresses, 1 lot pillows, 1 two horse plow, 1 horse plow, 1 corn planter, 1 tobacco cutter, 1 croquet set, 2 cigar cutters and lighters, 3 pictures and frames, 3 gasoline lamps, 1 farm bell, 1 lawn mower, 2 counter scales, 1 platform scales, 1 cotton scales, 1 horse mill, 3 Rochester lamps, 1 pump, 1 patent coal oil tank, 2 large ice cream freezers.

All the above will be sold very cheap.

W. J. WHEELER & SON

The Leading and the most up to date Grocers.

We devote our time exclusively to Groceries. You can't get a yard of calico, a spool of thread, a box of pills or a bottle of patent medicine in our house. But if you need any of the above named you can get them from our next door neighbors, Kahn Bros., or Dr. B. V. Hudson. We buy our goods in large quantities and pay cash for them, and by doing this we always get the very best goods just as cheap as some of our competitors get their inferior goods.

We buy our Flour, Salt, Oats, Bran, Corn and Hay in car load lots. At present we have a large stock of same, which of course enables us to sell just as cheap as the cheapest.

All of our other goods we buy in large quantities rarely ever failing to get the very best goods and at the same time get the best prices possible. At the same time we don't buy goods to keep on the shelf or under the counter. We always buy as we can sell them, and never have a lot of old shelf worn goods, spoiled or rotten goods, etc., etc. We keep nice clean fresh goods. Is that what you want?

We haven't gotten in the old rut of buying all of our goods from one city or from one firm, and just take what they give us. We always have our eyes open for good goods at good prices. We buy when goods and prices suit us regardless of the "Personal Friend" the Drummer.

It is our intention to keep the very best line of Groceries of any firm here. Our customers tell us that this is just what we are doing. There certainly must be some truth in this statement judging from the way our business has increased.

We heartily thank our friends and customers for their kindness and highly appreciated patronage. And to any who are not our customers we would be delighted for you to give us a trial.

Remember we guarantee satisfaction.
