For sale—One coal stove; comparatively new. If you are looking for a bargain apply to C. V. Hawley, Camden, Tenn.

The Centennial will close October 31. If you have not been to see it, it is time you were making arrangements to go.

The price of THE CHRONICLE has been reduced to 50 cents per year, which places it within the reach of every family in the county.

When you want fine commercial job printing, remember that THE CHRONICLE continues to make a specialty of this class of work.

Quit borrowing your neighbor's paper. THE CHRONICLE is entirely too cheap at 50 cents a year for you to impose upon the charity of your neighbor or any one else.

If you have a friend anywhere, especially if they reside in another State, we will send THE CHRONICLE a few weeks free to them if you will give us their name and address.

CASTORIA
 For Infants and Children.
 The fac-simile signature of Chas. H. Fletcher is on every wrapper.

THE CHRONICLE would like to receive a short, newsy letter every week from every post-office in the county. Something occurs almost every day in every community, that would be of interest to many if not all our readers, and there is some one who can give us these items. Send them to us, no matter whether you are in the habit of writing for a paper or not. We will arrange them for publication.
