FRIDAY, DECEMBER 16, 1893.

AN IMPORTANT EVENT.

The convention of the Tennessee Industrial League, which will be held in Nashville January 18, 1899, will be in reality a convention of all industrial interests, as the effort now is to unite all members, friends of the league and representatives of every interest in the State in the work for beneficial legislation.

Every city, town and community is invited to send delegates; every county will be asked to appoint men to represent it; every business, commercial and industrial organization; every manufacturer's interest will be awakened, and every organization of the farmers will be especially urged to attend.

A fine program is being arranged, and the Secretary of Agriculture, Hon. James Wilson, is down for an address. Mr. Wilson made many hundreds of friends when he visited the State with the Presidential party during the exposition, and will receive a warm welcome.

Many well known Tennesseans will participate, and every paper will be one worth preservation. The State fair, the tax laws, the road laws, fire insurance and other timely and interesting topics will be entertainingly discussed.

THE LOBBY MUST GO.

THE CHRONICLE is opposed to the lobbyist in every form, and we can heartily endorse the following editorial opinion of the Carroll County Democrat:

"In the recent election the people testified to their confidence in Tennessee Democracy by giving the Democratic ticket a big majority and electing an overwhelming Democratic legislature. The fight was made upon a reform idea all along the line. It was believed that McMillin would use his influence in carrying out the promises of the Democratic platform, and that the legislature would work in harmony with him by insuring honest legislation—a most vital aid in the proper administration of State affairs.

"It is incumbent upon Mr. McMillin and the legislature to manifest their appreciation of this confidence bestowed upon them by giving the State such an administration and laws as the people need. While we believe they will endeavor to do this, yet they will find many obstacles in the way.

"One of the most dangerous obstacles to wholesome and honest legislation is the lobbyist. The legislature should crush the lobbyist the first thing it does and place itself clear out of his reach. This may be a little hard to do, but it is what ought to be done, and what can be done, if the legislature is composed of honest men.

"It is claimed that powerful lobbyist are already organizing for 'business,' and will be on hand when the legislature meets. The lobbyist and his confederate, the corrupt legislator, are very dangerous to all interests. The lobbyist proposes a bill injurious to certain interests; the corrupt legislator introduces it, and the interest affected is bled for money to prevent its passage.

"The best way to head off the lobbyist is to appoint on important committees alert and honest men, who will readily detect efforts at corrupt legislation and sidetrack them in their incipency. Let this be as it may, the Democratic party expects the next legislature to crush the lobby."

GOVERNOR-ELECT McMILLIN has positively declined to permit the use of his name in connection with the Senatorship.

HON. WILLIAM J. BRYAN, who is again a private citizen, has uttered a significant warning to the country.

FROM MIDDLEBROOK.

Regular correspondence.]

J. H. Minnery accidentally cut his foot a few days ago, almost severing one toe.

W. C. Thompson is moving to the James Cowell place, which he recently purchased.

A number of our citizens are engaged in transferring pork from the pen to the "smoke" house.

A song service was held at the home of George Barker Sunday evening. Also at Greene Jordan's.

J. H. Spencer and J. H. Rhininger have returned from McKenzie. The former was so delighted with the country that he left his gun 2 miles north of there.

MIDDLEBROOK, December 13.

FROM WAY.

Special correspondence.]

B. L. Gardner went to Waverly yesterday.

B. F. Davidson has gone to Camden to-day.

Uncle Davy Pafford, who is confined to his room, is no better.

Walter Lewis has moved to the Hartley place on Harmons Creek.

The funeral of Leander Pafford here Sunday was largely attended. The deceased leaves many friends and relatives who deeply sympathize with the bereaved family.

Rev. W. A. Watts preached at Flatwoods Sunday forenoon and at Cedar Hill in the afternoon. We gave him a cordial welcome in our midst, and hope to be benefited by him being with us.

A sad and fatal accident occurred at the home of P. H. Holland Saturday night. Uncle John Hughes, who resides with Mr. Holland, got up in the night about 2 o'clock and by some manner not known to the family his clothing caught fire, and before any one heard him he was burned so badly that death ended his suffering about daybreak. One strange thing about this is he had said that he would not live to see this snow all gone.

WAY, December 13.

FROM SMITH'S COLLEGE.

Regular correspondence.]

And we had another snow last Sunday.

W. W. Deaton is still in very feeble health.

John Woods moved to this community Sunday.

Rev. Mr. Bushardt preached to a large audience here Sunday.

The stove factory at Wyly has closed for awhile on account of bad weather.

W. H. Hall moved home this week. We are of the opinion he will not "batch" it long from present indications.

While the brethren are perfectly welcome to worship at the college, we would be surprised to see them bring cuspidors or leave their "twist" at home.

Yes the war is over, but Jingo Jigs is apparently playing the part of a political Ajax. He seemingly thinks the reading public can not recall what has been said from one week to another. We were a little astonished to know that the Liberty correspondent is the only one with little enough sense to make the assertion that we have changed our opinion on the school and road laws. He is in error when he intimates that we consider that the laws are wrong. The facts are we have repeatedly referred to those laws as being good enough, but the trouble occurs in the application of them. However, it seems to suit his hypocritical purpose to prevaricate in the matter. It seems that he is trying to instigate a crusade against law and order by insisting on district officers to not regard their oath or their duties in a moral sense. We can only say that the voters of the fifth district evidenced discretion and wisdom in nipping his political aspirations in the bud when he sought the office of magistrate. Perhaps if he should seek the office of dog pelter they would give him an opportunity to display his ability to fill the office. All schools have their sore heads, and, as usual, the trouble at the college occurred before the opening of the school. Our road officials are too high-minded to think of asking any one to apologize for repeating facts. We know of roads that have not received more than two or three days work this year. No doubt if the aforesaid correspondent knew the overseer he would congratulate him. Well, we were not surprised when he denied buying a farm. If our funds came through the same source we would naturally feel a delicacy in admitting the fact. As a friend we would admonish him as a christian gentleman to cease making assertions and insinuations through the press that have no foundation in fact. If he could only see himself as others see him, he would crawl in his hole and pull the hole in after him.

Special Bargain for Newspaper Readers.

The Semi-Weekly Republic

AND... The Camden Chronicle

BOTH ONE YEAR FOR $1.00

The Semi-Weekly Republic is so well known that about all that is necessary to secure a subscription is to call attention to it. It is the best general newspaper of its class published, and it has a larger circulation than any other news weekly or semi-weekly. It has a command not only of all the great sources of news from the daily and Sunday Republic, but also receives the special service of the New York Herald and New York Journal. The Telegraph and cable service of the Republic and the papers mentioned have never been equaled in the history of journalism in this or any other country.

It has so many advantages as a news gatherer, that no other paper can claim to be its equal. The whole field of news is covered thoroughly. The special features and illustrations are always the best. More noted writers contribute to its columns than to any other paper of its class. It is not only a source of news, but a source of information, and a source of pleasure. It is a paper that can not afford to read a daily paper.

It is the leading Democratic paper of the Mississippi Valley. By a special arrangement made for a limited time only, our friends will be given an opportunity to take advantage of this liberal proposition. Remember the offer, the Semi-Weekly Republic, 16 pages a week, and THE CAMDEN CHRONICLE, 4 pages a week, both one year for only $1.00. Address,
