FRIDAY, JUNE 2, 1899.

Yes, by all means, give us a few law.

MEASLES or just any old thing is pronounced smallpox these days.

THE Memphis Commercial Appeal is owned by a lot of "Yaller-hammer" Democrats, but the editor can not suppress his admiration for Col. William J. Bryan.—Lexington Progress.

DEMOCRACY proposes to throttle the trusts barehanded. The gauntlet was thrown down to them at the big national rally at St. Louis last week. Its a fight to the death on the combines.

If the people wait for the Republican party to espouse their cause against the trusts, it will be like waiting for Kingdom Come—with the trusts sure to possess the kingdom when it does come.—St. Louis Republic.

THE announcement that Senator Turley will not be a candidate for re-election will hardly complicate matters, but there will be plenty of speculation as to who will succeed Governor McMillin, who is the logical successor of Senator Turley.

EVERY loyal Tennessean is proud of the fact that her gifted son, Jim Richardson, has been mentioned in connection with the Democratic nomination for President. He is big enough for the position, but he doubtless recognizes the fact that Bryan is the man of the hour, and that he can afford to wait until a more opportune time.

HON. J. M. HEAD, of Nashville, attended the Democratic conference of national committeemen at St. Louis last week, where he met and heard leading Democrats from all parts of the country. He says the Chicago platform is likely to be reaffirmed with some additions to meet existing conditions, and he thinks the sentiment is strongly in favor of William J. Bryan as the next nominee for President.

EX-GOVERNOR TAYLOR says he will not be tempted to again enter the arena of politics. Well, "Our Bob" has gone out of politics several times, but he has never failed to respond when the party called him. He may be wise in remaining firm to his present resolve, however, for he is making money on the lecture platform, which is more than he could say when he was in politics. But will the people take him at his word?

HON. T. W. SIMS' friends proudly refer to him as "Speaker Sims." A few days before Congress adjourned, Speaker Reed called him to the chair temporarily, and the whole House held its breath. Mr. Sims is the only Democrat who has occupied the Speaker's chair during the last session of the Fifty-fifth Congress, and Speaker Reed's action is justly looked upon as a high honor to the able Tennessean, and a particular tribute to his worth and ability. It may be Speaker Sims in earnest some day. He is big enough for the job.—The As-sayer.

FROM BRISTOW.

Regular correspondence.]

Granny Sparks visited friends in Srougetown last week.

Misses E. Helms and Georgin Sparks visited at Liberty Sunday.

We have just had a light shower of rain, and the boys are hustling for tobacco plants. The prospects are good for a large tobacco crop this year.

A large crowd gathered at Rushing's Creek Cemetery last Friday and cleaned off the grounds. On Wednesday the grounds of Bristow Cemetery were treated in the same manner.

Bristow is forging to the front. A new grocery has been opened on Reynoldsburgh street, and a new dry goods store on Camden street. We are glad to have such men aid in building up our town.

The cold and icy winter is a thing of the past, spring has come, beautiful flowers please the eye, and the farmer boys have gone forth to sow and to reap, but we look to God for the increase, and the prospects are good for a bountiful yield of corn, wheat and other products.

Sunday evening the 6-year-old son of G. R. Weatherly was kicked in the face by a mule, breaking the superior maxillary bone, knocked out several teeth, and splitting the right side of the face from the corner of the mouth to the ear, cutting through to inside of mouth. It was painful to look at the unfortunate little fellow before his wounds were dressed. He is doing very well, and we hope he will recover.

BRISTOW, May 31.

FROM SMITH'S COLLEGE.

Special correspondence.]

Charley Bane will teach school at this place this fall.

Mrs. Martha Herrin is visiting relatives in Kentucky.

Rev. L. C. Deshazo will preach at The Hill next Sunday at 3 p. m.

We are having a fine rain, and a great many tobacco plants will be set this week.

About twenty teams are engaged in hauling staves from the yard at Wyly to Big Sandy.

Wheat will average little more than a half crop in this locality. Other crops look very well.

The contract was let a few days ago to repair the turnpike near Wyly, which is badly needed.

Rev. Mr. Bushart will preach at Prospect the second Sunday in each month, instead of here as formerly.

Mrs. W. H. Hicks was called to Gleason Tuesday to see her uncle, A. J. Greer, who is dangerously ill.

SMITH'S COLLEGE, May 30.

FROM LIBERTY.

Regular correspondence.]

Noah Davidson, of Claud, visited here Sunday.

Stellar Hargis has been sick, but is some better.

Sunday school and singing Sunday was well attended.

George Herrin will preach here next Sunday at 3 p. m.

R. I. Hargis and some of his boys were at Paris Saturday.

A good rain has fallen, and tobacco is being transplanted.

A. N. Presson will open a singing school here June 10, teaching four Saturdays and Sundays.

One of our reliable farmers informs us that he plowed ten days with a two-horse plow on one land before he could see his plowing on the opposite side. While we are willing to vouch for the truthfulness of the statement, we are not informed as to how much the gentleman has in cultivation.

A few words as to the sad death of Miss Mattie Bush recently will not be out of place here. She was a member of the Methodist Church at Flatwoods, and possessed a happy, cheerful disposition; she bore her long suffering with patience and christian fortitude, and a few days before her death, while her friends were engaged in song and praise with her, she expressed her willingness to exchange worlds, and what a change from pain and suffering to peace and joy! She has gone to meet her mother who died of the same disease sixteen months ago, and the bereaved ones have the sympathy of hosts of friends and the sustaining grace of God.

LIBERTY, May 31.

Wanted—25,000 ties; will pay top prices; ties will be received at all points on Tennessee River. E. E. Thompson, Cooley's Landing, Tenn.

Have you seen those handsome wall pictures at J. G. Presson's drug store? They are the very latest thing in art, and the prices are remarkably low.

Mrs. Tennie Williams and son, Harrison, and Miss Hastings, of Manlyville, visited here this week.

The teachers' institute will be held at Camden June 26 to 30. See announcement in another column.

See notice of John R. Walker, referee in bankruptcy, in another column.

A handsomely lithographed tin box—not a paper wrapper—contains Dr. Granger's Liver Regulator, and this perfect medicine can be kept at natural strength in any climate, for any length of time. Sold by druggists.

TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.

Program for the teachers' association to be held at Big Sandy June 17, 1899: Song. Invocation, Rev. W. A. Watts; welcome address, J. T. Hill; response, W. D. Cooper.

"What is Necessary on the Part of the Teacher to Obtain the Greatest Benefit from the Teachers' Association?"—John Brumager, D. G. Curd.

"How to Organize a District Teachers' Library."—T. W. Cuff, W. D. Cooper.

CARD OF THANKS.

As the attorney in fact of Mrs. Louise J. Leland, widow of Rev. L. J. Leland, the deceased chaplain of the First Tennessee Regiment Volunteers, I beg leave to tender her sincere thanks for the very prompt payment of the insurance on her husband's life, amounting to the sum of $2,000. I beg further to state that the indebtedness of Rev. L. J. Leland, due and owing in Tennessee, are (under the power of attorney made to me by Mrs. Leland) paid and settled up. Said power of attorney is duly registered in the register's office of Benton County.

I further beg leave to say that any statement contrary to the above facts is utterly false and intended only to damage the memory of Sovereign Leland, or his widow, or the order of W. O. W.

Very respectfully,
J. G. ROBINSON,
Attorney in fact for Mrs. L. J. Leland.

Thanks.
To our friends and neighbors who have watched with us at the bedside of children through the long weary hours of night, when the angels of life and death were fighting fierce battles over loved ones; to those who sat with us in the gloom of the black night of death; to the physicians who have exerted all that human skill and ability could do—indeed, through the columns of your paper, to tender the profound thanks of a grateful father and mother, assuring them all that every act of kindness shall never be forgotten by
Yours respectfully,
J. H. KEE,
MARY KEE.
