MODERN WOODMEN GIVE SUPPER IN HALL

The officers and members of Appalachian Camp No. 13811, Modern Woodmen of America, entertained last night at their hall on Main street, with a supper which was attended by a number of friends of the fraternity. The affair was given for the purpose of welcoming Neighbor Robert Anderson, who, for two years, has been absent from the councils of the Camp, and of bidding farewell to Adviser Bridges, who is soon to make his home in another city.

Among those who were the guests of the Modern Woodmen were: Messrs M. A. Roadman, Will Anderson, Lewis Schultz, Forrest Stokley, Will Allen, Jack Hixon, Charles Frazier, and Dennis Holdway, the last of Bybee.

The supper was preceded by a brief business session.

RUSHING WORK ON T. & N. C.

About Three Hundred Men Are Now Employed In Grading the Extension to Canton.

Work on the extension of the T. & N. C. Railroad to Canton is being rushed along in every possible way. Seventy-four new men for the construction work arrived here Monday evening and Tuesday morning. A special train was run both Monday evening and Tuesday morning to convey these men over the T. & N. C. to the camps along the route. Sixteen steam drills are now being used.

Monday this road received a new 60-ton freight engine to be used in the freight service and ten new box cars are now on the road and are expected to reach here within the next few days.

NEWPORT IN DARKNESS

Big Dam of the Newport Mill Company Partially Washed Away Tuesday Night. Temporary Dam Will be Built As Soon as Material Can be Placed on the Ground. The Entire Flour Mill and Light Plant Put Out of Commission. Hope to Again Have the Plant in Operation as Soon as Possible.

The Newport Mill Co., and the electric light plant which is also owned by the Mill Company, suffered a severe loss Tuesday night between 8:30 o'clock and 3 o'clock Wednesday morning, when the large dam across the Pigeon river was partially washed away. The river had risen considerably during Tuesday afternoon and night, caused by the heavy rains in the mountains, but it is not thought the high water was directly responsible for the damage, as it had only recently been discovered that weak places existed in parts of the dam and repairs were under way.

The mill will possibly be closed for thirty or sixty days, or until necessary repairs can be made, at least to put the electric light plant in operation.

Mr. Sparks, manager of the mill, stated Wednesday morning that everything possible would be done to put the machinery in operation as quickly as material and labor can be secured.

The loss of the dam is estimated at $5,000, and it will probably take several thousand dollars more to replace it.

EAST TENNESSEE IS WIDE AWAKE

most part. Recently autoists made a trip from Knoxville to Bristol and return, going to the border city by one route and returning another. Going, the trip was made through Dandridge, Newport and Bluff City, and the return was accomplished via Blountville, Rogersville, Jefferson City and New Market. The autoists made the following report on conditions:—

Knoxville to Straw Plains worn out pike road, the worst of the entire route; Straw Plains to Piedmont, Dandridge and Oak Grove, good pike; Oak Grove to Newport, good pike and graded road; Newport to Parrottsville, pike; Parrottsville, Greeneville, Jonesboro to Johnson City, graded road; Johnson City to Bluff City, poor dirt road; Bluff City to Bristol, pike. The return trip was as follows: Bristol to Blountville, pike; Blountville to Kingsport, pike and graded road; Kingsport to Rogersville to Red Bridge ferry, across the Holston river, good graded road; from the ferry to Russellville, Morristown, Jefferson, City and New Market all piked.

"OLD BEESWAX" WANTS GOOD ROADS

Costoer People Feel They are Being Neglected In the Way of Improved Highways.

Cotner, Tenn., Oct. 18.—Everything is moving along very smoothly in this section. Sorghum making and chestnut gathering is the main industries at present.

The two champions met last Thursday, Allen Ramsey and John Williams, and it is reported that Ramsey knocked Williams out in the second round, but Williams' friends say it is not correct, so it may be to try over again.

Our horse trader, Alex Cole, says he can do better business swapping cows than horses. He has made several swaps in the last few days.

I have not heard from our representative since the flag raising. Don't know whether he eat too much or not. One thing that he did do, was to make four excellent speeches as well as Prof. Moore.

Oth Maddron who has been teaching at McMullin, has resigned and accepted a position in the Newport postoffice, as clerk.

Our people would favor road bonds if he money was coming in our direction. I hope the commissioners will remember about fifty families and a five-mile stretch of road for us, who are helping to pay these taxes. We feel badly neglected in this corner, besides I want to show the benefit to the county. If the roads was graded on from John Proffit's store on Cosby to the county line at L. A. Fowler's store, it would open up a trade from Sevier county, several miles, that Cooke county can't get without an extension of the grade. It would help the T. & N. C. Railroad, also the Tannery and Extract plants, which are all good taxpayers, besides it would accommodate many citizens, both in Cooke and Sevier counties. Sevier county has reasonably good roads to the line, because it will furnish tools, dynamite, etc., to build their roads, and we can't get either, consequently our roads are bad. We hope these things will be considered.

Mr. John Williams and Miss Lou McCarter were married yesterday. We wish them a happy life.

Mr. Stephen Webb will fill the unexpired term of Oth Maddron as teacher at the McMullin school.

We had hoped our little district girl would win first prize, but somebody had to lose out.—"OLD BEESWAX."

ONE man brushes his hat and another doesn't. That's because one thinks more of himself than the other. People notice. The public takes a man largely at his own valuation.

When a man thinks enough of himself to wear stylish clothes; to wear fine all-wool fabrics; to wear unmistakably hand-tailored garments—he is appraised accordingly.

People say: "He's all right!" "He's a good man!" "A top-notch!" "A live wire!" And so on. That sort of thing is a mighty fine asset for any man.

For men who consider themselves good enough to dress well, we have Kirschbaum's (Cherry Tree Brand) Clothes.
