U. C. V. Reunion

Chattanooga, Tenn., May 27-29 Round Trip from Newport $3.75

Southern Railway

Premier Carrier of the South

Tickets will be sold May 24, 25, 26, 27, 28 and for trains scheduled to arrive Chattanooga before noon May 29, with final limit to return June 5th, 1913. By depositing tickets at Chattanooga and paying fee of 50c tickets may be extended to June 25, 1913. For further information cail on any may be extended to June 18.

Agent Southern Railway or write

G. M. ELLIS, Div. Pass. Agt.

Knoxville, Tenn.

The Merchants & Grifficates of Deposit

Retaliating on the Baby.

"Johnny, did you make the baby cry?" "Yes, I did. I asked him sumfin, an' he wouldn't say 'Yes, sir,' so I gave him a lesson in politeness, just like you give me. I slapped him."-Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Self-Confidence. believe in a few other things, Church Rushed to Completion.

A time record in church building was established recently at Bankstown, New South Wales, Australia, when the edifice was built in ten

After a Bad Dinner.

No man can get far without believ. Bible says is here today and gone toing in himsel"; but he should also be morrow?" Papa-"Probably the cook, my son."

Dr. Fahrney's Teething Syrup

Relieves the pains and cures the ailments that make babies cry and fret and grow sick and weak; chacks Diarrhoea; prevents Convulsions; cures Sour Stomach, Colic, Cramps and all Stomach and Bowel Ailments of babies. Safest, purest and best medicine for babies. 25 cents at drug stores. Trial bottle FREE by mail of Drs. D. Fahrney & Son, Hagerstown, Md., if you mention this paper.

KEEPS BABY FROM CRYING.

FOR SALE 6 Fine Work Mules

I am offering for sale at once three pairs of fine work mules, fully broken.

See me at once if interested.

Cash or Bankable Notes

ED. C. BURNETT

Newport, Tennessee

NOVELS WITHOUT ENDINGS.

Six Famous Stories to Which Death Wrote the Word "Finis."

els in the English language which have only a beginning. Like the grandfather's clock, "they stop short never to go again," because the author, when he had got so far, laid down his pen and died before he could take it up again.

The most famous of these is, of course, "The Mystery of Edwin Drood," which some critics think would have been Dickens' masterpiece had he lived to finish it. But lessly, "I've got to have $20! It's a brain that conceived it carried to that twenty, will you?" the grave the solution of the mystery, and a mystery it remains to this day, in spite of countless efforts to solve it.

Robert Louis Stevenson also left an unfinished novel upon which he was engaged when death ended his labors. The novel was entitled "St. Ives," but happily there was more to go upon than in the case of "Edwin Drood," and it is generally admitted that Sir Quiller-Couch made one of the best attempts on record to finish another man's novel. He proved quite the ideal man for the Dickens left a novel unfinished, few mine, a press agent whom I knew well know that his great rival, Thack- in Mobile, died some time before 2 eray, did the same thing. The novelist had just started the Cornhill Magazine, of which the most prominent feature was a novel from the editor's pen entitled "Denis Duval," Suddenly he died, and the serial shivering against a building trying to was but half finished. Happily, how-avoid the freezing blasts. ever, the careful Thackeray had left full notes for the development of the story, which was finished by Frederick Greenwood.

Who has not read "Pride and Prejudice" and "Sense and Sensibility," the productions of a quiet, consumptive little woman named yelled: Jane Austen? The white scourge carried her off when she was in the midst of another masterpiece, en- Chronicle-Telegraph. titled "The Watsons," which was found in her desk after her death.

What the world lost when Charlotte Bronte died, after a brief year of married life, who can say? It certainly missed a nameless novel which the gifted author of "Jane Eyre" had started. But so little had she done of it that none of her successors in fiction has had the temerity to attempt even to finish it, teresting fragment.

In this respect it may be compared to another unfinished work, Ed-Narrative of Arthur Gordon Pvm." Who could finish that story? It is doubtful whether Poe himself could, for he lived eleven years after it was first published in its fragmentary condition. - Philadelphia Ledger.

Luck In Disguiss.

"Don't tell me after this," said Mrs. Medford as she put her paper aside, "that there's nothing in luck." "Who's been baving luck now?" her husband asked.

"The Caldwells. Burglars broke into their house last night."

"Oh! I thought from the way you spoke somebody had been having a streak of good luck."

"It was good luck. It gave Mrs. Caldwell a chance to tell the reporter that more than $500 worth of silver was taken. They never had $50 worth of silver in their Cirl to Get That Amount For Rising lives."-Chicago Record-Herald.

Troubles of an Amateur.

"I thought you had gone to raising bees," said the man from the city. "I don't see any sign of them around here."

"I had half a dozen colonies of library on bee raising, but they marriage proposals. swarmed one day, and while I was looking through my books to find out what was the proper thing to do daughter of the late millionaire perwhen bees swarmed the blamed things flew away, and I've never seen 'em since."-Chicago Tribune.

Men Are Not Vain.

They were talking of the vanity of women and one of the few ladies present undertook a defense. "Of course," she said, "I admit that women are vain and men are not.

around, "the necktie of the handsomest man in the room is even now up the back of his collar." And then she smiled, for every man There are about six famous nov- present had put his hand up behind his neck!

A Sad Misfortune.

Jake Tannenbaum, who owns a big theater in Mobile, goes to New York two or three times a year and there meets a lot of his freinds. One morning, before he had left his hotel for a stroll on Broadway, a press agent who had met him in Mobile rushed in and enginéered a swift touch. "Mr. Tannenbaum," he said breaththere it stands, unfinished, and the matter of life and death. Lend me

"That's all very well," replied Tan nenbaum, "but when do I get it back?" "I'll give it back to you at 2 o'clock this afternoon," the press agent reassured him. "But will you?" "Mr Tannenbaum, I'll give it to you at that time if I'm alive." The theater owner handed out the

At 2:80 that afternoon Jake walked down Broadway, displaying on his coat sleeve a tremendous band of crape. There were tears in his eyes, and if Niobe had been living he would have made her grief look like a fit of laughing hysterics.

"It's a sad thing." he lamented. "I'm While everybody knows that all broken up. A young friend of o'clock this afternoon."-Popular Magazine.

He Knew Better.

It was a bitter cold day, the snow was deep and the sidewalks frozen which he was writing month by hard. A colored man, bundled up in month as the installment fell due, a moth eaten chinchilla coat, stood

Just then another darky, dressed in thin, threadbare clothes and with no overcoat, came out of a nearby barber shop and started up the street, whistling cheerily. Still whistling, he passed and glanced up at the darky in the big chinchilla cont. The latter took one withering look at the passerby and

"Say, niggah, you can whistle as loud as you please, but you can't make me believe it ain't cold."-Pittsburgh

Early British Money.

Small change was more common in Saxon days than at later periods in English history, for, while the Normans coined nothing but silver, the earlier Saxons were accustomed number of things-not always metbeen made is surprising. Julius to him. Regretfully he replied that and it is likely ever to remain an in- Caesar is said to have coined leather he had not been able to afford to money in Britain. James II. tried go, much as he desired. Jenny Lind pewter and gun metal, and some then asked him to play the accomantiquaries have thought that pieces | paniment of the song she held in term for money, as is the French braise (live coal) at the present day.

The Typewriter.

Inventors were at work over fifty years ago endeavoring to make a typewriter that could answer the purposes for which the machines are now used, but it was not until 1873 that the device was so improved as to be made practicable. There were many machines constructed for mechanical writing which were in the main similar in principle to those in present use-that is, in the use of keys for manipulating movable type, but the difficulty was in getting the machines to work satisfactorily.

$3,000,000 FOR A FAMILY.

Children.

Lowell, Mass.-Wedding bells, it is said, will soon ring for Miss Mary Belle Shedd of Lowell, the most talked of young woman in Middlesex county. court Miss Shedd will lose about $3. Drug Store,-Adv. 000,000 unless she marries and has the finest bees I could get," answer- children. When this became known ed the suburbanite, "and a whole the young woman was deluged with

The offers of marriage continue to arrive, but it is rumored that the fume manufacturer, Freeman B. Shedd of Lowell, made her choice some time ago. This will save overburdened let ter carriers.

A Good Combination.

Pigs and peanuts make a good com bination. Get the Spanish peanut and any breed of pigs you like, plant and cultivate the peanuts until they are ripe, then turn in the pigs. This makes the best automatic pork making ma-Why," she added, with a glance chine yet discovered -Kansas Farmer. YOUR STATE OF MIND.

It Has a Whole Lot to Do With Your Position In Life.

The mental attitude determines the tendency of the life. According to this law, there is everything in feeling rich, rich in everything that is good for us, everything that will help us to become what we intend to become.

Many people have so long felt poor and imagined that their lives must necessarily be dry and barren of comforts and luxuries which others enjoy that they have encouraged such conditions. The habit of feeling that you are poor and unfortunate; that the good things of life are for others, but not for you; that there is something in the universe which permits such conditions, is deadening to all the noble impulses, deadening to all that makes character, all that makes life beautiful.

The way to make the ideal the real is persistently to hold the thought of their identity. The way to demonstrate abundance is to hold it constantly in the mind, frequent ly to say to yourself, "All that my Father hath is mine." "The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want." If all this is true (and you know that it is) any want or lack in your life is abnormal.

If you would use the same effort and energy to see prosperity and you would not long be poor. You Gregg and Alexander Gregg, defendsomehow the whole human race has the heirs, devisees and representasuch a horror of poverty that they tives of Joseph Gregg, deceased, and concentrate upon it and attract it. who are defendants to the bill, are unpectancy of success, because a fail- office in Newport, and make detence ure atmosphere creates a negative, to the bill filed against them by Jerry unproducing mentality, while a LaFollette and Wife, or otherwise the hopeful, expectant assurance, confi- bill will be taken for confessed. dence, creates a productive mentality which does things, achieves .-Orison Swett Marden in Nautilus.

A Story of Jenny Lind.

When Jenny Lind visited Edinburgh in 1865 she went into a music seller's in Princess street to buy some songs. The young man who to the use of brass in addition. The the great Jenny Lind. The answer dock Blood Bitters made me a well als-of which British coins have stranger then put the same question Conn .- Adv. of coal were once used as money. her hand. Unconscious of every-At any rate, coal was once a slang thing except the rich notes which poured from the singer's throat, the young man played on. When the song was finished the great singer remarked. "Now you have heard Jenny Lind!" and left the shop without waiting for any thanks.

Her Recitation.

"Put some spirit into it, child," shouted the father, who is an actor. "Make some gestures. What is she reciting, anyhow?" he demanded of his wife. "She won't need any gestures with this," retorted the latter. "She is reciting the multiplication table." -New York American.

Rheumatism Relieved In a Few Hours N. B. Langley, Madison, Wis., says:

I was almost helpless with rheumatism for about tive months. Had it in my neck so I could not turn my head. and all through my body. I tried three doctors and many remedies without any relief whatever until I procured Dr. Detchon's Relief for Rheu-MATISM. In a few hours the pain was relieved and in three days the rhoums-Under the terms of one of the strang-est wills ever filed in a New England at work." Sold by Smith's Corner

If your sight is blurred. If you cannot read with comfort,

You need Glasses.

We will make a scientific examination of your eyes supply you with right fitting glasses at moderate prices.

Up to date Optical Department Graduate Optometrists

H.J. Cook Co.

409 Gay Street, Knoxvitle, Tenn.

Order of Publication

JERRY LAFOLLETTE AND WIFE

WM. GREGG ET ALS.

In the County Court, Cocke County,

In this cause, it appearing by affito picture plenty as you do poverty, davit, that Franklin Gregg, Andrew would very soon get away from ants, are non-residents of the State. these distressing conditions. But and that the names and residences of The man who thinks he is going to known and cannot be ascertained on be unlucky in everything he at- diligent inquiry, they are, therefore, tempts is infinitely more likely to hereby required to appear on or bebe so than the man who is filled fore the first Monday in June next, bewith confidence, assurance and ex- fore the Clerk of said Court, at his

> It is further ordered that this notice be published for tour consecutive weeks in The Newport Plain Talk. This 8d day of May, 1818.

JOHN HOLT, Clerk W. J. and W. D. McSween, Attys. Soir, for Compits.

"Generally debilitated for years. served her, not knowing who stood Had sick headache, lacked ambition. before him, asked if she had heard was worn out and all run down. Burwas in the affirmative, and the women."-Mrs. Chas. Freitoy, Moosup

Jessie Bryant Dead

Jessie, daughter of James Bryant, parents on Jones Hiti, Monday at noon, death being due to an absess. She was sick for three week. Interment was made Tuesday in the Morris grave-

Whipple Dividend Contributors to the fund to send

Bobbie Whipple to Knoxville for treatment, can recevie a dividend if they will call upon G. F. Smith. The mother of the boy refused to permit the spending of the money on him after he had been taken to Knoxville, so here is about two-thirds of the fund's unexpended. The same will be returned to the proper parties.

J. H. LaRue, delegate, and Ike Stuart, alternate, representating Omaha Tribe No. 53, Improved Order of Red Men, have returned from Nashville, where they attend the meeting of the State Council of the Reservation of Tennessee. Both brothers report a magnificent time, having been highly entertained by the big guns while in the capital city. Brother Stuart wanted to stay longer and see the legislature in action, but as Brother LaRue was afraid he would to get lost, he advised him to "come on back" with him.

DUNCAN & GREER, Newport, Tenn.

Newport Produce Co. Warehouse New Concrete Block Building Plain Talk Building, with lease 5 Houses near cannery Gorrell Farm, 200 acres Gorman Farm, 40 acres 2 Houses, Church street 1 House, Main street 1 House, Jones Hill

2 Houses, Jaybird 1 Lot Woodlawn, between Church and Main 75 Lots in Eastport 5 Lots in Jaybird 3 Lots. Jones Hill 50 Lots near Lindsey's Mill Easy payments on houses Lots $20 down and $1 weekly. Call and let us show you.

D.G. Allen

Newport, Tenn.

Houses for Rent