All the American troops except the legation guard left China last week.

The Alabama Constitutional Convention has pledged itself to submit the new constitution to a vote of the people.

We notice where 4,228 cases of small pox had been reported in Tennessee in the past four months with 98 deaths.

The old Confederate soldier was royally entertained at Memphis this week. No city has ever shown them more hospitality.

A West Tennessee editor claims that a thief stole a bag of oats and a good weeding hoe from him. Varily, only those who have can lose.

The floods in East Tennessee last week were awful. Whole farms were ruined. Many lives were lost and the loss to property cannot be estimated.

The teachers of Tennessee will hold a meeting at Monteagle in July. An excursion will be made from there to Buffalo, after the meeting closes, leaving Monteagle July 29.

It is believed that hazing at West Point is a thing of the past. Four students were dismissed last week for unbecoming conduct. Boys who go there to administer Tabasco sauce toothers must find another job.

A special from Jamestown, says an oil gusher has been tapped near the Kentucky line, about twenty miles north of Jamestown. The oil flows out under great pressure. It is the second rapid flowing oil well recently located in that section.

Senators Tillman and McLaurin of South Carolina have both resigned their seats in the United States Senate, and will go before the people of the State in a primary to settle which the Legislature shall elect. They have had a little dispute on political questions and want the people to say which is right.

The storm that struck this town Friday afternoon of last week did only slight damage here, but we note that it did much damage to Ripley, Trenton and other places in West Tennessee. A few trees were blown down, some beheaded and some of the telephone wires broken at Savannah.

The United States Supreme Court handed down a decision Monday which fixes the political status of our insular possessions. The case referred to Porto Rico, but applies to all our insular possessions. In brief, the court affirms the right of the United States to hold and govern territory, through Congress, outside of the constitutional limitations which apply to the States.

The Road Law

A case of some interest was tried before Esqs. Richie and Hardin Saturday, involving the right of road overseers to cut ditches along side of public roads and across private roads.

Tom Foust and Sid Phillips, who have the contract for maintaining the roads in the old seventeenth, cut a ditch across the private road of Jeff Ross where it enters the public road near Ross church, that it was claimed obstructed the entrance into the public road. The court gave judgment for $20.00 forfeit and bound defendants over to Circuit court.

If people only knew what we know about Kodol Dyspepsia Cure it would be used in nearly every household, as there are few people who do not suffer from a feeling of fullness after eating, belching flatulence, sour stomach or water-brash, caused by indigestion or dyspepsia. A preparation such as Kodol Dyspepsia Cure which, with no aid from the stomach, will digest your food, certainly can't but do you good.

Old Soldier's Experience

If there were no lies there would be no gossip.

Suffered For Three Years

Mr. G. W. Britnell, Leesdale, Alabama, writes: For the past three years I have been subject to constipation and biliousness and have found no permanent relief until I tried Ramon's Liver Pills and Tonic Pellets. I pronounce them the best remedy on earth for the ailments for which they are recommended. One of our customers use them with very beneficial effects, and said they were unquestionably the best remedy known. J. K. Barlow.

Sounds at Sea.

An instrument for detecting sounds at sea was invented by Dr. Joseph Schmitt of the Island of Anticosti. They hear much of wrecks on Anticosti, and the question of saving life at sea is a paramount one. Anticosti is ice bound five months in the year, and Dr. Schmitt during one of these periods of enforced retirement from the world, set about inventing a sound indicator; building it with his own hands from such material as he could find on the island. It consisted primarily of a hood in which the operator stands listening for distant sounds which are collected in a funnel fixed just above the hood. There is a diaphragm in the funnel and leading down therefrom two rubber tubes which are adjusted to the ears of the listener. There is also a mariner's compass resting under the funnel to let the listener know which direction the funnel is pointed when it records a sound. Dr. Schmitt made his first instrument from a dry goods box, which he used for a hood, a pair of old stethoscope tubes, and a piece of tin bent in the form of a funnel. Yet it worked successfully from the start. Sounds which could not be detected by the unaided ear, or if audible, were lost as to direction, were instantly located by the director. Its value on ships and in lighthouses is undeniable, as the throbbing of a vessel may be heard with it when it is not possible to detect it with ear unaided. —World's Work.

Dog Law.

On the subject of the dog law and its enforcement the following questions have been asked us. Our obtuseness prevents our answering:

Whose business is it to see that the law is enforced?

If the tax is paid on a dog and his description accurately recorded at the court house, and said dog goes on a visit, how is anyone to determine whether he is the tax dog or some other dog?

Will it be necessary to catch and carry a stray dog to the court house in order to determine whether said dog is taxed or untaxed?

If a owner of a taxed dog should put a collar on his canine with the name of the dog, owner and place of residence, would any one be obliged to respect the collar, as it is not ordered by the law to be used—that is, does a dog with a collar have any more rights than a dog without a collar?

If a registered dog should get into mischief by killing sheep, killing children, scaring people or digging up flowers, can anyone kill said dog and run no risk of prosecution by the owner?

Some men have plenty of penny wisdom and dollar foolishness.

"I have been suffering from dyspepsia for the past twenty years and have been unable after trying all preparations and physicians to get any relief. After Kodol Dyspepsia Cure I found relief and am in better health than I have been for twenty years. I can not praise Kodol Dyspepsia Cure too highly." Thus writes Mrs. C. W. Roberts, North Creek, Ark. J. K. Barlow.

THE CENTAUR COMPANY, NEW YORK CITY.

An Interesting Piece of Work.

An engraving company of New York issues a sample of miniature engraving that is rather an interesting piece of work. It is a duplication of the Lord's Prayer from a larger design and is engraved on a pearl button on a space nineteen-hundredths of an inch high and thirteen-hundredths of an inch wide. In the composition there are fifteen lines.

There are twenty-four letters spaces, making each letter approximately ten one-thousandths of an inch high and five one-thousandths of an inch wide. Notwithstanding the smallness of the letters, they are as perfectly and accurately formed as the letters of the large original, and it is even possible for a person of keen sight to read the composition without the aid of a magnifying glass.—Jewelers' Review.

Uncle Sam's Conscience Fund.

Up to May 2 last the total contributions to the "conscience fund" of the Treasury Department amounted to $311,963.57, says the Washington Star. This is the fund to which is credited money sent to the treasury by persons who desire to make anonymous restitution to Uncle Sam of money which they have received or taken from the Government and to which they feel they are not entitled. The first contributions was received in 1811 and amounted for the year to $250. The smallest sum ever received in one year was $6 and the largest was $29,155.11. The money thus received is turned into the general fund of the Government as miscellaneous receipts.

RHEUMATISM and CATARRH CURED

Johnston's Sarsaparilla

QUART BOTTLES.

IN THE SHADOW OF DEATH.

A Whole Family Cured.

Mrs. C. H. Kingsbury, who keeps a millinery and fancy goods store at St. Louis, Gratiot Co., Mich., and who is well known throughout the country, says:

"I was badly troubled with rheumatism, catarrh and neuralgia. I had liver complaint and was very bilious. I was in a bad condition; every day I began to fear that I should never be a well woman; that I should have to settle down into a chronic invalid, and live in the shadow of death. I had JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA recommended to me. I TOOK FOUR BOTTLES AND IT CURED ME, and cured my family both. I am very glad that I heard of it. I would cheerfully recommend it to every one. I have taken many other kinds of medicine. I prefer JOHNSTON'S to all of them."
