

HOME AND CHILD

Does your horse "feel his oats"? What a difference between the grain-fed and the grass-fed horse! The first strong and full of ginger, the second flabby, weak and tired out before he begins. The feeding makes the difference.

Children are not alike either. One is rosy, bright-eyed, full of life and laughter, another is pale, weak and dull. The feeding again is responsible.

Sickly children need special feeding. They don't "feel their oats". Scott's Emulsion adds just the right richness to their diet. It is like grain to the horse. The child gets new appetite and strong digestion.

Scott's Emulsion is more than food. It is a strong medicine. It rouses up dull children, puts new flesh on thin ones and red blood into pale ones. It makes children grow. Scott's Emulsion makes ordinary food do its duty.

This picture represents the Trade Mark of Scott's Emulsion and is on the wrapper of every bottle. Send for free sample.

CURTISVILLE.

Special to the News.

Well, as the primary is over and we have thawed we write. We heard on the 17th that Austin Coppinger was lying as the point of death and we hastened to his relief with three powders with directions to take one now, one in July and one in August, and if he did not get relief to fix up his papers. He said if they were DeFotchit's powders he would not take them if he did not want any love of these days.

Saturday night and Sunday was quarterly meeting at Burrage's Chapel. On the 30th Rev. Dugan preaches at J. H. Curtis. Everybody invited.

K. D. Curtis two boys got their faces a little burned by using a jelly bucket as a boiler but not seriously.

Rev. Dugan started to Jasper March 10th with a bucket of hen fruit and left them at the foot of the mountain on a gate post. It's a girl and its name is Eliza Samantha.

We sympathize with Mrs. Dame, Mrs. Warren and Mr. McCullough. Mrs. McCullough was a kind and affectionate mother.

We heard the wedding bells Sunday at 11 o'clock at James Campbell's that I told you of a month ago. Miss Sallie Campbell and Mr. Payne Ramsay, Rev. Dugan officiating.

Judge Pope, we hear, has the right of way chopped out on our new road. Well done, enter into the office of county judge and send the tools to finish the road.

Mrs. Brazley Dugan is quite sick yet. Mrs. Curtis is in poor health, and the floor is fat and sassy. I must tell on them. You see I voted for Coppinger and the old lady and the floor have been mad at me ever since. They both got me down last Saturday, the old lady hold of my hair and the floor hold of my throat. I said to them now you have made DeFotchit's powders of no avail. I felt the floor's teeth loosening and the old lady asked pardon, but my powders have given out and now I shall fight my way through.

We are done planting corn first in Marion county. We haven't overcropped ourselves, as we only planted two rows across the garden. We are now gathering herbs to cleanse the republican party. By the way it is only a cold it has taken.

I have set out two wincapple trees in our yard, the one on the east side is named Uncle John, the one on the west Aunt Elizabeth. I guess the limbs wont grow much if me and the floor fall out often.

I have a potatoes large to plant that it didn't go into the stove kettle. You may think I am full of lies but I ain't. I am full of lies.

Did you know that I met a man going toward Tracy who said, "Good morning, Uncle John, how far is it to Tracy?" Said I, "How did you know my name?" "Oh, I guessed at it." "Then," said I, "if you are so good at guessing, guess the distance to Tracy." He went on his way rejoicing.

Cold Wave.

Night Was Her Terror.

"I would cough nearly all night long," writes Mrs. Ches. Applegate, of Alexandria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. It is absolutely guaranteed to cure Coughs, Colds, La Grippe, Bronchitis and all Throat and Lung Troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Whitwell Drug Store, Whitwell.

We took dinner with Wash Pickett Wednesday of last week, and had considerable talk with his son, Geo. S., who has returned from the army. He advises all boys to stay at home and not enlist in the service unless they are fond of hardship, but says there is an attraction about it that makes him want to re-enlist. George knows what it is to be parted from parents and warm friends. We guess the faces of the old folks at home will shine brighter than brass buttons to Foster Pickett, Columbus, Ohio, if he is ever fortunate enough to see them any more.

Joe Rhead moved his family from Dunlap to this vicinity Thursday.

Geo. S. Pickett went to Jasper Friday.

Money makes the mare go, but it won't make a balky horse horse pull.

It has often been said that a horse could be taken to water but not made to drink. That is so but he can be tied up so he will be glad to drink.

The best insurance policy is to be careful with fire.

Fix up your fences and you will have good crops and good neighbors.

We purchased a jug of No. 1 good kerosene the other day at Whitwell and we inform Mr. Love-to-All that there is plenty of light in the Grove this year. Should the supply become exhausted sooner than we expect we will try to become a relative of his.
