THURSDAY, MAY 7, 1903.

SUNNYSIDE, TENN.

This department is conducted by Mr. Edwin Hudson, who will receive and receipt for subscriptions for the NEWS or renewals thereof.

There will be a box supper at New Hope Saturday night, May 9th for the benefit of the Sunday School and church. Everybody is cordially invited to come.

Rev. W. T. Dale preached here Sunday to a well-filled house.

Bob Deakins attended church at this place Sunday.

Miss Florence Barber, of Looney's Creek was in this vicinity first of the week.

Misses Ella and Myrtle Bryant, of Whitwell, were the guests of Miss Ida Pickett Saturday and Sunday.

Bob Kelly was here Sunday.

J. C. Moore, of Cedar Springs was at New Hope Sunday.

Lee Easterly went to Whitwell Saturday returning Sunday morning.

Miss Ida Pickett entertained a few of her friends Saturday night. They were Misses Ella and Myrtle Bryant, Ella Layne, Messrs. Ed Smith, Joe Rogers, Wood Wilson, Willie Bryant and Edwin Hudson. Jenks up was played with much delight. All report a nice time.

Miss Ida Kelly was in this vicinity Sunday.

Miss Hallie Hudson, of Looney's Creek, while on a pleasure ride Sunday, surprised us with a short call.

Several from Cedar Springs attended church here Sunday.

J. A. Gray was at the office Monday.

Geo. Vandergriff and Richard Hudson, of the mountain, were down Monday fixing up their pension papers.

H. C. Deakins was in this vicinity Sunday.

Croquet was played here last Saturday afternoon for the first time this season. W. H. Layne and Early Powell are the champion players. Who says they can't be beat?

A. C. Grayson, a prominent merchant of Whitwell, was up a few days of the week.

Arch Dill, one of the railroad boys from Tracy City, is now walking our streets.

Remember the box supper Saturday night.

Children's Day services will be held at New Hope in June.

E. J. Barber was up from Looney's Creek Tuesday.

Miss Florence Hudson took dinner with Miss Edith Hudson Sunday.

I have received a horned frog from Los Angeles, Cal., sent by Dave E. Pryor. It is a curiosity much unlike the frogs here.

SO. PITTSBURG ELECTION.

At an election held at So. Pittsburg May 4th for the purpose of electing a mayor and three aldermen and two trustees the following were elected:

For mayor, W. E. Carter, re-elected; for aldermen, Arthur Raulston, Dan Sheridan, Wm. McGee, for school trustees, W. R. Ladd and W. H. Wilson.

Very little interest was shown in the election and a very small vote cast.

INMAN.

Special to the News.
 Henry Bibbs of Caroline Chapel, was here Monday. Just ask Boss Thurman, Oscar Francis and Dave Henninger how they'd like to go turkey hunting. Oscar Francis has purchased a new straw hat. Jos. Hyson's, of Sulphur Spring, was hitched at J. R. Harris' Sunday. Wonder what was the attraction. Why didn't Miss Mary Harris go to church Sunday. Miss Sallie Peck is very poorly at this writing. Tom Turner and family of Ebenezer, were visiting at Mrs. Nancy Peck's Sunday. Mr. E. Prigmore, of Oak Grove, was on our streets Tuesday. L. W. Harris called at the P. O. Friday.
 Inman Belle.

Dragged-Down Feeling

In the loins.
 Nervousness, unrefreshing sleep, despondency.

It is time you were doing something. The kidneys were anciently called the reins—in your case they are holding the reins and driving you into serious trouble.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Acts with the most direct, beneficial effect on the kidneys. It contains the best and safest substances for correcting and toning these organs.

THE STRAIGHT YATH.

Written for the News:
 The straight path is the path that children should be taught to walk, but be sure that you are in the path yourself, for how can you teach your children the truth when you are not that yourself. Children watch their parents and follow after them. Therefore you should be truthful and honest in your dealings with all mankind, for you cannot teach your boys and girls to be honest when you are dishonest yourself.

Children must be all kind and loving to each other and to their school mates, and not to make fun of their clothes or shoes, if they are worn or old. Teach them to be sorry for the misfortunes of others, and to help them with kind words, also to respect the old. How beautiful it is to see the young kind and thoughtful to the old. Teach them to give to them that have not. Teach them that the little girl or boy that stands with his little toes out is the one to divide with, not the one who has fine shoes on. In this way you will teach your children to make noble men and women. Teach them to be obedient at home, and they will be the same at school. Teach them not to have too curiosity, and a meddling child always gets into trouble. Teach children to be useful and industrious, for idleness makes drunkards and cigarette smokers of boys, and disobedient and ungrateful daughters. Teach them to love home and to beautify it in every way, and not to be on the go all the time, for if they go when they are young, they will roam when they are old. Teach them to be neat and clean, and that it is not the dress that makes the lady, or the coat that makes the gentleman. Teach them that they are no better than any other honest child. God made them both, and he is the same God to all. Teach them that there is an all seeing eye that watches them wherever they go and whatever they do, and that God rewards them for the good they do, and he will punish them for doing wrong. Teach them the love of the Lord Jesus, to love him, to read the Bible, and to keep his commandments, and teach them to pray, and thus they will keep in the path that will lead them upward and onward to the beautiful city above.

GREATLY ALARMED

By a Persistent Cough, but Permanently Cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mr. H. P. Burbage, a student at law, in Greenville, S. C., had been troubled for four or five years with a continuous cough which he says, "greatly alarmed me, causing me to fear that I was in the first stage of consumption." Mr. Burbage, having seen Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised, concluded to try it. Now read what he says of it: "I soon felt a remarkable change and after using two bottles of the 35c size was permanently cured." Sold by Caldwell & Chaudoin; and Whitwell Drug Co.

FLAT WOODS.

Special to the News.
 John Moore and Bill Wells got lost Sunday. Wonder where they found Wells?

Wiley Spangler went up the road Sunday with a smile on his face as long as a fence rail. Lookout, Mary, all smiles is coming.

S. H. Wells has been sick. One of our young ladies writes love letters seven pages long.

Hop Kelly went to Jasper Sunday with a smile on his face as long as a railroad iron.

Misses Virgie and Nettie Wills visited at John Moore's Sunday, and with Seppie Moore attended church at Ebenezer. Also Jim Davis.

John Rogers went to C. C. Alder's to help up old grey, but old grey gave him a kick and sent him rolling down hill into the goosepond.

Miles Rounsavall looked sad Sunday, and some one else looked sad, too.

If you want to see Wiley Spangler smile tell him the meal barrel is empty. If you want to see Dog Moore smile give him a sack and start him to mill.

Ask Virgie how she likes to plow old Pete; ask George Moore if he likes to go to see the girls.

W. G. Spangler was plowing with his coat on the other day.

Mead Rogers and daughter, Mrs. Minnie Mosier, visited at John Moore's last week.

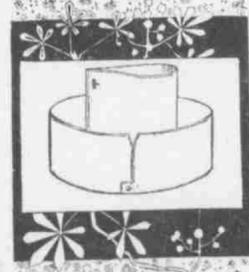

John Moore caught a buffalo fish that weighed 10 lbs., in a pool of water. Jim

Cures When Doctors Fail.

Mrs. Frank Chlassen, Patterson, La., writes June 8th, 1901: "I had malaria fever in very bad form, was under treatment by doctors, but as soon as I stopped taking their medicine, the fever would return. I used a sample bottle of Herbine, found it helped me. Then bought two bottles, which completely cured me. I feel grateful to you for furnishing such a splendid medicine, and can honestly recommend it to those suffering from malaria, as it will surely cure them." Herbine, 50c bottle at Sequachee Supply Store.

REND, W. VA.
 (Published by request.)
 Rend W. Va., April 13, 1903.
 Editor Mine Workers' Journal:

As I saw my last letter I am truly glad to come again to let the readers know we are still in the fight and doing fine here and think our time is close at hand. I hope and trust the time will soon come so our union girls can rotten egg the scabs here at this place. If we had a lot of women and girls here like myself and Mrs. Jennie Jefferies there would not be a scab in West Virginia, but poor, weak things, they drive their poor boys and husbands to work and cause them to go back on their obligations, and tell them it is nothing but a miner's oath. Let me tell the readers one of those kind of men could not be a witness against me because if he would swear one lie they would swear two, and if a man would do the company some kind of dirt against his fellow-man he would do the company some kind of dirt. And let me tell the readers I have not any use for a scab, nothing whatever. I spurn them as I would a leper. The scabs are very few here, and I am happy to say no one can call my papa that name scab. That word scab is a small word but it has an everlasting sound, and sticks to one as long as they live, and will follow them to the grave. I wish the time would come when our poor servant girls can have an organization. I, for one, will strike until doom's day for my rights. I, for one, will take a solemn vow never to buy anything from a non-union man nor sell to them. Let me tell the readers another word or two. The scabs here haven't any pastime until after dark. They sit in the corner and snuff ashes and then at dark they get out and parade around the house play the scab march on an old sink tub which looks like it had been in Noah's ark at the time of the flood. As I am afraid I will tire the readers I will close wishing the Journal and its many readers success. As I am not ashamed of having a union heart you can sign my name in full. I will stand for the union till I die.

All that I am ashamed of is that I am no bright scholar. I love the union people but I long to go where God is light and I am sure there will be no blacklegs there.
