Geo. W. Mayo.

This gentleman who was announced in the columns of the Monroe Enterprise, as a candidate for Trustee of Monroe county, has withdrawn the same and is no longer a candidate for the position. He leaves in a few days for Greensboro, Ga., at which place he will make his future home. We commend him to the people of Greensboro, as an honest, upright and straightforward gentleman.

A May Party.

It is suggested that the young people of Sweetwater, have a general May Party on Saturday the 18th of May, at which time a May Queen will be crowned. If the young folks will take the matter in hand it will be a grand affair. Let all the people young and old take a part, and unite in one general holiday. The crowning of a May Queen will cause many minds to wander back into the past, when such occasions were hailed with joy.

Our Devil.

Has been rejoicing, for a few days past, at the improvement the little pleasant weather was making on our streets. The recent rains though have somewhat depressed him, and with visions of standing pools of water and mud-holes before him, he gives vent to his feelings in the following thrilling effusion:

"In Monroe County, Sweetwater town,
Lord of mercy do look down,
The streets are wretched, sidewalk too,
If we're not fixed what will we do."

More Cattle.

Sweetwater is becoming more and more famous as a cattle market. Two weeks ago W. D. Latimer sold to Mr. Lowry, thirty-six head—some of them very fine. Col. D. P. Walker, drove in last Monday, 28—of the finest kind. The largest number of them were raised on Col. Walker's farm on Fork Creek, and were sold to Capt. Will, Cleveland, who is the great cattle man of the town. He received a fine lot at Athens Tuesday. Capt. Cleveland also purchased a nice lot of steers which were all shipped to the Southern markets.

Pianos and Organs.

We again call attention to the advertisement of Chas. M. Stoff, dealer in Pianos, Organs, &c., Baltimore, Md. Their instruments are of the best quality, and are sure to give satisfaction. There are more of their Pianos in use in this section than any other, and those who are using them are so well pleased that they would not exchange them for any other. The Organs, Church and Parlor, are also extensively used in this section of country. Those wanting either Pianos or Organ, would do well, and save money by ordering from this firm. J. W. Goddard is Agent at this place to whom you can apply for prices, etc.

Cowan, McClung & Co.

This Wholesale House, at Knoxville, is the most extensive of any in the whole South, its sales being equal by only a very few houses in the East and merchants are in bias at the top and bottom, and trummed with Honiton pointolines and tube roses, with a plenum running two chains and three links to the south-west from the starting point, around the outskirts of civilization, and pinned together with a self-acting solitaire pin. The dress pattern is figured largely, and the dress will figure largely during the coming campaign. The figures are so large that it takes eight dress patterns to show off the figures to advantage. When broiled, and husbands will get in a broil if they don't buy one, they are excellent, covered with a gray made in the shape of an overdress. They are buckled down under the shoes like tight pants, and have a bustle on as large as a load of hay.

Good Temples.

According to an announcement Sweetwater Lodge, No. 125, I. O. G. T., held a public meeting in the M. E. Church, South, Tuesday night. A good number of citizens were in attendance, and the meeting proved to be a benefit to the cause.

Brother Cofer, on account of sickness, was not with us as was expected. T. J. Evans, being present addressed the meeting in a short and pointed speech, followed by Rev. W. W. Morrison, W. C. T., of Sweetwater Lodge; after which all present were invited to join in the cause and those who did not wish to unite with the order were requested to retire. Three persons remained, and were initiated into the order. A Degree Temple was then organized by the election of Rev. J. H. Keith, Degree Templar; Mrs. C. P. Corray, V. D. T.; Rev. W. W. Morrison, P. D. T.; Wm. Rose, Chaplain; C. B. Wood, D. M.; Miss A. E. Spillman, D. S.; Edgar Carter, D. F. S.; Mrs. Carter, Treasurer.

The meeting then adjourned to Tuesday night next.

Matrimony.

The Wil and Sentiment, a sprightly new monthly published in Philadelphia by Wm. Howard, at 75 cts. a year, has the following "matrimonial" column:

"We have received a call from a young man who had been employed at the Cemetery, some time since went to Washington to draw his pay. After receiving the amount, the paymaster, discovering a sabre cut on his face, remarked: 'You were in the army during the war?' 'Yes,' said he. 'What command were you in?' 'In General Fitzhugh Lee's command said he. 'Did you have the audacity to apply at a Federal Cemetery for work, when you were in the rebel army?' 'Yes,' replied the Irishman, 'I helped to kill them, and I thought I had a right to help bury them.'"

They Say.

Ten Cents Reward is offered for that garrulous old gossip known and disguised, in every community throughout this broad land, as "They say." His adherents are more numerous than ever leaves were in Valumbria, and his ramours thicker and faster than winged ones on an indian-summer day. He is not omnipresent, he certainly has the power of being present in many places at the same time. If he is not inspired with the prophetic aim of an Ixias or Jephtha, he certainly foresees many events which come to pass. If he is not omniscient, he certainly knows a great deal more than most of folks.
