SAM is low, and although not stout, is well set, is of tawny mulatto color and has a scar. I think, over one of his eyes, occasioned by the kick of a mule when young. He is about fifty years of age and when spoken to evinces a desire to please, but generally has a grim and forbidding countenance. He is also a good plantation carpenter.

MADISON has always been a good servant. He is very young and has a pleasant countenance, particularly when spoken to. He is low but uncommonly well set; very black, and when pleased, shows a set of beautiful white teeth.
