GASOLINE PUMP EXPLODES WHEN STRUCK WITH A CAR

Gasoline was splashed all over the police station at Reistertown and the occupants were soon outdoors.

A car struck two end pumps at a gas station close to the police building and one of the pumps rolled to the latter place, exploded and gasoline went in all directions.

The driver of the car, Elmer Doland Fischer, was pinned in his car and he was taken out by Officer Adams and two Reistertown residents. He was taken to the Franklin Square Hospital in the Pikesville ambulance. Fischer had fallen asleep at the wheel of his auto. He was severely cut.

The Reistertown, Pikesville and Owings Mills Fire Companies sprayed water on the police building and put out the fire in the tanks.

CAR RUNS AMUCK AND DAMAGES A RESTAURANT

Damage which may exceed $500 was created at a restaurant owned in Seaford, Del., by Mr. and Mrs. William A. Hill when a car driven by Thelton P. Smith, of Greenwood, failed to negotiate the curve at the intersection on Front street Highway and North street, and crashed head-on into the side of the restaurant.

The crash damaged the side of the building, but caused the greatest damage by knocking over 250 bottles of liquor from the counters in a package store in the building. The liquor containers were smashed and the contents lost.

Also injured by the crash was Jennings Gordy, who sleeps in the restaurant and who acts as nightwatchman for the establishment. Gordy was cut by several of the falling bottles and surgical attention was rendered by Dr. Bruce Barnes.

SHORE INSTITUTE NAMES NEW MAN FOR LIBRARY

The appointment of Mr. Henry E. Coleman, Jr., of Lexington, Ky., as Librarian of the George Avery Bunting Library of Washington College has been announced by President Gilbert W. Mead.

Mr. Coleman, a native of Virginia, is a graduate of Center College, Kentucky, and holds the A. M. degree in English Literature from the University of Illinois, where he received the B. S. "with highest honors" in Library Science, and at the University of Michigan Library School, from which he received the degree of A. M. in Library Science.

During his professional life, Mr. Coleman has been connected with the State Teacher's College at Bellingham, Washington, with Northwestern University and the University of Iowa where he served as Supervisor of Departmental Libraries.

Mr. Coleman will take over the direction of the Washington College Library on September 1.

When sifting flour several times, use two pieces of waxed paper, sifting the flour first on one piece, then the other. This saves dish washing and prevents spilling.

MAN USES HIS TEETH IN FIGHT WITH ANOTHER

Warren Sorrell of Townsend was fined $25.00 and costs by Judge W. F. D. Williams Monday on a charge of assault preferred by Claude Whitehead, Jr., also of Townsend.

According to evidence introduced, Sorrell was alleged to have bitten Whitehead through the shoulder when the latter took him to task for using profane language in the presence of Mrs. Whitehead. The incident occurred on the beach front at Cape Charles.

Sorrell is said to have admitted that he was intoxicated at the time and immediately following the assault to have gone to his home. He was arrested there by Deputy Sheriff John Read Womble.

When one comes across a screw top jar that is stubborn, one need only stand it top side down on a warm oven for a few minutes. The most obstinate will open readily.
