New Salad Sandwich For Your Spring Entertaining

The coming of spring means so many things that it would be impossible to list them all—but to some it means new clothing, to others lovely flowers—to the children it means the end of school and so forth—but to all of us who like to entertain it means gay tables, with new and interesting dishes—nice, sunny days for intimate luncheons with our closest friends and pleasant afternoons out of doors.

Simply ideal for these spring luncheons are those new and interesting salad sandwiches and if one spends any time and thought at all to the freshness and garnishing of these sandwiches, they will meet with immediate favor. They should, of course, constitute the main dish of the luncheon and are really simpler to prepare than you will possibly imagine. Here is just a sample—and a very good one, by the way.

Toast, ham, chives, asparagus, tomato, cucumbers, radishes, watercress, ripe olive, lettuce, cream cheese, hard boiled egg;

On leaves of lettuce, place a slice of freshly toasted raisin bread that has been trimmed. Cut toast diagonally and spread with mayonnaise, or Thousand Island Dressing, mixed with chopped ham and minced chives. Arrange top of toast with two asparagus tips placed in the center and tip ends out, bases together. Place a half slice of peeled ripe tomato at either side of the asparagus, place two or three thin slices of cucumbers next at either side of tomato, and tip ends of toast with ripe olives. Garnish top center of tomato with egg and rosette of cream cheese, and side of tomato with half slice of hard-boiled egg. Place a rosette of cream at one side of the sandwich and a ripe olive and radish at the other side. Thousand Island Dressing to be passed at the table. A rosette of cream cheese can be piped on top and in the center of the sandwich for effect. Place the toast on plate in shape of a diamond. Minced chicken or cheese can be used in place of ham.

OYSTERS ITALIENNE

3 tablespoons butter
1-2 teaspoon mustard
1 teaspoon salt
1-8 teaspoon pepper
1 cup celery, finely chopped
1-2 cup top milk
1 pint oysters
1-2 package macaroni (8 or 9 oz. pkg.)
1-8 lb. American cheese, sliced
2 tablespoons flour
Melt butter. Add mustard, salt, pepper and celery, and cook slowly until celery is nearly tender. Add milk and flour and heat. Then add oysters and cook for 3 minutes—just until oysters begin to curl around the edges. Cook macaroni in boiling, salted water until tender; drain. Place in greased 1-2 quart casserole; top with oyster mixture. Top with cheese slices. Bake at 125 degrees for 20 minutes. Serves 6.

HOT OFF THE GRIDDLE

Camembert—which is a French type cheese is soft and running and is used with salads; with crackers after dessert or with fresh fruit.

In order to turn out a good cake, the best quality of ingredients should be used. A high grade pastry or cake flour is preferred.

Clever Spring Coat

Aluminum gray coat with taffeta lining.

By VERA WINSTON

ONE OF the tricks of the new spring coats is to look like a suit. Here is one of these gay deceivers fashioned of woolen in that new shade of aluminum gray. The upper portion is fitted with cleverly worked-out seaming that terminates in the squared-off scallop line around the hips, back and front. The coat is lined in the same shade of taffeta which is repeated in the turned-back, casual revers.

RADIANT LIVING

Outward Bound

By

REV. C. M. GRIFFITH

Cecilton, Md.

If you have a vivid imagination, thank God for it.

God has given us the power to enable us to escape from the dull drabness of confined living.

Take, for instance, that man who is shut up all day in his office, a prisoner of dull routine. There he sits day by day chained like a slave to his desk, his eyes glued to the tasks at hand, seeing nothing but what is presented to his physical eyes.

Often when so incarcerated by enslaving routine, I have leaned back from my desk, and, shutting my eyes, imagined myself to be again on the tilted afterdeck of an outbound schooner, plowing through a rough sea to some fascinating port beyond the distant horizon.

With the twang of the sea air in my lungs and with my ears filled with the music of whistling ropes, snapping canvas and creaking blocks, I again stand spellbound at the wheel and glanced aloft at the full spread of her windfilled canvas, and then watch her long nose as it dips into the on-rushing surging sea shooting up great sheets of drenching water.

What if you are a prisoner at a desk, or tied down to a bench or bending over a tub filled with clothes. Bestir your God-given imagination! Catch the spirit of being "Outward Bound!" Get a new interest. Take up a new study. Seek some further experience in spiritual living.

Then each morning, as you jump from your bed and are slipping into your clothes, there will be a new glow upon your face, a new zest in your step, a new note in your voice, a new aspiration in your heart, for you will feel that you are today outward bound for some worthwhile accomplishment.

MARYLAND MINUTE MEN TO SERVE IN COMMUNITIES

Brigadier General Francis Petrott warned that "enemy parachute troops or invaders would have to reckon with patriotic Marylanders if they ever set foot in this State."

Because of the enthusiastic response of Marylanders to Governor O'Connor's call for volunteers in the Maryland Minute Men, General Petrott expects this Reserve Militia to be as active in Maryland, in case of an invasion, as the heroic Home Guard is in England. The only difference is that the Maryland Minute Men will serve only in their immediate neighborhoods or communities.

Governor O'Connor has been widely acclaimed for his foresight in organizing the Maryland Minute Men. Letters and telegrams of congratulation have been received from prominent officials and citizens in every walk of life, favorably commenting upon Governor O'Connor's aggressive action for the defense of Maryland.

During an interview General Petrott stated, "The State Guard can be called into active service by the regular Army in an emergency. This leaves home ground areas absolutely unprotected."

"Governor O'Connor in order to handle this situation, has proposed to organize the male citizens of Maryland between the ages of 18 and 65 and has designated them as Maryland Minute Men."

"Units of Maryland Minute Men are being recruited in every section of this State. There will be no drilling and, under no circumstances, will these units of Maryland Minute Men be called out for active duty unless we are invaded by our common enemy; and when called out, they will serve in their own neighborhoods."

A Maryland Minute Man company will consist of 50 men, a Captain and two Lieutenants. They will be supplied with an arm band insignia and also furnished ammunition for practice.

Marylanders desiring to volunteer, can secure application blanks at their nearest Armory or from their American Legion Commander.

The very simplest canapes are the excellent cheese sticks, pretzels or small biscuits sold in the market in packages for this very purpose. Salted nuts, pop corn and potato chips are also served as an accompaniment to the cocktail.

★ ★ THE PATRIOTIC AND ECONOMICAL WAY TO BUY YOUR BEER

IN KEEPING WITH THE ECONOMICAL WAY of buying everything we need these days, here is some information on the buying of beer:

★ The most economical way to buy your beer these days is to buy it right from the keg—at any of the many excellent taverns where beer is kept on draught.

★ The next most economical way is to buy it in the regular old fashioned twelve ounce bottle—the kind on which you pay a deposit and on which you get a refund when you return the bottles. Those bottles, like the kegs, go back to the brewery over and over again. They are scientifically cleaned and sterilized and make many, many trips.

In this way, the "waste" which comes from using a tin can or any other form of non-returnable, non-reusable package is done away with. In this way, the labor hours used up in producing "non-returnable" packages are largely saved and can be used in more essential defense work.

So may we suggest, during the war days, enjoy your beer but enjoy it in the most economical way—either from the keg or in the old fashioned returnable bottle.
