The New York World accuses the Republican party with the crime of ruling the country for eighteen years while a minority party. This suggests the thought that had the majority party ruled the nation during the rebellion there wouldn't be much of a country to rule now anyhow.

The Irrepressible Wm. Borgen, late of the Le Sueur County Herald, has commenced the publication of the Richland County Gazette at Wahpeton, Dakota. His new venture is a seven column folio sheet and every number contains many local items of interest. We hope he will have better success with the Gazette than he had with the Herald.

A correspondent of the Pioneer Press at Mantorville furnishes this big gopher item: Our new county auditor, who came into office in March last, is kept pretty busy. On last Saturday over one hundred boys and men came into his office with the fore-paws of eight hundred gophin. If any other county auditor in Minnesota has paid the bounty on a greater number let him come to the front.
