GAYNOR WILL RECOVER PHYSICIANS BELIEVE

raised his hands to his ears, and with his face contorted with pain he staggered in a daze and leaned limply across the ship's rail, until Adamson came to his assistance. Then some one drew a steamer chair to his side, and in this the Mayor sank with relief. A few minutes later he was removed to a stateroom, where the ship's surgeons temporarily bandaged the wound, preparatory to his removal to St. Mary's Hospital.

Rufus Gaynor, a son, was the only member of the Mayor's family present when he was shot. His wife and other children were at the Gaynor country place at St. James, L. I.

When Mrs. Gaynor was notified by telephone of the tragedy she made a spectacular run in an automobile, accompanied by her son Norman, crossed the Queensborough bridge to Manhattan, sped across the island to the Hudson River and was then taken to Hoboken in a police patrol boat. She was almost overcome when she reached the hospital and was permitted to see her husband but for a moment. She was joined there shortly by Mrs. Ethel Vagut, a daughter.

Rarely has a wounded man evinced more fortitude and cheerfulness than did William J. Gaynor. He evidently thought as he was being carried down the companionway from the ship on a stretcher that his wound was fatal, for he smiled faintly and said to those near him: "Tell the people good-by."

To his wife and son Rufus he said at the hospital, later:

"It is very strange, very strange. I wonder why he did it."

But at no time did he express ill feeling against the man who would have killed him.

COLUMBIA NOT ON AEROPLANE ROUTE

Aviators Will Follow the Wabash Road in Cross-State Flight.

SCHEDULE IS ANNOUNCED

Out of Direct Line Is the Reason Given for Not Coming Here.

Columbia will not be on the route of the cross state aeroplane flight for a prize of $10,000, which probably will be held August 24, according to reports from Kansas City, where John H. Curran, state immigration commissioner, is at present completing arrangements for the meet. The airships will "follow the flag" of the Wabash across the state. The top of the pilot train probably will be painted white that it may be more easily seen by the aviators.

The course of the flight will be over these towns: St. Charles, Montgomery City, Mexico, Huntsville, Carrollton and Lexington. The race may start either from St. Louis, or Kansas City, as the promoters of the meet have given Kansas City the choice.

The chief objection to Columbia is that it is not on the direct line of the Wabash railroad, where the pilot train which will guide the flying machines across the state will be run. To come to Columbia, the train would have to come into Columbia and back out again, and the aeroplanes would be required to alight at too frequent intervals in a small territory. The aviators are required to stop at each of the places indicated on the course to qualify for the prize.

The closest the machines will come to Columbia probably will be Centuria, as the pilot train will pass through there, but the machines will not be required to alight.

There is some doubt yet whether the prize will be awarded to the first man that completes the course according to the rule or the man covering it in the shortest time between stops. The purse already raised is $10,000, but it is expected that between $500 and $1,000 more will be added for a second prize, or for a special performance.

The entrance of one Wright aeroplane, driven probably by Arch Hoxsey, and a Curtiss biplane, driven probably by Glenn H. Curtiss himself, is assured. If Hamilton can get an aeroplane before the date for the race he will enter, as he has signified his desire to do so. Other entrants have stated that they are anxious for the race, but their names have not been announced.

THE WAY THEY PUT IT

Well Known Sayings as They Have Been Expressed by Different Men

It has been said that there were originally only three jokes in the world—some say seven—and from those has sprung modern humor; so people long ago learned to expect nothing new under the sun and to agree with Pliny the elder, who before he perished in the Vesuvius eruption of A. D. 79 remarked:

"In comparing various authors with one another I have discovered that some of the gravest and latest writers have transcribed word for word, from former works, without making acknowledgments."

Some of these transcriptions make interesting comparisons.

Longfellow wrote, "Art is long, and time is fleeting." Goethe put the sentiment into German thus:

Ach, Gott! die Kunst ist lang,
Und kurz ist unser Leben.

Which Bayard Taylor translated almost literally:

Ah, God, but art is long,
And life! alas, is fleeting.

Chaucer had said, "The Lyfe so short, the craft so long to lerne," but Hippocrates long before him had uttered the same thought.

Pope said:
Know thyself, presume not God to scan;

The proper study of mankind is man.

But Chaucer had said: "Full wise is he that can himselfen knowe." Cervantes put it, "Make it thy business to know thyself, which is the most difficult thing in the world." Diogenes Laertius said that Tales was the originator of the saying. Plutarch gives it to Plato and it is found also in slightly variant form on the tongue of Pythagoras, Chilo, Cleobolus, Blas, Socrates. Juvenal took its origin from the human realm when he says it descended from heaven.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION

State of Missouri, County of Boone, ss. In the Circuit Court, in vacation before October Term, 1910.

John C. Schwabe, Plaintiff, against the unknown heirs, devisees, consorts and aliases of William C. Horne, deceased, of Richard K. Horne, deceased, of Maria Kirtley, deceased, of Paskel Kirtley, deceased, and of Elijah Kirtley, deceased, Defendants.

The State of Missouri, to the above-named defendants, Greeting:—

Now on this the 9th day of August, 1910, in vacation before the October Term, 1910, of the Circuit Court of Boone County, Missouri, comes the plaintiff herein, by his attorneys, and files his petition in suit herein, duly verified by the affidavit of the plaintiff, and in said petition states, among other things, that the interests of the unknown defendants, so far as plaintiff is able to ascertain, are derived from the following facts, and made apparent by the following defects in the record title to the real estate hereinafter described, to-wit:—

That in the year 1847 one William Kirtley filed suit in the Circuit Court of Boone County, Missouri, against the respective ancestors of the unknown defendants, to-wit, against William C. Horne, Richard K. Horne, Maria Kirtley, Paskel Kirtley, and Elijah Kirtley, and others, for partition of the real estate hereinafter described among said parties who derived ownership of same as heirs and legal representatives of William Caye, deceased, and said suit was prosecuted to final judgment, and said real estate was ordered sold, a sale thereof was made by William T. Hickman, Commissioner of said Court, and a deed made by said Commissioner to William Kirtley whose title has vested in the plaintiff and these under which he claims.

But the plaintiff states that said partition proceedings are defective in the following particulars, to-wit: that the petition in said cause was not sworn to and did not describe the real estate sought to be partitioned as required by law; that Maria Kirtley, one of said parties to said suit, was served with process by the sheriff of Boone County, but the return on the summons made by said sheriff is defective in that it does not show that said service was made in Boone County, Missouri; that said William C. Horne, Richard K. Horne, Paskel Kirtley and Elijah Kirtley were notified of the object and pendency of said suit by publication by affidavit and no summons was ever issued for said defendants to Boone County, and no guardian ad litem was ever appointed for William C. Horne and Richard K. Horne, who were minors without any legally appointed guardian; that by reason of the aforesaid defects said proceedings are irregular, and no jurisdiction was obtained by said court over said parties defendant to said suit, and no title passed by said commissioner's deed in partition.

Plaintiff further states that there is no deed or other conveyance of record from said William C. Horne, Richard K. Horne, Maria Kirtley, Paskel Kirtley and Elijah Kirtley, nor from any other person or persons for them or claiming under them, or any of them; that all of said last named parties are now long since deceased, but whether they, or any of them, died testate or intestate, is to plaintiff wholly unknown; and that by reason of said facts, the defendants, the unknown heirs, devisees, consorts and aliases of William C. Horne, deceased, of Richard K. Horne, deceased, of Maria Kirtley, deceased, of Paskel Kirtley, deceased, and of Elijah Kirtley, deceased, appear of record to have an interest in said real estate, which interest is such as they might claim by inheritance, or devise, or as consorts and aliases of said deceased parties, respectively. Plaintiff further states that the names and places of residence of the heirs, devisees, consorts and aliases of said William C. Horne, deceased, Richard K. Horne, deceased, Maria Kirtley, deceased, Paskel Kirtley, deceased, and of Elijah Kirtley, deceased, respectively, are to the plaintiff wholly unknown; that he verily believes that there are such persons interested in the subject matter of this petition whose names he cannot insert herein because they are unknown to him, and that he has described the interests of said unknown defendants, and how derived, so far as his knowledge extends.

It is therefore ordered by the clerk of said Court, in vacation, that the said defendants be notified by publication that the plaintiff, by petition herein filed, of date August 9th, 1910, has commenced against said defendants an action at law and in equity, the immediate object and general nature of which is to enforce and establish a lawful right, claim and demand to and against certain real estate within the jurisdiction of this court, to-wit, an action to obtain a decree of this court declaring perfect and absolute the record title of this plaintiff, by limitation, in and to the following described real estate, to-wit, being and situated in Boone County, Missouri, to-wit, 85.21 acres more or less, being all that part of the Northwest quarter of Section 12, Township 18, of Range 12, that is East of the Boone County and Jefferson City Railroad except 27 acres in the Southwest corner herebefore so by William A. Horne to P. W. Smith. It is further ordered that said defendants be and appear in this court on the first day of the next term thereof, to be held at the court house in the City of Columbia, Boone County, Missouri, on Monday, the 2nd day of October, 1910, to answer or plead said petition, or in default thereof said petition will be taken and judgment rendered against said defendants.

It is further ordered that a copy hereof be duly published at least once a week for four weeks successively in the University Missourian, a daily newspaper printed, published and circulated in said Boone County, as designated by plaintiff's attorneys, most likely to give notice to said defendants; the last insertion to be at least thirty days before said next term of said court.

A true copy from the record: Witness my hand as Clerk of the Circuit Court of Boone County, Missouri, and the seal of said Court, Do at office in Columbia, Missouri, this 9th day of August, 1910.

Jan. E. Boggs,
Clerk.
Harris & Finley, Attorneys for Plaintiff.
First insertion August 10.
