

DEFEAT AT LAST, 4-3

After Winning 16 Games, Tigers Lost Final to the Jayhawkers.

The Missouri baseball team showed a complete reversal of form on Rollins Field yesterday and lost the last game of the season to Kansas by a score of 4 to 3, thereby breaking a winning streak of sixteen games. Neither team played good ball, but with Poirer pitching in good form the Jayhawkers took on a new lease of life and, aided by numerous Missouri errors of commission and omission, won the decision in a poorly played game.

Giltner pitched for Missouri and fanned thirteen Kansans, but the few Jayhawkers who did manage to reach base did an immense lot of damage. Kansas had no earned run, but it was hardly necessary to earn runs yesterday. For instance, Giltner fanned the first eight batters who faced him, and the ninth out came when Morris cut down a man stealing. Sandwiched in between the various strikeouts, however, were several bases on balls, and three Missouri errors. Result—two Kansas runs.

Missouri staged a near rally in the ninth inning, when Morris led off with a base on balls. McMillan laid down a pretty sacrifice, and, with a man on second and only one down, Missouri rooters had hopes of victory. Poirer then picked off Slusher on strikes, and it was up to Owens. His best effort was a grounder to short, and Foster's throw to Weber ended Missouri's record of victories.

Poirer's pitching was worthy of notice, and the Kansas second-string man must be given credit for his clever work in stopping the Tiger winning streak. From a Missouri standpoint, Giltner's slashing triple and his pitching stand out prominently. The Missouri southpaw pitched good ball, although the five passes which he issued counted heavily against him in the final result.

Before a large Journalism Week crowd, Missouri humbled Kansas on Rollins Field Friday afternoon, 9 to 2. The victory gives the Tigers undisputed possession of the Missouri Valley baseball championship. A Kansas victory could not have kept Missouri out of the title, but with an even break in the four-game series Kansas could have claimed the honor of stopping the Tiger winning streak.

Kansas was at no time dangerous after the first inning. The Jayhawkers led off with a run in the first, but after the Tigers put over two markers in their first time at bat Kansas showed little fight, and the game was all Missouri.

FIRST 14 MEN PICKED FOR AMBULANCE UNIT

U. S. Government May Help.

That transportation from New York to France and that uniforms and necessary equipment will be furnished the volunteers of the American Ambulance Field Service by the United States Government is predicted by the officers of the service. The following letter comes from the Boston office of the service:

"Congratulations! It is a great pleasure to work with people who do things. I think I have some splendid news for you. Mr. Sleeper has just returned from Washington, where he has received every official assurance that the Field Service is to be given official Government status within the next two weeks.

"If you will get them together, I will take fifty men on June 23 or twenty-five picked men on June 16 and fifty on June 23, if you will guarantee to keep up the personnel of the fifty to the same standard as the first twenty-five."

List of Contributors Monday.

A list of all funds received to date will be published Monday, and all persons desiring to give material aid to the University of Missouri unit of the field service are requested to mail their checks or their pledges to the treasurer, J. A. Hudson, Columbia, at once.

To send seventy-five men, $9,375 must be raised to defray expenses to New York and incidental expenses while in France. While some men will be able to furnish part or all of their share, many will not, and the success of the movement will depend largely on the loyal financial support of the people of Missouri and alumni and former students in other states.

Wednesday to End Filing.

The work of enlisting the men who are to go must be completed by 4 p. m., Wednesday, May 23. All men who would do their "bit" in the great war by serving and saving the wounded in France must file their applications before this time. The necessary letters, birth certificates and parents' consents must be obtained at once. Men who now have incomplete applications filed should complete them at once, and all men who have taken application blanks should return them immediately, even though all their credentials are not complete.

Physical examinations may be taken at the Parker Memorial Hospital from 8:30 to 9:30 o'clock and from 3:30 to 4:30 o'clock daily. All men must show their ability to drive a Ford before they leave Columbia and should see Prof. A. L. Westcott at his office. He will give trials at 9 a. m. daily and at any other time by engagement.

Meeting Is Called for Tonight.

A meeting of all the men interested in the service is called for 7 o'clock tonight at the Missouri Union Building. Men who have been accepted by the committee and all who have filed applications must be present to receive further instructions in regard to the many necessary preparations preliminary to obtaining passports and transportation.

KURUSU SAYS JAPAN IS AMERICA'S FRIEND

passage of the address of Viscount Motono, our Minister for Foreign Affairs, which was made at the opening of the latest session of the Imperial Diet:

"I notice with great pleasure the symptoms of real sympathy for some time between Japan and the United States. A proposal for common financial action in China has been made by American capitalists. The Imperial Government will follow with lively interest the development of the economic approachment between the two countries."

We have every reason to welcome such an approachment as our Foreign Minister mentioned, because it is beneficial to all parties concerned—China, Japan and United States—and because it will be a strong guaranty of the political stability of the Far East.

Entrance of U. S. a Moral Victory.

As to the story of our plot in Mexico, it is entirely out of the question. The expose of the notorious Zimmerman note and the subsequent developments of the event, have clearly shown to the world that our national ideals absolutely detest such sneaky and underhanded diplomacy. Japan will never challenge the Monroe Doctrine of the Western Hemisphere.

The present war in Europe is a war between democracy and despotism. The Hindenburg line which is now cracking under the pressure of Allied arms is the line drawn between these two opposing principles of national and international politics. We must congratulate ourselves that the Allies' course has already won a decisive spiritual victory by the entrance of this great republic of yours on our side. When this stupendous war is over every country in the world will come nearer and nearer to democracy, although there will be a difference in the form of government according to the characteristics of the respective nations. A more democratic world means a more important mission for journalists. Your responsibility will be greater, and your influence will be stronger. Let me again hope that the pen of American and Japanese journalists be always used not to kill people, but to save them.

The center of world civilization is now gradually shifting, and a new era of civilization is dawning on the Pacific with immeasurable possibilities. Japan and the United States are destined to be the most prominent actors in this coming great world's drama. With the co-operation of all of us, let the new era be the era of peace and brotherhood, and of justice and righteousness. Let the flags of the Rising Sun and the Stars and Stripes be waved side by side, each in its own glorious sphere, for the elevation of humanity and world civilization.
