TO HAVE ANNUAL CHRISTMAS DINNER

Christian College will begin the Christmas season with the annual Christmas dinner on Thursday night, December 14. The dinner will occupy the tables in the center of the dining room, and will be presided over by Lillian Applequist, who will act as toastmistress. On this night, every member of the faculty is asked to respond to a toast. The other tables in the dining room are decorated according to individual tastes.

Cards are to be sent at the head of the table by the Choral Club under the direction of Mrs. Anna Froman. "Silent Night, Holy Night," has been sung on the night before the students leave for their homes.

Another tradition of the college, is that every student and faculty member contributes to a fund for gifts for the employees of the college. Oftentimes, the students give each other gifts at the table, and at the end of the Christmas dinner, unless the gift is a personal one, these are collected and given to some charity organization for distribution to the poor of Columbia. Last year a large number of toys were given away.

During the dinner, the senior class usually presents their Christmas gift to President and Mrs. Edgar D. Lee. The juniors gave their present to Dean Rose L. Lively at their annual party in November. This gift was a walnut leather fitted over-night bag.

Clothes will not be discussed until at least on Friday, December 15. Special expenses will accompany the girls to St. Louis and Kansas City. All tickets will be bought by Miss Beulah Westerman. Students are expected to return on January 3 and classes will begin on January 4.

CHRISTMAS PARTY FOR ALL UNIVERSITY WOMEN

The annual W. S. G. A. Christmas party will be given at the Knights of Columbus Hall this evening. The guest list includes all the women of the University. Special entertainment will be provided by the various organizations. Hosts will be conducted by the Pan-Hellenic Council.

The program will begin with "The Jazz Wedding," by Alpha Chi Omega. Alpha Phi will entertain with "The Broomed Ditty" and Alpha Delta Phi will sing and tell of some "Dead Lights" on the campus. "The Watch and the Wail" will be given by Chi Omega. There is some curiosity about "Uppers and Lovers" by Delta Delta Delta; and Delta Gamma will present a short stunt with a long name, "Tschibischewsky." Gamma Phi Beta will entertain with "The Xanadu of the Kubla Khan," and Kappa Alpha Theta will give a clever stunt, "The Pledge Special." Kappa Kappa Gamma will open "The Family Album" which has been closed for several years. Phi Mu, with its play, "The Tragedy of a Beechum" and Pi Beta Phi with its wordless drama, "The Circular Measure of The Murder of the Light-house Keeper," are sure to be successful. Beta Hall will present "The Count and the Wedding Guest" and Welch Hall will present "As You Like It—With Apologies to William." Theta Sigma Phi will give an entertaining playlet entitled, "News and Views," with some inside information on the society office. The program will close with an educational play, "Natus Christi," by Alpha Gamma Delta.

CLUB READS IRISH PLAYS

Chapin and Dreiser Are Studied by Dramatic Arts Club.

The wit and humor of the Irish brogue, interspersed with bits of pathos, was the predominating element in two of the plays presented by the play reading section of the Dramatic Arts Club at its monthly meeting.

Mrs. Glenn Davis as Lizzie in the "Philosopher of Butterbeggins" and Miss Harriett Jean Trappe as Mary Brown in "The Price of Coal" deserve special praise for their interpretation of "the bonnie Irish lass." Dr. George Lefevre made a very nonchalant and satiric factory David Pirnie in the "Philosopher of Butterbeggins," by Harold Chapin. "The Old Ragpicker," by Theodore Driesser, was of a more pathetic nature. Dr. W. O. Schenck made an undemonstrative but rather impressive impersonation of the "old ragpicker." S. T. Bratton and Dr. H. H. Charlton were conservative in their interpretations of Brogan and Mullarky, the Irish policemen.

COL. BARNES AWARDED MEDAL

Kemper Academy Officer Receives Honor for Meritorious Service.

The Distinguished Service Medal was officially awarded today to Lieut.-Col. John B. Barnes, professor of military science and tactics at Kemper Military Academy at Boonville. The award was made by Maj. O. S. Wood of the Seventh Corps Area, with headquarters in Omaha.

While in France Colonel Barnes was awarded a Meritorious Service Citation Certificate by the commanding general of the American Expeditionary Forces, which certificate was returned today for cancellation, as the Distinguished Service Medal is a much higher honor for the same service.

This presentation marks the close of a successful and active military career for Colonel Barnes, who is now on the retired officers list, having completed his twenty-five years of service last month. However, he will remain an active officer and draw pay as such as long as he is connected with the military school.

POSTOFFICE CANNOT HELP

Unable to Cancel Mail With Stamps Advertising Farmers' Week.

If outgoing mail from Columbia is to have a stamp giving the date of Farmers' Week, it will have to be put on by individuals.

The Commercial Club requested Postmaster P. S. Woods to assist in advertising Farmers' Week, January 15-19, by canceling outgoing mail with a stamp giving the date of the fair. However, practically all of the mail is canceled by machine, and another cancellation would require all the mail to be canceled by hand, and would necessitate the hiring of two or three additional clerks, besides slowing up the postal service.

There are no laws, however, prohibiting stamping the mail with a stamp such as the Commercial Club suggested, Mr. Woods said.

Williamson Fined for Speeding.

C. L. Williamson was fined $13.25 in police court this afternoon for speeding. He was driving down South Ninth street at a rate of thirty-five miles an hour, according to the officer who made the arrest.

WOOD TO STAY ONE YEAR MORE

Filipinos' Demand for New Constitution Is Reason for Delay.

By Consolidated Press Assn. (Copyright 1922).

MANILA, Dec. 7.—As predicted subsequent to the opening of the Philippine legislature, events are so shaping themselves in government affairs here that they will probably keep Governor-General Leonard Wood in the islands indefinitely. Such a course for Wood will be due to the legislature's demand for a new constitution for the islands, which will certainly delay the consideration by the legislature of measures necessary for the carrying on of government affairs.

"I cannot say when I will be able to leave the islands," admits the governor-general. There is, however, growing opinion that he will be able to leave inside of a year.

Wood has not yet spoken regarding the legislature's petition to Congress for permission to hold a constitutional convention. Neither has the American community in Manila expressed itself regarding the matter, although there is a feeling among them that Senator Manuel Quezon's Nationalista party is attempting to jockey the Americans into an untenable position.

An informal project sponsored by some Americans, suggesting that the Philippines be made independent with an American resident representative is being rejected by the majority of Americans here, although as said heretofore they will probably favor a compromise basis of local self government under the United States flag. Wood has up to this time failed to express himself on such a compromise.

Cosmopolitan Club Elects.
The Cosmopolitan Club elected officers at its last meeting of the year, held at Lowry Hall last night. The officers are: President, Manual M. Mortola; vice-president, Miss Carolyn Simon; secretary, Miss Bess Ketchum; treasurer, Lester Parker; contributing editor, P. Y. Chien; business manager, Y. P. Wang.
