NUMBER 43.

THE MAN FROM MARS;

Or, Aubrey Stayne's Revenge. Written for This Paper by Edgar Fawcett.

CHAPTER 1.

die and yet breed there a kind of hate. with which he knew that she now and That was the way with Aubrey Stayne, then could most effectually play. notably intelligent, he had made in fase one so." who reigned as one of the social queens | half rising from his seat. Surely this of Europe. Madame d'Autreville was was satire! But he soon answered ber a widow, and yet searcely past four- with a sort of matter-of-fact humility. by the English Ambassador. It was a do you know it? I congratulate you. very brilliant affair, and the young And the crystal chandeliers seemed t Duches: d'Antreville shone there amid | darken | for Stayne, while she softly the homage of hundreds. In spirit added: But that must be all. I never Stayne found him eli almost instantly mean to marry again, for one potent at her feet. He was a great deal of an reason. Will you believe me when I artist by temperament and her face tell you that love the kind of love and figure, with their sculptural re- women feel toward men is in my case | pose, enchanted him. Of course she impossible?" was cold, he assured himself glacially change "Malame la Duchesse" into stones: simply "Mrs. Aubrey Stayne."

that this lady would make no such mat- | you." rimonial change whatever. The blow thing of that treacherous sort. Her refuse to believe me you will only be fault was more subile; she had red doing what I have done to myself for frained from showing him her real

They had spent a whole month toety there. Afterwards they met in Rome, and finally, just as the chestnut trees on the Champs Elysees had beboth. Madame owned a magnificent hotel en the Avenue du Bois de Boulogne. She chose to give two samptuous balls that season, and her dinners. as usual, were the delight of the gilded cliques. People had begun to wonder if her engagement to the young masterly adroitness. American millionaire seen so often in

It was after one of those costly banquets of hers that Stayne, on a certain evening, managed to linger later than all the other gaests. He remembered so perfectly, in future reflections, the small white and gold room, with its tapestries of rose-colored velvet, where this woman whom he worshiped heard his first real declaration of passion. She was leaning back in a great armchair, indolently faming herself. He had thought her almost maddeningly fair that night in her robe of black tulle, with not a single jewel on her milky arms or neck, and a long, straggling spray at her breast of eglantine in diamonds. The dinner had not been very large, but some great people had attended it. And now they all had gone away the Kussian Ambassa log, There, now; are you satisfied?" and the Austrian Princess, and the looking up into the marble beauty of her face intently, he paused for sev-her face and telling her how it had be-eral moments. Then you have no est efforts." come the dream of his life to make her ideal," he resumed, "no - ?"

mentioned, however lightly, the fact and shame?"
of his personal possessions. But and in this final admission there seemed the had already cruis doing this denly, to his surprise and alarm, she so much piercing sincerity that for a stately yacht of his, the Nomad, along also mentioned them, saying with Hips long time after he had hastened from anim cons Atlantic and Mediterranean that appeared just to move and no Hortensed Autreville's presence Stayne coats. He now chose the Pacific.

tune of yours?"

"Yes," he faltered, chagrined, fear-In certain hearts love may refuse to ling some delicate as and of that satire

His love was natural enough, and his | "Tell me just how large," she went hate could not be called unreasonable. on, with the faintest flicker of a smile. An American by birth, he had lived "I mean in francs, not do lars. Those many years abroad. High, handsome, American dollars of yours always con-

"Impossible:" he muttered.

so. One feature alone seemed to indi- "Yes. You should not blame me: I cate otherwise her large eyes of don't deserve blame. I suspected that drowsy brown, brooding below the perhaps you cared for me, but I was I Instrous curves of their lashes. But not sure you would ever confess to me after talking with her and feeling cer- that you did, and I secretly hoped that tain that he had wrought upon her a you would not. It has been easy to and one of these he read of Hostense distinct impression, he told himself that this very coldness was an added that this very coldness was an added charm. When all was said, did not construct the pursued, with her lips particular that the had wrought upon her a you would not. It has been easy to answer, and the pursued the publicant the publican this type of woman piete and fascinate ing in a smile and her eyes for a model to had the vengeful tenor of his him more than any other? She was ment rivaling the scintiblance of the man irgs, in early autumn he returned belt it best on this decreted island. Big cities have been a assed as the improud, overbearing, even insolent, if you gems on her breast, "with your face. Indicate, and though accidentally made stands at once exactly it is idea of pleased: but did not these aggressive your figure, your good manners, your aware that she was sojourning at her establishing himself as its latest occutrans combine with the snowy leveli- capable brain and your monstrous for- town noted for two or three days before pant, and cost across the channel for ness of her beauty to make her win-some beyond all words? "I'm proud be in one enough to refuse you? And going to stay with her triend the Coun-tess of televalban, in some restshire, he verience are complete." myself, for that matter," reflected yet 1 do-1 must. Listen;" and she almost at one start d for Havre, sail-Stayne, who was really quit the resislowly furled her fan, letting its closed ing thence to America. verse, all things considered, for he framework rest on his coat sleeve. "It came of a family distinguished three is quite true that they compelled me his time between New York and the enting and can porting some heaver or four generations are, and had fallen to marry the late Due of Antreville. It heir to a property of several million is equally true that I detested him. he was born, Staves not seldem deported by the court but morely because he was my hust be had purious to a property of several million. But morely because he was my hust be was born, Staves not seldem deported by the court but morely because he was my hust be most exceptive way. pied an almost exalted position, while band; for no other reason. He was His old soavity would at times wholly bong time be paced the land, while abroad his repaided and magnified not at all ill-looking, and he was not leave him, and a morese current beach that the masical be yl wealth was certainly no drawback. particularly old. Yet my entire mar- would take its place. Not and then sen appeal with tender on I teamwealth was certainly no drawback. On general principles he soon found himself shrinking from the idea of marryriom. Would you have me tormarrying a woman with a title. It would be called a snobolsh and cold-blooded thing by everybody who knew him. But then, on the other hand, there was the woman behind the title.

The first marryriom, would you have me tormarryriom, would be called a snobolsh and cold-blooded thing by everybody who knew him. But then, on the other hand, there was the woman behind the title.

The first marryriom, would you have me tormarryriom, would you have me do so because your engines of tormed a name of the first marryriom. The first marryriom, would take its place. Not and then he would take its place. The would take its place. Not and then he would take its p And when she married him she would ded, if you please, with precious he was forced to pay the penalty of in the odd bille species of bungalow Stayne sprang to his feet. "I don't But on further investigating the substand you," he broke out, fierce- of dementia, if not already mad. Had be not to vated for one appearance jeet, Stayne received the bitter tidings by. "Or, if I do, 1-1 refuge to believe not his maternal oncle, Andreas Australian in the action in the particular of the patterniary select, a change, not stand, myself," she said. "And if you stare me in the face."

"shall I tell you what that fact is?" gether in Nice, and he had accompa-laughed Stayne, with great bitterness. guise of one. Stayne knew this and at ing which he had designed for his ber-"It is some other man some man, per- once felt the verify of the tidings hear manage, and here he abode for nearly and yet adore." gun to whiten with their pearly spring- lady. "I would reduce myself almost indifference as well. But through both voices from a multitude of giants in now continued, that either complete was yet one of the least contented. He of his retreat. This door faced a her train would not soon publicly tranbut half read. It often fills me with hapriness.

charm and joy of living. "Answer me!" exclaimed Stayne, with notes of grief and comman i ming ing in his voice, "Can it be p ssible, Hertense d'Autreville, that you have never seen a man whom you could love?" "Never," she returned.

"Not one whom you believed able, by his devetion, to win your love?"

to me that you will never marry "Yes. You have no right to require English Duke and he was seated on a and rebuke. "As if I could be that, people or bequestized it to them, and sort of low tittle divan at her side, with the love I feel for you." Scanning what hideous char atanism and dis-

as if she listened to him. And yet he quick lifting of one hand. "I have an yacht, entirely without personal com- iana by the I nited States. The knew that she did listen. This was her ideal-yes," came her reply. "but I pantenship other than that of sailingway. Perhaps in a few more moments have given up all hope of ever realiz- master and crew. His friends held all that splendid apathy would vanish; ling it. That is my sorrow my de- this to be another mad freak, but their perhaps flame would flash out, as it spair! Ah, this sounds foolish enough, | verdiet was doubtless tinged with envy. were, below the melting ice of her personality.

I know. But it is true, and every new | Stayne, who passionately leved the sea. A feature of the celebration already sonality.

A feature of the celebration already month that I go on existing I am the want d to broad in its unshared com- determined on s the dedication of a "I recollect what you have told me," more keenly certain of it. You must pany. The impulse was not unlike that monument to Thomas Jefferson. Stayne was saying. Your marriage be aware, by this time, that with all of Byren, and when we recall that this my lightness I am still what is called a young American was in his own style with France embraced about 1,500,widowhood never dealt you a pang, religious woman. Perhaps the ideal almost as handson, as the famed Since then no woman in Europe has of which I speak is not of this world at | English singer, and that his tastes had more suiters at her feet. Well, all. Perhaps I shall some day find it were strongly pecta, the analogy surely I am merely one of this adoring multi- beyond the bounds of death. There does not suffer, tude. Have I the right to hope for are times when I believe so, there are | "The sea may tell me," he would be been made the States of Louisiana, more than these? You Frenchwomen times when I lose all faith. Only, one casionally reflect before starting- and Arkansas. Missouri, Iowa, Minneare sometimes terribly subtle, and it point is clear, is undeniable; you have reflect half in humorous earnest, half sota, North and South Dakota, Monmay be true that I have deceived fay-self in dreaming you would care to link been far more right than you suspected in somber et - "what sort of incentive. tana. Idaho, Washington, Oregon, in accusing me of a great codness, occupation, self-absorption my life just Wyoming, Nebraska and Kansas your life with my own to share with Although phy, affection, and other of new really desires. Or, it may tell me. Baltimore Sun, me the fortune that I lay before you in the kindlier emotions are not foreign on the other hand, whether griof and to my spirit, I am none the less a has disappointment have indeed turnst my He paused, and her face remained so man creature born without the power soul into an oubliette of that an ereirresponsive that he was on the verge of loving as a wife must alone love to Bastille, ennul, and dome I that I Challer to a newly married man "I of cursing his own felly for having save her marriage from being mockery shall wait there only a single summons | don't know-don't know-don't know," replied the condited every word she had spoken. reacting it after many days of indolent self and his aching melancholy to a pleasure-journey; tonce audacious and small town that nestled mong some of immense. the loftiest mountains of the Tyrol, and there strove to gain from nature in her calm and grand phases a philosophic relief from his burning disappoint-

CHAPTER IL degrees a certain cynic element in his mitted himself certain follies whic. disposition prevailed with glormy re- although his strong inherent refinesult. After all, had he not merely ment prevented them from ever being been the cupe of a finished coquette? of the grasser sert, now filled him with Might not the remartic nevelty in a dreary remove. The huge blue which Madamed Autreville had chosen levels of the Pacific at once soothed to munth her confession have been and reproached him Perhaps, he at soul? Did she deserve a gleam of his lands and pearly beaches of tropic islnot privately exhibitated by the an- was destined to find forever, here guish of which she had made him a among these vast quiescent seas, a victim: Where was the necessity of haven of delicious repose, such a woman as she marrying again? Paris the acquaintance of a woman. He made an impatient movement. Her least wish was now gratified by time there, and then struck southwestthe amplitude of those funds which her dead poure had bequeathed her, splendid condition, his nicked crew in Every n w bayer prestrate at her garand-twenty, when Stayle first met her. "Really, that is enormous," she said. This meeting took place at a ball given "You're five times richer than I am: triumph. The world was full of just is lamb one of which was tached two triumpn. The world was full of just islands, one of which was, perhaps, two such bloodless sirens, and she toware to thousand acres in extent and inhabited malignly am ng them all as a sinister oneen. What she deserved was not and a few mondre is of harmless, halfthis tribute on his own part of moping civilized natives. The other island by and weak-willed for locumess. Punishment was indeed what she deserved. Nomad had scarcely landed him on its and in his altered and even savage edge before S ayne became entranced to the Republica is term to make alme od Stayne found himself lenging for with its lonely and levely charms. Its her a kind of counter-blow that she near neighbor, and doubtless because fall was anticipated by the thomserats, would remember till the day of her of the finelish trading post across the but the overwhelm of Republic in vic-

Letters had meanwhile reached him from the gay world beyond his placid mountain reteat, and in more than quaintest kind of a dwelling, which ed himself in the most eccentric way. e.a ed on the previous day. For a sistence in the Author line? hard things that were being said of its palm- and umber of its rocks. years. But the fact still continues to him. The informant was this time a Nearly ten minutes later a terrific real friend, and not, as so often hap- tropical storm had broken loose. pens in such cases, a fee under the stayne took refuge in the little buildthey annexed him excessively. Then bierced the almost inky air, and he is, without leve, like a wondrous book | choose from and devote yourself to her | ful glimeses of it, for the bitlows tout > the devis of it. They're all alike at der that seemed to phra e, while he least, to m .. " charity, then. Dive deep into the waters of aitrai-m."

a pearl," specred Stayne. "Still," he ling him death, for some great dark obwent on, with an air much less ironical | jeet seemed to tumble like an overand languid. "I have always bound to hoppling clif between himself and the "Then you wen are willing to swear | do something lastingly humanitarian | white-lit, tempestacus sea. Then tiercer before I died. The only trouble with torrents of rain fell, and were driven us who possess, power to help great toward the opening in such solid liquid masses of the ple in this way is the sheets that it needed all his might to cincts, a little has than one-third of that I shall so swear, but I will I do. | thought of what he relide maladminist chese the door. tration may overtake our work after "Satisfied." he broke forth, in pain | we have either led wed it upon the three days in Paris, but betook him- from Rio Janeiro to San Francisco, a Bits.

On the Californian shores he lingered for avoor three menths, and at length put forth for a kind of adventurous ocean ramble among the mighty Polyn sian sweeps. His curious longing had all this time remained as indefinite as it was acute. In San Fran-At first he almost fancied that he cisco a sudden wish for human associahad succeeded in this design. But by tion had eized him, and he had persimply the cruelty of a larren and arid length told himself, when palmy headcompassion? No e than this, was she ands becan to cawn on his sight, he > ward. His yacht was meanwhile in excellent health and perfect discipline. by a small settlement of English traders possibly three miles distint, and the amid a grove of rastling palms, the

One afternoon be remained quite alone on the island, waile the Nomail During the next year, while passing steamed away for the purpose of se-being conspicuous. A report get into that he was famishing. But a short time this is written elreulation that he was on the verge while to oce sure, and just as he had brey, diet a functie, and was it not wholly if the lest which is supposed Madage d'Autreville shrugged her well known that insanity had more treccurin rapadise fell up no ky and to him proved a fearful one. Not that statuesque shoulders, "I don't under- than once ecopied out with ugly jer- land. One became quickly and gloomily misted over, and the other caught A friend at last told Stayne of the naw and weird tints in the emerald of haps, who mayou think beneath you and in up no him with full force. At first two hours, while javelins of lightning "Ah, if only it were," exclaimed the a sense of di-gust beset him, and of could hear the roar of the sea like to beggary if I could once say of any mental states beamed clearly to bim a mingled wrath and pain. When at last living man that actually, absolutely, I certain distinct realization. His life the torrents of tain had les ened, and bad grown purposeless. Nearly the the whole riotons turbulence was in a It occurred to her listener, as she most envied man in the country, he measure stilled, he drew near the door truth dwelt in both her voice and look, said something of this sort to the gap in the rocks, and he now or else that she was deceiving with a friend who had brought him news of succeeded in discerning, though masterly adroitness.

"For life," she hurried on, with a betrayal of excitement startlingly rare, levely girl there are thousands to yards beyond. But he englished the englished with a betrayal of excitement startlingly rare. horror to think that I shall go to my "Ah, true, true," nurmured Stayne, than they were manuach. Now and grave and yet never know the chief streking his mustache. "There are then the lightning alord his vision, housands to choose from and that's followed as it was by crashes of thunheard them, awful tidings of the Nomad "Build some cole-sal monument of and these who mannet heat, Suddenly, as a Tresh blaze of flame illumined the sh re, he felt certain "And bring up a claus-shell instead of that the lightning had just missed deal-

ITO BE CONTINUED !

The Fair of 1903.

the next World's Fair in 1903, in He soon afterward sailed away for celebration of the centennial of the his own. She hardly seemed, at times, But here she cut him short, with a semewhere in a magnificent steam acquisition of the Territory of Louistreats was made in 1803, but the transfer of the Territory did not take place until the following year. A feature of the celebration already 0.0 square miles, or half the present area of the United States, and twice its area at that time. From it have

"So you have got a wife," said man with evident hesitation. "Sometimes I think I've got her, and sometimes I think she's got me. You see, I've only been married a few months. and I can't tell just yet how the com-"It is very large, is it not, that for- He did not remain more than two or sailing and after pauses at many a part, bipation is going to turn out."-Tid-

All Seemed to Go Pretty Much One Way.

REPUBLICANS ON TOP.

M'KINLEY CLAIMS OHIO EY EIGHTY THOUSAND.

Iowa, Massachusetts, and New York Lost to the Democrats-Pepulsis Chain Che Supreme Court Judg - in South Pakola Returns from Many States.

almost exactly reversed, and a seems to 54,377. mo ta elean sweep. A mederal viteome forceful means of inflicting upon extent was less than half that of its action from the majestic figures of last intervening channel, it was apparently | tory in half a colon states that gave quite describel. But Stayne found there, | Cieveland great magnities a year ago ent it is a mighty land-like. The He- Hean tieset from Mayor down was Hawaiian si neture with a veranda and publicums themselves a e-surprised, e ected. pre mable Dimeratie straggolds, yet to have taken place in the large e m- 1889, 7,333.

The Republican servey Manacharetts | Pierre-Returns are coming in slowby 25,000 maj rity. New York by 75,000 by but the Republicans have carried to 100,000, Ohio by probably 50,000, everything. The Populists and Demosmaller, more southerly town, where in niture which the small boots could 100,000 majority. Virginia, Maryland, 18,000. and Kentucky are Democratic, of course, though by reduced majorities. | Richmond-Virginia went Demogering f ature of the election. With 1000 majority. The victors of the Pemone accord the party leaders in New ocrats is attributed to the failure of York, Hoston, Philade of ia. Chicago, the Republicans to support the Popus Cincinnati, Cleveland, Pittsburg, ituf- | list ticket. fals, and every other important city lay the blame to the disc atent among

The Associated Press depatenes the majority of chies electing their as assurately as could be lead at the of much interest.

Columbus - Returns so far received show that McKinley has 8,000 plurality over Neal and 10.9 th majority lever all his three opp neats. The Legislature is overwhelmingly Republican and stands as follows: Senate, Republicans, 24: Democrats, 7. House, Republicans, 52; Democrats, 55. Cut of eighty-eight counties in Chio McKinby (a.) ried sixty-f ur and la many of the others was only a few hundred behind Neal. It is the largest plurality or majority ever given any man elected Governor in the State rave the PLSS2 to Brough ever Vallandigham in 1863. The Re- a plurality of about 5,000. publican gains were uniform all over the State. Chillicothe, the heme of Neal, Democratic candidate for for the party in the Legislature, Governor, went Requidican for the first time. This is the first majority over all any State candidate has had since Fester's election. ust after Garneld's death in 181. Blaine had a majority in 1884, but the Republican State ticket then had only a pairfulity. Last year the Demce ats e ected one Presidential elector, and the R publican plurality was then 1.072. McKinley's plurality in 1891 s. M. Jackso was 21.511. In 18.6 the Republicans Republican car had 10,000 placelity, and in 1800 the Democrats elected Gov. Campbell by 10.872, when there was a small vote.

triwit. Des Moin - Late returns increase the Republican plurality on the State ans and 3 Popullsts. This insures the tick a to over 10,000. The General Assembly is safely Republican in both beanenes and probably anti-Prohibis tion, though a majority of the Repub-Teans elected are pleaged to maintain prohibition. Returns from 640 prethe State, give Jackson New, ever Boies Dem., for Covernor, 11,700, indicating a plurality for the entire State of about 25,000, which will be in- wheat, cattle and hogs: creased to 40,000 on the balance of the St. Louis is already in the field for | State ticket. For the first time in eral anti-Prohibitionists. The Prohi-

New York.

New York City-The Democratic defeat is about as complete as it can be. Bartlett, the Republican opponent of Maynard, is elected by something over 2.000 majority, and the rest of the Republican State tick the present majorities of from 15,000 up to twice that. The Republicans have cuptured the Legislature, the Schale being a tie and the Assembly Republican by four or five votes. New York is the only fall and all the others have cone overwhelmingly Republican. The Demoeracic plurality in the State in 1:91

Meager returns from kansas indicate sufficient numbers. In many counties in all the States the surplus has already been disposed of. In other cases they have not yet been got therokee county, waich gave 1.700 in condition, for lack of suitable feed. publicans. Crowley county, in which vana. Several persons were shot.

the vote was very close in 1892, also goes Republican.

In Chicago.

Chicago-Judge Gary has been reelected Judge of the Superior Court of Cook County by a majority of 5,000 votes. With the exception of J. Henry Kraft, the other judicial candidates on the Republican ticket have also been elected by majorities varying from 1.000 to 5,000. The great fight has been over the election of Judge Gary, who presided at the trial of the anarchists.

Massachus etts.

Posten-The Republicans have carried the State and elected their ticket fra in Covernor down. The Legislature is a lidly Republican. Greenha'ge's placed at 10,000. The canspaign was short and short, fought alin stenticely on national issues, the ari and the currency. The Pemocartle plurality for Governor last year wa - 2,...34. Pennsylvania.

Philadelphia I emiselyania gave a I egateless majority which, when the -McKintey's Contest Ign and State Isa of dialecount is completed, it is believed. sucs and Was Connected on the rand- with exceed 119,000, surpassing all pre-Iowa Republicans Make a Chan rweep Voys records in the listory of the party in this State with one enception. This exception was the majority 137,718, riven Grant for President over Greeley The situation of a year are has been in 1872. Republican planal ty in 1891, Nebraska.

Onaha-Returns from the State are c ming in slowly. The scattering reports receives indicate Republican beses on the head of the ticket and L'opulist gain. The race between Harr son Rep. and Holeemb Pop. will is something more than a reaction. Be pretty close. Returns not yet avail-According to a Washington corresponds at le. In this city the entire Repub-

Maryland.

Baltimore-Returns from many parts. of Maryland show that the Democrats have elected their cardidate for State. Comptroller by a large plurality. Dema mighty resultion of a ntiment seems ocratic plurality for Comptroller in South Dakota.

I wa by 40,000. Notice ka by a safe may crais have lost everywhere, and the jority, and i'en sylvan a rets up over Republican plurality is placed at V rginit.

The size of the ma orities is the stag- eratic by all the way from 35,000 to 50,-

Louisville, This State has gone

Democratic, as usual, thu Democrats in given below show the result in figures whole ticket. The election was devoid Echoes of the Election. Female suffrage carrie l in Colorado.

The Republicans re-elected Mayor Plagree at Derroit by a majority of Republicans claim that Bemis Rep.

is elected Mayor of Omaha by 2,500 plurality. O'Ferrall, Democrat, for Covernor of Virginia, has a majority of between 15,000 and 20,000. The racetrack war in New Jersey resulted in the Republicans gaining control of the Legislature.

The Republican Supreme Court ticket was elected in South Dakota by

Utah has gene largely Democratic, the returns indicating a safe majority

Gus Steinman, Democrat, has been elected Mayor of Sacramento by a maj raty of 506, receiving 2,203 votes, Henry E. Tiepke (Rep.) is elected Mayor of Pawtacket, R. I., by 94 majority over The mas Rebinson (Dem.). Republican gains are reported in Kan a and latest indications are that the ja to has been victorious through-

S. M. Jackson and D. Newlin Fell, Republic in candidates in Pennsylvania for State Treasurer and Supreme Judge, were elected by pluralities of nearly 65,000.

The next Kentucky Legislature will consist of 110 Democra's, 25 Republire-election of William Lindsay, United States Senator.

WHEAT, CATTLE, HOGS.

Reports Received by the Farmers' Review as to Their Condition.

Reports have been received from the correspondents of the Farmers' Review in twelve State- as to the condition of Wheat.-In Illinois the condition of the growing crop is generally reported at fair and eleven years the Republicans elect sev-on account of the drought. Rayages by feseral anti-Prombitionists. The Profit-bition and Populist votes are unexpect-edly light.

Sew York.

Sian fly are reported in some of the counties, though the damage is nowhere reported great. Wheat sown early is looking well in most instances, but the late sown is not yet high enough to have its character and condition determined. Some fields are already suffering for luck of moisture. In Indians the crop is quite generally reported as good and growing finely. In Ohio much of the wheat is just coming up. That already up is looking well as a rule, and the outloo is very encouraging. In Michigan many of the farmers were late in getting their wheat into the ground, and the field are not covered sufficiently yet with the plant to protect the roots in case of early and hard freezes. The general prospect is fair in Nebraska. Tre general prospect is fair in Nebraska. The drouth is felt in Wiscons n, and for that reason many of the fields are backward. or five votes. New York is the only CATTLE.—Condition of cattle is generally big city in the State that has gone fair to good in Illinois Indiana, thio, Michi-Beneseratie. Bracklan, Abany, Buf- gan, Kentucky, Miss ari, Kansas, Nebraska, lowa. Wiscon, in Minnesota and the Dasotas. Not a creat many are being sent to market in Illinois. Many farmers are holding back their stock for better prices, while the local market takes the surplus that must be disposed of. In Ohio the home market is being supplied, and little is being done beyond that as a rule. The Topoka-Toe Australian ballot sy . | general movement throughout the State is ton va used in Kansas for the first time and though there was some friction in localities, where the law was the same is true of Michigan, A believed to be same is true of Michigan, A believed to be same is true in Wisconsin.

The same is true in Wisconsin.

Hous, House, House are everywhere in cool conditions.

not the roughly understood, on the tion. Movement is brisk where the hogs are whole the election to sed off smoothly, fat shough to go forward or where they are in

Somner county, another Populist | A GANG of fifty Cuban outlaws has stronghold, will be carried by the Re- been broken up by officers near Ha-